STATE OF MICHIGAN,
Office of the Secretary of State, } ss.

I, Washington Gardner, Secretary of State of the State of Michigan, do hereby certify that I have compared the annexed and foregoing list of all the members elect of the House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, for the years 1897 and 1898, with the original returns, as transmitted to me by the clerks of the various counties of the State, and that it is a true and correct list.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, at Lansing, this fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

[SEAL.]

WASHINGTON GARDNER,
Secretary of State.

The members elect appeared at the Clerk's desk and took and subscribed the constitutional oath of office, which was administered by the Hon. Charles D. Long, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, in accordance with the statute; all the members elect so appearing and taking the oath except August Niedermeier, of Monroe County.

During the call of the list of the members elect, when the name of James Kerr, member-elect from the Second District of Saginaw County, was called,

Mr. Herrig, of the First District of Saginaw County, arose in his place and presented the protest of John Baird against the administration of the oath to Mr. Kerr.

The following is the protest:

To the House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

Your petitioner, John Baird, respectfully shows that he is a citizen of the United States, and a qualified elector in the County of Saginaw and Township of Zilwaukee; that said Township of Zilwaukee is a part of the Second Legislative District of the County of Saginaw; that said Legislative District consists of the Townships of Albee, Birch Run, Blumfield, Bridgeport, Buena Vista, Chesaning, Frankenmuth, Maple Grove, Spaulding, Taymouth and Zilwaukee, in said County; that he is now and for a long time past to wit: For a period of eighteen (18) years upwards, has been a resident of said County and Township.

Your petitioner further shows, that said Second District of Saginaw County was entitled to one Representative in the Legislature, who is elected at the general election held in said Township and State upon the 3d day of November, A. D. 1896.

Your petitioner further shows, that there were two (2) candidates for member of the Legislature from said Second District. That your petitioner was a candidate on the Republican ticket, and James Kerr, of the Township of Taymouth, was a candidate on the People's Union Democratic Silver ticket, and there were no other candidates in said District.

That the election returns from the various Townships in said District show a total vote cast for Representative in said District of 4,049.

That the following is a tabulated statement of the vote cast for each in the respective Townships:

REPRESENTATIVE—SECOND DISTRICT.

	Baird.	Kerr.
Albee	99	82
Birch Run.....	174	210
Blumfield	209	100
Bridgeport	263	191
Buena Vista.....	280	311
Chesaning	320	265
Frankenmuth	140	254
Maple Grove.....	138	233
Spaulding	65	87
Taymouth	152	272
Zilwaukee	149	55
	<hr/> 1989	<hr/> 2060

Your petitioner further shows, that the official returns from all of said towns in said District, showed that your petitioner received 1989 of the votes cast, and opponent, James Kerr, 2060.

Your petitioner further shows, that in accordance with said returns, the County Canvassers of said county certified, that said James Kerr received a majority of 71 votes in said District.

That thereupon said James Kerr was declared duly elected a member of the Legislature from the Second Representative District of Saginaw County.

The said County Canvassers did not recount the vote for members of the Legislature in said district, but certified to the vote as it appeared upon the face of the returns from the various townships in said district.

That your petitioner filed a written request with the Board of County Canvassers of Saginaw County, at their meeting held subsequent to said election, held November 3, 1896, and more than 24 hours before they adjourned, requesting them to recount the vote for Representative in said legislative district, but that they refused to make such recount on the ground that they had no power in the premises, but that a recount of the vote of Representative of the Legislature was entirely within the province of the House of Representatives.

Your petitioner alleges that there was fraud and illegality in the conduct of the election and in the counting of the votes cast for Representative in several of the townships in said district, and that on a proper counting, lawfully cast, your petitioner is entitled to your certificate, that your petitioner was duly elected to said office.

Your petitioner complains that fraud, illegality and error occurred in the said townships in the conduct of said election as follows:

First, That in the township of Birch Run, many persons unknown to your petitioner, who were not members of the Board of Election Inspectors, and who had no authority to act at the polls at said election in said township, remained in the room of said polling place, and entered booths with electors, and influenced them as to the manner of preparing their ballots; that many electors in said township were instructed at said election, how to cast their votes by some of the Inspectors of Election, and their ballots marked by them, and many by the Challengers, without said persons being first duly sworn that they could not read English or that because of physical disability, they could not mark their ballots, nor was such disability made manifest to said Inspectors.

That your petitioner believes and charges on information and belief, that many persons voted at said election in said township, who were not entitled to vote, and who were not electors, and many were allowed to vote who were not registered.

Your petitioner further shows, that said election was illegally conducted in said township in this, that no suitable ballot box with lock and key having an opening through the lid, of size to admit a single closed ballot was provided by the Township Clerk for the reception of the ballots cast at said election.

That a plain box which had been used by grocers for bird seed was used in said township at said election to receive the ballots cast by the electors at said election, that it was not furnished with any lock or key, and that for that reason the box was not examined as provided by Section 7 Act No. 190 of the laws of 1891, nor the safeguards, therein provided, against fraud complied with, and for the same reason the safeguards against fraud in case of adjournment, could not and were not carried out.

That after the close of polls in said township at said election, and the counting of the ballots contained in said box by the election inspectors, the ballots were not for the reason above stated placed in the ballot box and securely sealed, and the instructions given in reference thereto in Section 37 of said Act No. 190 complied with.

Your petitioner therefore shows, that the said election as conducted in said township of Birch Run was entirely illegal and void, and that the entire vote cast therein at said election should be rejected.

Second, That in the township of Frankenmuth many votes, to wit, 22, were cast for your petitioner which were not counted for him at all.

That while the returns of said township showed that your petitioner received 140 votes in said township, the fact is, that 162 votes were cast for your petitioner and should have been counted for him, and that said Kerr received but 254 votes in said township.

Third, Your petitioner further shows that in the Township of Taymouth, James W. Morse, who was an inspector of election at the said general election, held on the 3d day of November, 1896, in said township, and other persons whose names are not known to your petitioner, entered the election booths with electors, and in the room where said election was being held, and in said booth urged them to vote for the ticket which contained the name of said James Kerr for Representative in the Legislature, and also marked their ballots for them.

Your petitioner further says, that at least 50 persons who voted at said election in said township were so instructed by said Morse, and he marked the ballots of a great many, and on information and belief your petitioner avers that one-third of the persons who cast their ballots in said township at said election were so urged and instructed by said James M. Morse and by others.

That none of said persons so instructed by said Morse, or by any others, were sworn as to their ability to read English, or that, because of physical disability, they were unable to mark their ballots, nor was such disability made manifest to the inspectors of election in said township at said election.

Your petitioner further says, that said James W. Morse, who was working in the interest of said silver ticket, went into the booth with many persons who cast their votes in said township at said election, and assisted them in marking their ballots when no challenger was present.

Your petitioner further says, that many tickets were counted for said James Kerr illegally, and many tickets which were cast for your petitioner were not counted for him in said township at said election.

That a large number of people voted at said election illegally, and that a large number voted in said township at said election who were not registered.

That the following is a list of 22 names of persons who voted at said election in said township who were not registered in said township:

Wm. Arnold.....	No. 63	on poll list

Leonard Lang.....	" 194	"
James Robertson.....	" 379	"

Following is a list of persons who voted at said election in said township and who were registered by the board of election inspectors on election day, but none of whom were sworn as to their qualifications as voters or as to their right to vote in said township at said election:

Stephen Gouvon.....	No. 434	on poll list
August Mayhew.....	" 331	"
Samuel Morris.....	" 393	"
Chas. McDonald	" 276	"

Your petitioner refers to the affidavits of Joseph S. Phillips, David Leach, David McNally, of said township, and the complaint of your petitioner hereto annexed and marked respectively Exhibits "A," "B," "C," and "D," in support of the specific charges of fraud and illegality herein charged with reference to the conduct of said election in the township of Taymouth.

Your petitioner further shows, that in counting the ballots at said election after the polls were closed, persons who were not Inspectors or Clerks of Election, were allowed to assist and did assist in the counting of all the ballots so cast, and he especially charges that one Frank McNally, who was the challenger for the People's Union Silver Democratic party, assisted in counting said ballots, and your petitioner avers, that because of the fraud, error and illegality in the manner of conducting said election, in said Township of Taymouth, that the vote of said precinct is illegal and should be rejected.

In view of the premises your petitioner most respectfully protests against the administration of the oath of office to James Kerr as the Representative in the State Legislature, from the Second Legislative District of said Saginaw County and against his admission to a seat in the House of Representatives for the reasons assigned.

Your petitioner prays your honorable body that he may be declared elected as a Representative in the House of Representatives in the State of Michigan from the Second Representative District of Saginaw County.

And your petitioner will ever pray.

FOR JOHN DONOVAN.

The Clerk announced that William D. Gordon having received a majority of all the votes cast for Speaker, was duly chosen Speaker of the House.

Mr. Lusk moved that a committee of two be appointed by the Clerk to escort the Speaker-elect to the chair;

Which motion prevailed, and

The Clerk named as such committee Messrs. Lusk and Donovan.

The committee performed the duty assigned them and introduced the Speaker, who then addressed the House as follows:

Gentlemen of the House:

I desire to express the heartfelt gratitude which your confidence inspires. You have conferred an honor upon me, and the best return I can make is to give you faithful service, which I will endeavor to do. Such a mark of confidence and esteem proceeding from a body of representative men, I assure you, fills me with a sense of the responsibilities of this place, and a desire to merit your good will. I cannot describe my feelings upon this occasion; this marked proof of your confidence in re-electing me to this honorable position has aroused in my bosom the most grateful emotions; your action demonstrates a cordial approval of my services during the session of 1895 that is very pleasing indeed. To merit the continuance of this good opinion, and to have the friendship of each and every one of you through life is the compensation for which I will earnestly labor, and to your service I dedicate my humble abilities.

You have assembled at the capitol of our beloved State to enter upon important duties. The lines of party should be almost imperceptible during our session. There should be no collision of party spirit. We represent the entire people of this Commonwealth, and should strive unitedly and patriotically for the good of all our constituents, ever remembering that, "He serves his party best who serves the State the best."

At the last session I made no speeches upon the floor of the House, as I deem it very improper for a speaker to attempt to wield the power the whole House has bestowed upon him in favor of or against any bill or for the advancement or hindrance of any person or measure. I feel that the Speaker is the servant of the House, that he obtains all the power that he possesses from the House, and that he should never attempt to be autocratic or arbitrary. I shall always regard all the members as equals of each other, and of the Chair also. I do not intend to take the floor in debate while I occupy this chair, but I deem it proper at this time to make a few suggestions in relation to the conduct of the business of the House, and when I have concluded will leave the rest to your own good judgment.

The people have been for some time suffering from a general depression of business and a stagnation of nearly all industrial enterprises, and it behooves us to economize upon every hand, and to see to it that the money of the people is not expended imprudently or with prodigal hands. Although our compensation is very meagre and inadequate for the services we are expected to render, we have accepted the positions and it devolves upon us to give the people good and faithful service. The idea I wish to convey is that we should waste no time, that we should be in our respective places at least five days in the week and dispatch the business of the House as rapidly as possible. I think it would be wise to abandon the adjournment usually taken for about ten days, for the purpose of taking the "Junketing Trip," so-called. I do not think such expeditions are entirely barren of good results, but I believe much better results would be secured by the House remaining in session and doing business and permitting the committees to visit the public institutions of the State alternately under a rule or resolution to be adopted by the House. It would seem that if no such adjournment were taken and a plan inaugurated by which only a limited number of the committees, say not more than three, would be absent at the same time, and that all such visits be made during the first fifty days of the session, the work of the House might be advanced more rapidly, and thus save to the tax payers of the State a considerable sum of money. "Time is money," we want ever to bear in mind. A wise man said, "Man cannot make a single second of time, but can waste whole years of it." Let us make the most of every moment and endeavor to have a short business-like session. The session of 1895 was a short one, terminating on the 31st day of May. It would have been shorter if we had not devoted much time to general charter bills, prepared by the Commission, and although those bills did not all become laws, the fact that the bills relating to cities of the fourth class and villages did become laws should tend to decrease the amount of local legislation usually presented to the House.

I will briefly call your attention to another matter which I deem important. Often the bills introduced and referred to committees are crude in form and lacking in substance; in fact many of them are appropriately called "Skeleton Bills." Bills of this character do not enable the committees to do successful and progressive work in the committee room, and the work of the House is retarded thereby. If the members will endeavor to complete their bills before introduction it will give the committees work early in the session, and tend to expedite business, because to do good and creditable legislative work it is important that the committees obtain the bills, which they are expected to act upon, as soon as possible. Good committee work is very important. It has been well said by one of our leading statesmen, and an experienced legislator that, "The committee is the eye, the ear, the hand, and very often the brain of the assembly." It is also desirable that all bills of a local character be introduced early in the session, and so many of them as possible disposed of before the expiration of the time for the introduction of bills, and then the remainder of the session can be devoted to the consideration of bills of general importance. But while I am suggesting rapidity in our work I am not unmindful of the fact that it is wise to be cautious and prudent in all we do. Every measure should be carefully considered, and freedom of debate is beneficial, and has always been regarded as one of the essential requisites of a deliberative body. In almost every state of the Union the cry is raised that the laws passed by legislative bodies are very obscure in expression and inharmonious, and are not fully considered either in relation to the several parts of the bill itself or in reference to the laws then upon the statute books, and that they are often too hurriedly passed, that we legislate too much, attempting to cure all ills by legislation. Many of these complaints are well grounded, and we should strive earnestly to correct them. As there is little or no consultation between members before they meet in session the consequence is that each member prepares his own measures, they go into the legislative hopper and reach the respective committees; there is a lack of general supervision and centralization in our work. When the laws upon certain subjects are amended from time to time, they very frequently become so complicated that it is difficult for the ablest lawyers and the courts to say what the law is. Without entering into an extended discussion of this matter, I would suggest that a standing committee be formed at the opening of this session, the duties of which will be to propose legislation and prepare bills for the purpose of repealing obsolete and useless laws, and eliminating superfluous statutes and parts of statutes now upon our books, to prepare bills abridging, revising, and simplifying those statutes which have become complex and unnecessarily enlarged, and to also consider such bills as may be referred to it. It seems to me that a committee of this character would have a great and important work to do, and that its labors, if earnestly and faithfully performed, will be of inestimable value to the people of the whole State. This matter was discussed somewhat at the last session, but the idea was not advanced until it was too late to do successful work in the direction proposed. Therefore I thought it wise to call your attention to this question early so that if you decide it is advisable to adopt such a course the committee may be appointed as one of the regular standing committees, and may proceed with its work at once. I hope you will give the suggestions I have advanced careful consideration, and that your final action in relation thereto may be productive of much benefit to the State.

I am conscious of my own deficiencies, and will depend upon your generous spirit, your kindness and forbearance at all times. I hope to be animated with spirit of fairness and justice and will upon every occasion endeavor to carry out your will.

May the golden threads of harmony and wisdom glisten and shine in the warp and woof of the fabrics we weave here day by day, and this session be a pleasant one for us all, and may that Being who is the Supreme Ruler over all give each and every one of us health and vigor to do the work that is before us, and guide and direct us aright.

MESSAGE OF RETIRING GOVERNOR.

Senators and Representatives: In compliance with the mandate of the organic law of our State, that each retiring Governor shall communicate to the then incoming legislature such information in regard to the condition and affairs of the State as he may deem for the best interests thereof, together with such recommendations as to needed legislation as his experience shall have led him to believe wise and prudent for the welfare of society and the betterment of the condition of our people, I have the honor as well as the pleasure to submit the following for your consideration:

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

The financial condition of the State is not all that could be wished. The funds in the State Treasury are practically exhausted and about sixty thousand dollars has been advanced by Wayne county on taxes now being collected. Treasury empty.

This will necessitate the borrowing of a considerable sum of money to pay the expenses of the legislature and other expenses of the State government until the tax levy of 1896 can be collected.

There is, however, some consolation even in this statement. The State is in a better condition financially than at the close of the year for the last three years. December 31, 1893, the State had borrowed money and obtained advances to the amount of $392,759.54; in 1894, $251,840.18; in 1895 the borrowed money and advances amounted to $1,237,511.06, and in 1896 the advances amounted to $60,568.99. The estimates furnished the legislature of 1895 by the Auditor General contemplated that the amount would be sufficient to pay up arrearages and the current expenses of the State government until the tax levy of 1896 should become available. In anticipation of increased revenues from railroads, which were never realized by the failure of the House to pass the bill, and which would have yielded nothing to the general fund if it had passed, as the railroad tax goes to the school fund, the Senate Finance committee struck out $160,000, from the estimates. The increased cost of the insane, and other expenses over the estimates, made the deficiency December 31, 1895, considerably more than was expected. The cost of the State government for the year 1896 exceeded the estimates in the cost of the insane, in the allowances by Board of State Auditors, cost of collection of taxes, advances of money to counties to pay expenses of troops on duty, and in other expenses not anticipated. Comparative improvement.

The delinquent tax list also increased $129,295. The cost of collecting taxes exceeded receipts by $93,647.93; but these Causes of deficit.

lands will soon be homesteaded, thus ceasing to be an expense to the State, and will soon be bearing a share of the burdens of taxation. On the other hand, much more was collected of delinquent taxes of 1891, and previous years, than was anticipated. There has also been collected from counties $120,000, which was contingent on a judicial determination. It is impossible to state whether there will be a deficiency on December 31, 1897, but in view of the expenses incident to a session of the legislature, it is not improbable there will be. In making estimates of amounts needed, it must be remembered that the expenses of the State must be paid until June 30, 1898, on the tax levy of 1896.

Levy of '96 must carry the State until the middle of '98.

TAXATION.

Our educational system must be supported.

The State institutions are becoming a greater expense year by year to the people of the State, yet all of them are well worthy of maintenance. The near future will demand additions to some, and in other cases new institutions will be needed. It needs no argument to show that our educational institutions, from the rural and primary departments to the University, should have a fair and reasonable support. Education is the foundation of a free government. There is no escape from the care of our penal institutions, though good business management may make them more nearly self-sustaining as a whole than they have been in the past. There are some of our charitable institutions, which not only appeal to every humane instinct, but their support is in the interest of the State, both present and future. The insane, feeble minded, epileptic juvenile offenders and dependent children of both sexes, must be cared for somewhere, and the question arises, whether by the State, or by the counties and smaller municipalities. From the experience I have gained during the past four years I am of the opinion that the State should care for them. There may be some objections to this, but on the whole, State care has more to recommend it than any other plan yet proposed. Few insane are actually cured, and but few feeble minded become able to take care of themselves outside of an institution. It is a wise public policy which provides for the keeping of these unfortunates and they should be prevented as far as possible from reproducing their kind. As long as only children are taken into institutes for feeble minded, and the feeble minded adults and the insane are permitted to raise families, this class of State wards will increase rather than diminish. It would seem, therefore, from all standpoints, that the State should provide well for the care of the insane and for the custody and detention of the feeble minded. It is also necessary that provision be made for the children from the poor houses in order that they may be brought up to be self-sustaining, which is done at the State Public school at Coldwater with remarkable success. Of the juvenile offenders, the boys are taken care of at the Industrial School at Lansing, and although some of them finally lead criminal lives, very many of them are reformed, and all are prevented from leading a life of crime while they remain at the institution, and for a time afterwards. This is true even to a greater extent at the Industrial Home for Girls at Adrian, where the girls are now kept until they are twenty-one years of age, and then there is nothing left to do except to turn them out on society, if they are not before that time sent to their own homes, or admitted to the homes of others. There should be some provision whereby the girls who refuse to yield to the refining influences of the Home could be confined for at least a time. Even though they are not finally reformed, they are prevented while there from leading lives of crime and from polluting society. Leaving out of consideration the moral and humane aspects of the case, there is enough to justify the existence of this institution in a pecuniary sense, not only in protecting society from this class of people, but in preventing the reproduction of their kind to plague society in the future. In making this statement I realize that the farmers and other people who own real estate where there have been but few changes, note that their taxes increase year by year as the many public needs are provided for. This is looked upon as a hardship; and while in the aggregate, the taxes in Michigan have been moderate, it is the desire of everyone to relieve the burden of these taxes, if possible. I am of the opinion that if the State constitution were amended so as to permit specific taxes to be placed in the general fund, an amount sufficient to provide for the wants of the State government, well, could be raised in a manner much more equitable and less burdensome to the people than by the present method. In the first place we now have corporations which represent something like seven hundred million dollars of capital. One mill on a dollar of the capital stock of these corporations would produce $700,000 in revenue. One-third of the revenue derived from the liquor traffic of the State, which the municipalities could well afford to surrender in view of being excused from State taxation, would add another million to the revenues. The taxes now collected from insurance, telegraph and telephone companies could be safely transferred from the primary school fund to the general fund, leaving the tax on railroads to be devoted to the support of primary schools. There are franchise fees and fees derived from various other sources which would raise a large amount. Banks, building and loan associations, and mutual benefit and fraternal organizations could very properly contribute a small percentage for their own supervision, and to aid in paying general expenses. We also have a vast number of persons drawing salaries ranging from $500 to $5,000 per annum, or earning by personal or professional services like amounts, who do not now contribute anything toward the support of the State. One drawing a salary or earning professionally could much easier afford to pay the same rate of taxation on that salary or professional earning than could the owner of real or personal property. There is no doubt that for a very moderate percentage, much less than now levied on other property, from $500,000 to $1,000,000 could be raised from this source. One hundred thousand dollars could be raised by a tax of one half cent per gallon on kerosene oil. A large amount could be raised by a very small tax on evidences of indebtedness, without the usual disastrous results of taxing this class of property.

Evidences of indebtedness might pay a small specific tax.

Probable receipts from such specific taxes.

Advantages to be gained.

There would be no difficulty in raising from three to four million dollars in this way, which would increase as the population and property increased. This would relieve the people of direct taxation, and be so collected as to be in nowise burdensome. It would provide ample revenue for the support of our educational, penal, charitable and reformatory institutions, enable us to pay fair salaries to our public servants, and do many other things which the legislature very properly refrains from now doing on account of adding to the burdens of the taxpayer. If objection is made that manufacturing corporations are now paying taxes on their property the same as others, it must be remembered that they would be relieved from paying a direct State tax. If necessary, the percentage on capital stock could be moderately increased, and the usual exemptions given to their personal property by assessing officers could be legalized. It would seem to me that some change in the methods of raising revenue like that intimated above is well worthy of your serious consideration, in view of the constantly growing burden of taxation on real and personal property, and the fact that so many of those included in this proposed change do not now contribute anything, and would not thereby be required to contribute to a burdensome degree.

The present method of taxing railroads, defended.

The question of taxation of railroads has agitated the public mind ever since railroads have been in operation. Michigan has always treated her railroads as public institutions, supported by the whole public and the whole public should have the benefit of their contributions towards paying the public expenses. In the light of experience it seems to me the present plan has many things in its favor. Under the present system the taxes are collected with a very minimum of expense. They can be increased or diminished as may seem equitable or desirable by simply changing the rate of taxation on the earnings. The people of the whole State, who contribute towards the support and maintenance of railroads, get the benefits of this method, and it makes little difference whether it all goes into the State treasury for State purposes, or whether it goes into the primary school fund for the support of schools, it practically relieves the taxpayers of so much burden of taxation. If it is attempted to assess railroads as other property is assessed, a town that is fortunate enough to have a railroad running through it would get all the benefits derived from taxation of the property of the railroad lying in that township, while an adjoining township, whose residents may contribute much more towards the maintenance of the railroad, but which the railroad does not traverse, would get no benefit. Then there would be a constant controversy and irregularity in the rate of assessments. Apparently, under such a system the large business centers, where nearly all the rolling stock and personal property of the corporation would be assessed, would get practically all the benefits, at the expense of the people of the rest of the State who contribute their full share towards the business of railroad companies. It may reasonably be questioned whether if such a system were adopted the railroad companies would not be driven in self defense to take their shops and rolling stock away from the large cities, and build up little towns of their own, devoted entirely to their own interests. It seems to me that the present system of taxing railroads, and the present manner of disposing of the funds derived therefrom, is more equitable and has more to recommend it generally, than any other system yet advanced. In making these statements I am not discussing the question as to whether railroads pay too much or too little taxes, but only to urge that whenever taxes are levied and collected the present system of assessment and disposition of the taxes is the most equitable and desirable for all concerned.

A specific tax on earnings the best method for all concerned.

Four years ago I used the following language in relation to railroads and renewed it two years ago.

"We have in our State a few railroads which were pioneers of their kind and were granted special charters with special privileges. They are today among the most prosperous of our great system of railroads. They have contributed much to the growth and prosperity of our State, and have reaped a golden reward therefor. They have now become an aristocracy, or privileged class of railroads, both as to rates charged and taxes paid. This condition is unjust to the general law roads, and unjust to the people of the State. A State is no more justified in a breach of contract than an individual, but in some instances the railroads have themselves broken the contract, and when this has not been done the charters themselves provide a means for their repeal.

Quotation from message of 1893.

"It only needs to be stated that railroads, like individuals, should be governed by the same laws, and be subject to the same burdens, for the support of the government. I trust this question will receive your early and careful attention."

Taxes on chartered roads.

Since then, the Michigan Central Railroad Company has accepted an amendment to their charter passed by the legislature of 1893, by which they were brought under the provisions of the general law taxing railroads at present rates; but that act has now become a part of their charter, and can be altered or amended only under the same provisions as the charter itself. Generally speaking, railroads are suffering financially about the same as other kinds of business, but the burden of taxation has been increased on all other kinds of property notwithstanding the reduction in income, and there seems to be no good reason why railroads should not share in the increased burdens.

The present
commended.

If there is to be no change in the principle of levying taxes, the present tax law is operating better than any of its predecessors, and in such a way that no radical changes would be desirable. It is understood that the Tax Statistician will have some amendments to offer in the manner of assessing property, but nothing, as I understand, involving the general principles of taxation.

Tax clearance
the treasury.

In connection with the question of taxation it might be proper to state that the bill passed two years ago providing for a clearance sale was, after careful consideration, not permitted to become a law for want of executive signature. Upon consultation with the Auditor General I ascertained that in the seven clearance sales previous to the adoption of the present system, only $63,000 had been received for lands sold by clearance sales. In his opinion much more would be obtained without making these sales. Experience has shown the wisdom of this decision, because up to this time under our present system more than $210,000 has been received. There has also been a large amount of land homesteaded.

STATE PRISONS AND PENOLOGY.

CONDITION OF PRISONERS.

Comparative cost of maintenance at the
prisons.

The prisons of Michigan continue to show improved results in discipline, reformation and cost of maintenance. That they can be made, in the aggregate, self-supporting, is not probable, though, under favorable conditions, the one at Jackson should be. The annual net expense of keeping prisoners for the biennial period ending June 30, 1896, at Jackson was $21.55 per inmate; at Marquette, $147.61 per inmate; and at Ionia, $75.32 per inmate. For the biennial period ending June 30, 1894, the net annual cost per inmate at Jackson was $4.56; at Marquette, $219.36 and at Ionia, $215.34. While the cost of maintenance has been somewhat larger at Jackson, it shows a vast improvement at Ionia and Marquette. This has been brought about by change of methods, and by much more efficient management than heretofore. The prisoners have come much nearer earning their own keeping. The State account system has been employed mainly at the Ionia prison, while at Jackson and Marquette the prisoners have been employed under contract. During the past two years but few convicts at Marquette have been employed in productive industries, and for a considerable period the cost of maintenance at Jackson was increased by the long roll of idle convicts.

CONTRACT LABOR.

labor question.

The dull times make it as difficult to employ prisoners profitably as it does free men. In many prisons throughout the country it has been found very difficult to find any employment. The attitude of labor organizations toward the employment of prisoners has added to this difficulty.

Under the laws of Michigan the boards of control may let the men on contract, employ them on piece work, or manufacture on State account. In my judgment this power should not be curtailed. With all these methods of employment it has been impossible to keep all the prisoners employed in such a manner as to contribute to their own support. In my opinion the contract system, when it can be employed, is the most profitable and desirable for all concerned, though it is the one most severely criticized by labor organizations and prison reformers. These men were consumers before they were imprisoned, and they are consumers still. Most of them were producers before they were confined, and it is not unreasonable that they should produce something to pay the expense of their conviction and maintenance. This should be done in such a manner as not to reduce the price of the products of free labor. Under the contract system the labor must be sold in the open market for what it is worth. The man who purchases it must furnish his own capital, sell his own goods, and compete with other manufacturers. Convict labor does not bring as much as free labor, nor is it worth as much, as experience has proven; nor is there anything to show that manufacturers who employ convict labor are, as a class, more prosperous than other manufacturers. Should it be shown that they were it would simply raise the price of convict labor. Now, under this system, the State receives the pay for each day's work, retains control of the prisoners and enforces its own discipline. The effect on free labor is not different from what it would be if the same number of free men were employed at the same work, except that prisoners will not accomplish nearly as much as free men. Under the State account system, the State must furnish active capital to purchase materials and tools, money to carry a stock of manufactured goods, and men to sell these goods to the public. Usually the work is done under the direction of inexperienced men, and is not successful as a business venture. In this State it has sometimes cost considerably more to the State to maintain prisoners employed on State account in manufacturing than it did to keep the same number of insane, kept under similar conditions, but kept in idleness. Under the contract system, the contractor must pay for his material and his labor, and sell at such prices as to leave him some profit or he cannot continue business. As he must purchase both material and labor in the open market, his competition with other manufacturers is legitimate, and in no way degrades free labor or reduces the market price of the products of free labor. On State account the conditions are different, as the State usually loses money on account of lack of interest and experience in the business. But the State does not have to make money; the State treasury is practically unlimited, and we can, if necessary, sell the goods manufactured at less than the cost of production, and thus not only reduce the demand for the products of free labor, but also reduce the price of those products.

Convicts were consumers before and are not less so in prison.

GRADING OF PRISONERS.

prisoners.

The provision of the law in regard to the grading of prisoners has been carried out to a large extent during the past two years. It is safe to say that it has been conducive to great improvement in discipline, as well as a saving of expense.

"Trustys" and ex convicts are inimical to discipline.

The experience of the past two years has seriously raised the question as to the advisability of using trusty convicts in places of responsibility about the prisons, and very decidedly as to the wisdom of the employment of ex-convicts in responsible places in connection with the management of the prisons.

Either proper legislation should be enacted or other means taken to prevent this practice in the future.

PAROLES.

Working of the parole law.

The parole law has been in effect but a little over a year, during which time seventy-one convicts have received its benefits. Of this number it has been found necessary to retake and return to prison, for violation of the rules governing their parole, only four. Three of these were returned for using intoxicating liquors to excess, and the other for burglary.

Rules relative to paroles.

Under the provisions of the act, the wardens and boards of control of the several prisons were taken into counsel, for the formulation of rules relative to paroles. These rules provide that the prisoner must be in the first grade, and show by his conduct in prison that he is entitled to leniency. Then some person must be found who is willing to act as the first friend of the convict, and furnish guaranty of employment. The indorsement of the first friend and the approval of the parole is usually asked of the prosecuting attorney and sheriff of the county from which the prisoner was sentenced. As much of his previous history as possible is obtained. If these reports are favorable, the warden then recommends his parole to the board of control, after which it is sent, with their recommendation, to the Governor for final action. Licenses to go at large have been refused to several prisoners who have complied with the other requirements, for the reason that in the judgment of the executive, based on his information as to their habits before conviction, and what their surroundings would be if released, it would not be safe to parole them.

servative check.

While the warden is liable to be influenced by personal sympathy for the convict, with whom he is acquainted, and even the board is not free from this sympathetic influence, when the case reaches the executive it is deprived of its personality, and he will pass upon it according to the facts presented, and the probabilities as to whether the prisoner will comply with the conditions of the parole. It is not unlikely that more than needed conservatism has been exercised so far in the execution of the law, but it would seem better that this should be done rather than that the opposite course of being too lenient should be pursued, and thus defeat the purpose of the law. The results indicate that so far the law has fulfilled the expectations of its most ardent advocates.

JUDGES' STATEMENTS.

The experience of the last four years, and more particularly of the last two years, has demonstrated that the conduct of a convict in prison cannot be relied upon alone as a basis for either a pardon or parole, but that information in regard to his previous character, his surroundings when at large, and the general make-up of the man, must be taken into consideration, and even then, after exercising all the caution possible, mistakes will be made. The act of 1895, requiring judges to report to the executive various facts in relation to the character and surroundings of persons sentenced to prison, has already been found to be of great value, and as time elapses, and the number of these reports increase, their value will be very largely enhanced. They are largely instrumental in giving a deserving prisoner the consideration he is entitled to, and equally effective in preventing the Governor and pardon board from being imposed upon after the immediate actors in the trial have passed away, or have forgotten the circumstances. This law may also be said to have in every way fulfilled the expectations of its friends.

Law relating to judges' statements commended.

§ In this connection I desire to call attention to the difficulty of doing justice in cases where persons accused of crime are permitted to plead guilty. The law now provides for an advisory board in the matter of pardons, and makes provision for the Governor to act in matters of application for both pardon and parole; but in cases where a plea of guilty has been entered neither the Governor nor the board has any information to work upon, except the conduct of the prisoner while in prison, and such testimony as those favoring his release may present. One case in particular has been brought to my attention where a prisoner was released from prison, who had pleaded guilty to the commission of a heinous crime, upon satisfactory proof that he was not guilty at all, but had been induced to plead guilty upon the assurance that his sentence would be lightened thereby, and the statement that there was no possible escape from conviction if he stood trial. It would seem to be a wise provision, in case a plea of guilty is entered, to make whatever facts the prosecution rely upon for conviction a part of the record, and if there is any substantial defense this should also be put on record. If this is not done there is not enough of the transaction upon record to impress itself upon the minds of the officials connected with it. In fact the whole record is a blank. If this were done it would enable the executive and the pardon board to act much more intelligently than they now can.

Record of testimony in pleas of guilty.

TRANSFER OF CONVICTS.

First offenders should be sentenced to Lonia prison.

The law providing for the transfer of prisoners from one prison to another was wise legislation. A law should now be enacted requiring judges to sentence all first offenders, except for murder and other aggravated offenses, to the prison at Lonia; and then should they prove refractory, or not subject to reformatory influences, they should be transferred to the prison at Jackson or to the one at Marquette, as circumstances may require. Those now serving at Lonia, for second or third offenses, should be transferred to Jackson.

Transfer from Lonia to Jackson and Marquette.

Distinction between sentences of first and subsequent offenders.

In no other way can there be any successful separation of the prisoners. First offenders should not be placed in confinement with second and third termers, and in many other respects their treatment should be different. If a law were passed providing for a marked distinction between the sentences to be given to those convicted of first, second and subsequent offenses, and courts required to take account of that state of facts at the time of the sentence, it would be a healthful provision. For a first offense, unless it be an aggravated one, a short sentence would seem to meet the demands of justice. For a second offense it should be at least double that for the first, and for the third and subsequent conviction the sentence should be of still greater length.

PRIVATE CORPORATIONS.

Simplification of corporation acts into a few, desirable.

The compilation of the laws authorized by the last legislature has been made, and is ready for publication whenever the legislature authorizes it to be done, but before this is done, I desire to call your attention to the fact that there are over three hundred private corporation acts on the statute books. Probably fifty acts could be combined into one, and the bulk of the statutes reduced at least a volume if this were done. There is also a serious question whether many of the acts passed for the incorporation of a single company or institution do not violate the constitutional provision that corporations shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes; this would simplify the laws and reduce expense, and be in every way advantageous to the people, the corporations, and to all persons interested.

Franchise law should reach foreign corporations.

The franchise law should also be amended so as to more effectually reach foreign corporations. There is reputed to be from sixty to seventy-five thousand dollars due the State for franchise fees from foreign corporations. Some provision should be made for collecting this, and taking care of similar corporations in the future.

Amendments to general incorporation law, desirable.

Some amendments should be made to the general corporation law. For instance, manufacturing and mercantile companies are required to pay in but ten per cent of their capital stock. It seems to me this should be increased to twenty per cent, with the regulation that at least ten per cent should be paid in cash. Mining companies are limited to $2,500,000 in capital stock, and are required to pay in nothing. If a mining company is in successful operation this is probably a small amount with which to do business, and they should either pay a franchise fee upon their capital and surplus, or the authorized capital should be increased to $10,000,000, which is not too much to successfully carry on mining operations under modern conditions. In my judgment no company should be permitted to organize without some property, and some money paid in.

It is also desirable that some amendments be made to the law requiring corporations to report. They now report the amount of their capital stock, the amount paid in, and the amount of assets and debts, but they are not required to show what their assets consist of, or whether the business of the corporation is conducted upon credit of the company or by indorsers. The experience of the past two or three years has demonstrated that there is little use to regulate banks in regard to loans to corporations, unless there is also some regulation in regard to corporations as far as the character of their indorsers and the relations which the indorsers bear to the corporations are concerned. The law prohibits banks from loaning more than ten per cent of their capital stock to any one firm or corporation, but the law is evaded by making the papers in different form, but with the same responsibility. The corporation makes the paper and some member of the corporation indorses it, and in another instance some member is the maker and the corporation becomes the indorser. I realize that the enforcement of this legal provision would sometimes be a little embarrassing and might reduce the amount of business, but, in the end, I cannot but think that a proper regulation of this matter would be a healthful one for the people in general, as well as for the banks and business interests.

Law of corporation reports should be amended.

Protection of banks and corporations against themselves.

The act of the legislature two years ago, authorizing the Secretary of State to make examination of the affairs of building and loan associations under certain circumstances was a step in the right direction, but it was believed then and proven now to be wholly inadequate for the purpose for which it was intended. These associations are the most complicated of any of the corporations authorized by law so far as examination is concerned. The stockholders and those in interest are many of them poor people, who know nothing whatever about their management or care. It seems quite as necessary that they should have an annual examination, and be placed under the supervision of some competent State officer, as that banks should be; and I would recommend that the law be amended so as to require at least an annual examination by some competent State authority, and such examinations as in the opinion of such State authority are deemed necessary. A small amount should be levied on each to cover the expense of examination, and something additional for the support of the State government generally.

Building and loan associations—law inadequate to protect members.

Mutual benefit
associations should be under State inspection.

There is even greater need that mutual benefit and fraternal associations should be placed under State supervision, than there is that they should be required to make an annual report. The majority of them purport to do a business which requires the most conscientious, honorable and painstaking administration of affairs, as they conduct a life insurance business in addition to their fraternal and social features. They should also contribute enough to pay expenses of examination and something besides.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.

MICHIGAN NATIONAL GUARD.

Condition of M.
N. G. improved.

The condition of the Michigan National Guard has very materially improved during the past two years. It is better equipped and better clothed than ever before. The troops show a great improvement in discipline and in the last two camps there was absolutely no complaint of any interference by the Guard with civilians, and the camp of 1896, especially, showed an observance of order which would be creditable to the regular army under the most rigid discipline.

Strike at Ishpeming.

During the month of September, 1895, companies D, F, G, and H, of the fifth regiment, and company H of the third regiment were ordered to Ishpeming to protect the property of the citizens there, owing to a strike of monster dimensions among the miners of that region. The duty of the troops was confined exclusively to the preservation of order and the protection of life and property. They remained there twenty days, and except for the death of one private caused by the falling of a tree during a severe storm, nothing unfortunate occurred, no breach of discipline was reported, and the conduct of the troops is deserving of the highest commendation. They were ordered out with scarcely a moment's notice, leaving their homes and business to remain away for over twenty days. It demonstrated that the National Guard can be relied upon under any circumstances for any legitimate duty they may be called upon to perform.

agement of
mended.

The excellent business management of the affairs of the National Guard is shown by the fact that the regular encampments have been held each year, and considerable additional expenses have been incurred by the repeated calls for troops. While there are many things greatly desired in the way of equipments, the State Military Board is out of debt, having paid all its bills, besides an indebtedness of $13,000 which existed four years ago.

A necessary part of the State government.

I trust there will be no legislation during the present session that will impair the efficiency of this most important portion of the State government.

MICHIGAN NAVAL BRIGADE.

The Michigan Naval Brigade has shown itself worthy of the support it has received at the hands of the State. From the report of the Secretary of the Navy it is evident that our Naval Brigade stands nearly, if not quite, in the front rank of the naval militia in the United States. It has never been called upon for active duty except once, at the time of the strike at Ishpeming, when, through a mistake, the first division at Detroit was ordered to report at once for duty. The order was almost immediately countermanded, but the zeal and alacrity shown in responding to the order was commendable to the highest degree, and demonstrated that they too could be relied upon for any legitimate services they might be called upon to perform, either for the State or for the general government.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE JUDICIARY.

Among the numerous plans proposed by the legislature of 1893 for the relief of the supreme court, the one paying the judges an increased salary and requiring them to reside at Lansing and give their whole time to the work, was adopted. This plan has resulted in bringing and keeping the work of the supreme court up to date, and has accomplished all that was expected of it; but the great number of cases coming to this court is unmistakable evidence that some further measures to relief should be taken in the not distant future. It seems of me the most practical plan would be to limit the amount in controversy that may be appealed. In making this suggestion I am not unmindful of the usual argument that it would deprive a poor litigant of justice, and that many times cases involving but small amounts are quite as important on principle as those larger; but when the whole matter is taken into consideration, it is safe to say that five poor men are deprived of justice by reason of their cases being appealed from court to court at an expense which they are unable to bear, where one is deprived of justice by being prevented from having his case appealed to a higher court.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

The State Board of Health has been in existence for twenty-four years. Its work has been along the lines of prevention, and the amount of good it has accomplished cannot be computed. It is doing a great deal of valuable work in collecting statistics, but more particularly in disseminating information in regard to the prevention of communicable diseases, and in other ways giving information that will save life and prevent sickness. The Board will present to you some recommendations for changes in the law and for additional appropriations.

Work of State Board of Health.

Legislation
needed.

There may be some new work proposed which it is hardly justifiable to take up at the present time, but this department is doing an immense amount of good at comparatively small expense, and what is needed for the dissemination of information, the collection of reports and the holding of sanitary conventions by themselves, or in connection with farmers' institutes, should be appropriated to its use.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES.Success of institutes already held.

The five thousand dollars appropriated by the last legislature for each of the years 1895-96 has all been expended, and institutes held in practically all the counties of the State. That they have been popular is shown by the increased demand for institutes in 1896, over the previous year, and it is reasonable to suppose a large amount of valuable information has been disseminated in this way. I would suggest in this connection that not only professors from the Agricultural College and practical agriculturists be secured to deliver talks at these institutes, but those from the University, as well, who can teach sanitation, physics, plumbing, drainage, rudiments of law and such other matters as may be instructive and valuable to those in attendance. The State Board of Health could also furnish lecturers who could give much valuable information in relation to the preservation of health, and the prevention of diseases, especially of communicable diseases. This would not only be the means of a general diffusion of much valuable knowledge but it would bring the people of the State and these institutions and boards closer together, give each a better understanding of the others, and be valuable in many respects.

Suggestions.VITAL STATISTICS.*Change in law recommended.

Heretofore the State has been to considerable expense in collecting vital statistics. The facts for the reports are collected so long after births and deaths have occurred that they are unreliable and inaccurate. There will be a proposition made to require burial permits to be issued in all cases, and the cause of death reported by the township clerk monthly to the Secretary of State and county clerk. I heartily commend this change in the law; it will not add to the expense, because it will use the machinery already existing, will add materially to the value of these reports and in fact make them the first approximately correct reports the State has issued on this subject.

FORESTRY.Necessity for

Michigan, once covered with a wealth of forest, has been almost completely denuded, and much of the land from which the timber has been stripped is of little value for cultivation, especially in these times when even good lands will hardly pay the expense of cultivation. There are still some forests left, and much of the land could be utilized in the production of valuable timber in the future, as well as for the preservation to some extent of game and fish. This could very properly be placed under the general direction of the Commissioner of the State Land Office, with perhaps some assistance from the State Board of Agriculture, who have under their charge quite a large body of land yet unsold. This would in a few years prove of great benefit to the State, besides assist in reclaiming vast tracts which have become practically desert. Foreign countries are much ahead of us in this respect, as are the New England states. The times are hard for making very much of an appropriation but a moderate appropriation looking to some plan for finally establishing a forestry department of the State is well worthy of your earnest consideration.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

During the last two years Vol. 5, including Dr. Rominger's report, which had been delayed for several years, has been published, and met with a royal welcome from all those interested in geology. The survey of Isle Royal has been completed, a large amount of work has been done in the counties of Huron, Sanilac and Monroe, and Vol. 6 is now in the hands of the printer. Taken as a whole, this work, which was so long delayed, and seemed to have some fatality attached to it, is being pushed in a vigorous, intelligent and comprehensive manner, and it will result in much more benefit to the State than it will cost.

Work of the survey progressing.

MISCELLANEOUS BUREAUS.

The Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Railroads, Commissioner of the Banking Department, Commissioner of Labor, Dairy and Food Commissioner, State Inspector of Oils, State Inspector of Salt, and State Game and Fish Warden, have all performed their various duties well, and these bureaus all show much improvement, and give unmistakable evidence of their right to exist. The Dairy and Food Commissioner has accomplished a great deal in the way of enforcing observance of pure food laws, and taking into consideration the length of time that the law has been in force it is being exceedingly well observed by dealers all over the State.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

UNIVERSITY.

While it is not improbable that appropriations for new buildings at the University will be needed some time in the near future, it is to be hoped that nothing in addition to the very liberal allowance derived from the one-sixth mill tax will be asked for or granted this year. If this institution is to receive students from other states they should be required to pay an amount in tuition equal, at least, to the cost of their instruction.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Generally.

The State Normal School is reported to be in a prosperous condition, and fulfilling to a remarkable degree the purposes for which it was created.

Training school appropriation.

In the expenditure of the $25,000 appropriated by the last legislature for a training school the board seemed to have misapprehended the intention of the legislature. While the appropriation was but $25,000, its contract for the building called for an expenditure of $39,675. In this contract there was no provision for grading, heating, lighting or furnishing. The foundation of the building was laid before the attention of the executive was called to this action. The Auditor General was consulted and determined that he would not be authorized to pay even the $25,000 for a building which was likely to cost twice that amount. In view of this fact the board remodeled its plans and only covered a portion of the foundation, and as I understand it, will finish, furnish, heat and light it within the appropriation.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN NORMAL SCHOOL.

Institution designed as a training school for primary and district school teachers.

By act No. 261, of 1895, the State Board of Education was authorized and directed to procure a deed of certain lands and buildings in the city of Mt. Pleasant, to be known as the Central Michigan Normal School. No appropriation was made for it, but the school has been under the direction of the State Board of Education since that time, although the people of Mt. Pleasant have borne the expense incident to its management up to January 1, 1897, and will now expect the State to bear all further expenses of the institution.

Suggestions.

The design of the school was for the preparation and training of students for teaching in the rural districts and in the primary departments of the graded schools; it being the theory that the rural districts and the primary grades need trained teachers as much as do the higher departments of our graded schools. If this school is confined to this purpose, it can undoubtedly do a great amount of good at a comparatively small expense, but under no circumstances should it be permitted to duplicate the courses pursued at the Normal School at Ypsilanti. The graduates from the school at Ypsilanti are all absorbed by the cities and larger village schools, and the rural districts and primary grades get very little direct benefit from this school.

STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Rank high.

This college continues its high rank among the other agricultural colleges of the nation. There have been some radical changes made, which promise to increase the usefulness of the institution, although they have been on trial too short a time to determine definitely what the result will be. It does seem, however, that an institution so well endowed, and affording such a wide range of opportunities for education should be more liberally patronized by the great agricultural classes of our State. It would seem that they do not fully realize the great advantages to be obtained here, or the attendance would be larger than it now is, or ever has been.

Should be better patronised.

MICHIGAN MINING SCHOOL.

This institution stands well among the schools of its class anywhere in this or in any other country. The number of pupils in attendance is steadily increasing. It is located in the heart of the great mining regions of the State, and I believe is accomplishing the purpose for which it was established thoroughly and well. I understand that the eighty-six young men who have graduated from it, with one or two exceptions, are employed in their professions satisfactorily, and there are now in attendance one hundred and sixteen.

Rank and growth.

The board desire some additions to their present room, and will probably want some increase in current expenses. Under the present provisions of law, the appropriations for this institution expire on the first of January of the year of the meeting of the legislature, and they have no funds from that time until an emergency bill can be passed, or the regular appropriation becomes available. I think it would be wise to change the law so as to place it on the same footing as other State institutions in this respect. This institution is a technical one, and necessarily very expensive in proportion to the number of pupils in attendance. So far no tuition has been charged. The board are now considering the question of tuition, but will await the action of congress in relation to schools of this kind. It is reasonable to believe, however, that when this school is ready to give full courses with proper equipment, students will be required to contribute toward the expense of their instruction.

A change needed in the form of appropriation.

MICHIGAN SOLDIERS' HOME.

This institution is in very creditable condition indeed. Extensive improvements have been made in the water supply, in additions to the hospital, and in general repairs to the main building and the woman's annex. There is now an air of contentment and comfort about the institution which is very gratifying to an interested visitor. The board has not used all the moneys appropriated by the last legislature, but has a substantial sum left, and is entitled to great credit for giving a maximum of comfort for a minimum of expense. It will ask for no special appropriations this year as a board, but there will be requests from other sources for a dining room and kitchen addition to the women's annex. That this in many respects would be desirable is not denied, but the distance the inmates of that department have to walk to and from their meals is about three hundred feet; their other duties consist only in the care of their rooms, and on the whole they are exceedingly comfortable; in fact, more comfortable than they ever were before, and more comfortable than the average of our citizens. It would seem that no particular harm would result by postponing these improvements for two years at least. These improvements would probably cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, and would involve an increase of current expenses of from $2 500 to $3,000. This is a large increase of expenses when the number of inmates of this department is considered. It is probable that their numbers will be increased, but probably not to exceed fifty or sixty.

Economy of administration commended.

Appropriations
annex should be in gross.

The increasing age of the inmates of the Home is likely to make it necessary within a few years for some radicals change in all its departments, and, in view of the large demands made upon the purse of the people, they should be satisfied without additional improvements for two years. Heretofore, appropriations have been made for the Home and the women's annex separately. As their care and management are so intimately interwoven there is no good reason why the appropriation should not be made in gross, so as to cover both institutions thus saving a large amount of work in bookkeeping and accounting, and arriving at precisely the same results.

MICHIGAN HOME FOR FEEBLE MINDED AND EPILEPTIC.

Institution was needed.

The Home for the Feeble Minded and Epileptic, at Lapeer, has been completed as far as the appropriations were made in 1903, and two hundred patients are now accommodated therein. This is a new institution, and on lines new to the State of Michigan. There have been many things to learn, both by the board of control, and by the superintendent, but the knowledge gained clearly shows the wisdom of the establishment of the institution. The board recommends the building of six cottages in addition to the one provided for by the last legislature, which is now under contract for erection, which would make four cottages for the accommodation of epileptics, and four for the feeble minded, two of each class for each sex, and one to be used temporarily for an administration building. They also recommend the purchase of more land and the enlargement of kitchen, dining room and boiler room to meet the increased demands, as well as the building of a laundry. What is asked for is in the direction of the accommodation of the inmates rather than for the accommodation of the superintendent or officers, or for display. It seems to me that this is in the right direction. With the demands made upon the institution since it was opened for the reception of inmates, and the information gained in its management, it would seem that it is a right step in the interests of humanity and the practical solving of the question of providing for this class of unfortunates. After the necessary buildings are completed, and experience is gained in their training, the expense of maintaining them will be less in a State institution than in the poorhouses, and they will not be left as a burden on their friends or as a plague to society. I commend this institution to your most careful consideration.

Benefits to be derived.

UPPER PENINSULA HOSPITAL FOR INSANE.

By means of the appropriations made in 1895, the capacity of this institution has been increased to three hundred, and it now has about one hundred and eighty patients. They are asking for appropriations for three cottages, to accommodate fifty inmates each, and an addition to their infirmary, which will accommodate twenty-five patients, making accommodations for a total of four hundred and seventy-five inmates. This, it is estimated, will take care of all the patients whose residences are in the Upper Peninsula, and provide for the natural increase there and a little more. This is all the additional accommodations that will be asked for by the insane asylums this year, except for an acute hospital at Kalamazoo. It would not seem that the additions proposed are more than is needed. The construction, furnishing and management of this institution, so far, has cost a great deal more per capita than has been paid for the same accommodations in the asylums in the lower peninsula. A portion of this extra expense is due to its location, a portion is due to the character of the material used, but much more is owing to the necessity for guarding against the climatic conditions which have to be met. The State is now paying sixty cents per day per capita for the keeping of patients in this institution, while it is paying but forty-four cents per day per capita in the other asylums. It will, probably, always cost more to take care of the patients in this institution than in any of the others, but this very marked difference should not continue if it has proper management.

Capacity at present.

Cost of care increased over other asylums.

MICHIGAN SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF.

This institution continues to grow in the number of its pupils, the character of instruction given and the work done by it generally. It stands very high in comparison with similar institutions in the country, and is entitled in the future to a continuance of the very liberal support it has received in the past.

Stands high in comparison with others.

MICHIGAN SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

The School for the Blind is among the smaller of the charitable institutions of the State, but it is being exceedingly well managed, and is fulfilling the purpose for which it was intended in a very commendable way indeed.

Well managed.

STATE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Its work a grand one and successfully carried out.

This institution, which has become very popular, because of the grand work it has done in taking homeless children and giving them good training and the rudiments of an education, and furnishing them with homes, has exceeded all previous records in providing these waifs with good homes, thereby reducing the expenses of the institution.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

Constantly improving.

The Industrial School for Boys continues to improve in the matter of its management generally, and in the training of its pupils.

INDUSTRIAL HOME FOR GIRLS.

Is doing well in its sphere.

This institution is doing remarkably good work, in saving a great many wayward girls, and making them good and honorable members of society, who would otherwise be the reverse, and its management of finances and methods of training are entitled to the highest commendation. As above stated, it needs some other institution to relieve it of the care of some of the older girls.

ASYLUMS FOR THE INSANE.

Care of insane creditable to the State.

The Michigan Asylum at Kalamazoo, the Eastern Asylum at Pontiac, and the Northern Asylum at Traverse City, are in remarkably good condition, and are keeping fully abreast of the times, so far as the management of these institutions is concerned. The meeting once in six months of the joint boards of the asylums has a tendency to promote uniformity of management and the adoption of all the best methods of caring for the inmates in each. In these three large asylums the State is taking care of its inmates in a way that is creditable both to the State and to the public, and the State is receiving the largest amount of humane care for the smallest amount of expense that is consistent in the treatment of this unfortunate class of our public charges.

MICHIGAN ASYLUM FOR DANGEROUS AND CRIMINAL INSANE.

Excellent management.

This institution is intrusted with the care of a class of unfortunates that is perhaps the most difficult to manage in many respects of any under State care. It is well managed, both financially and in its methods of treatment of its patients. It has just completed an additional cottage for its use.

STATE LIBRARY.

Traveling libraries proving a success.

The State Library is increasing rapidly in size, and much more rapidly in efficiency. The traveling libraries provided by the legislature two years ago are already proving to be very popular, and serve to call the attention of the public generally to a fact which they have never seemed to realize before, that we have a State Library. It is worthy of a continuance of the liberal support it has had in the past.

POWERS OF BOARDS.

The management of State institutions by separate boards, the members of which are appointed for long terms and serve for the honor and not for the compensation, has proven a very satisfactory method. If any one doubts this, he has but to visit the institutions themselves, or read their history in the past. There have been no defalcations, no moneys lost, and very rarely indeed any misappropriations made, while the duties devolving upon some of these boards have become so large and intricate that it may be well in the near future to provide more definitely what their duties shall be. The boards of trustees of the insane asylums have given a large amount of time to their duties without pecuniary compensation, and the condition of the asylums show the value of their work. This year the board for the Eastern Asylum purchased some land out of funds it had saved from its current expenses. I do not know as anyone has questioned the wisdom of this proceeding, or claims that it was not for the best interests of the institution, but when the accounts were presented to the Auditor General he held that there was no legal authority for them to buy real estate, and refused to audit the account. The board for the Northern Asylum at Traverse City did substantially the same thing and with the same result. It might be well to define in specific terms what these boards may and may not do; that they may make the necessary repairs and conduct the necessary business of their respective institutions, but that they shall not, without the express authority of the legislature, enlarge the capacity of an institution. Great care should be exercised by the legislature not to so curtail the powers of a board as to work injury to the large institution of which it has charge. In the powers of the other boards there is also a lack of definiteness which it is desirable to have prescribed by law.

Separate boards of management commended.

Duties of boards should be more clearly defined by law.

It would seem wise that some law be passed to prevent boards from expending moneys, or making contracts for buildings in excess of appropriations made for that purpose by the legislature. If this practice of getting an appropriation and then building to suit the taste or inclination of the boards is continued there would hardly seem to be any use of having legislative sanction at all. It is unwise and unbusinesslike, and should be prohibited in the future. All charitable, penal and reformatory institutions are prohibited now from making contracts for buildings until after the State Board of Corrections and Charities have certified that in their opinion they can be completed within the appropriation. This provision does not apply to educational institutions, but I believe some provision of this character should be made.

Practice of building in excess of appropriations denounced.

In view of the vast amount which the State has invested and is likely to invest in new buildings and improvements, the time is not far distant when the plan adopted by the federal government, that of employing a supervising architect, should be adopted. This matter should not be left to the option of persons without experience in that line, and there should be some uniformity adopted in relation to State buildings and their plan and method of construction. In saying this I do not wish to be understood as claiming that this has not been reasonably well done in the past, but the time is fast approaching when a change will become necessary.

CONCLUSION.

General praise
cials.

In concluding this already long message, I desire to state that there are many officials and many departments of the State government, all important in themselves, to which I should have been pleased to give particular attention, but the number of these subjects to be treated, and the necessarily limited space of a message, has rendered such mention impossible. Had there been anything which I deemed deserved criticism, it would have been made freely, so that any who may feel aggrieved by being omitted from special mention may take it for granted there was no special criticism to make. The State is constantly growing, the demands of civilization are increasing, and the position of Governor has long since ceased to be a sinecure, if the incumbent discharges the duties which properly devolve upon him. It is not too much to say that all the departments of our State government, and all our State institutions, are in as good condition, at least, as they ever have been at any other period of our statehood, and I am proud to say that I believe in most cases there has been a very material improvement during the past four years.

As members of the legislature you are to meet greater responsibilities than any of your predecessors, on account of the rapid growth of the State and the various increased demands of our institutions. In performing this duty you are called upon to exercise the best judgment in determining what is needed, and in the same connection what can be dispensed with, and the ability of the people of the State at this time to pay the expenses of the State Government. It is not always that additional State institutions are necessarily an increased burden to the people who pay the taxes. It many times means merely a transfer from the various municipalities of the State to the State itself. The history of the State shows that in all its departments its affairs have been well managed as a rule, and it is not too much to presume that you, like your predecessors, will discharge this obligation with honor to the State and credit to yourselves.

JOHN T. RICH.

PARDONS AND COMMUTATIONS.

To the Legislature:

In accordance with the provisions of Sec. 11, of Art. V, of the Constitution of Michigan, I have the honor to submit herewith a list of the pardons and commutations of sentence granted by me during the years 1895 and 1896, with the reasons therefor.

Very respectfully,

JOHN T. RICH,

Governor.

PARDONS.

HAROLD O. HENDERSON.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Ingham of breaking and entering a dwelling house in the day time, and sentenced for three years from December 8, 1892. Pardoned February 19, 1895.

Pardon is recommended by Pardon Board for reason that he does not evidently belong to the criminal class and that he did not intend to commit the crime for which he was convicted. His behavior in prison has been most exceptional, and the party most aggrieved has asked for his release. Believing that the ends of justice have been fully met by the time he has already been in prison, his pardon is hereby granted to take effect February 22, 1895.

FRANK J. DICKERSON.

Detroit House of Correction. Convicted in the recorder's court for the city of Detroit, of being a disorderly person, and sentenced for two years from December 8, 1893. Pardoned April 18, 1895.

This young man was sentenced at the request of his father for being a tippler, but from the evidence of the warden, the judge who sentenced him and the prosecuting attorney, it would seem that the purpose for which he was imprisoned has been accomplished and, as the offense was against himself rather than against the community, there appears to be no good reason why he should longer be confined. His release is recommended by the Board of Pardons.

GEORGE FOX.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Berrien, of rape, and sentenced for seven years from February 11, 1891. Pardoned August 13, 1895.

The pardon of Fox is recommended by the judge, prosecuting attorney, and numerous leading citizens of Berrien county, as well as by the Board of Pardons. There are grave doubts of his guilt, and in any event he has been sufficiently punished for the moral wrong committed. His release is therefore ordered.

BELA SHOUT.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Shiawassee, of larceny, and sentenced for three years from June 5, 1894. Pardoned November 23, 1895.

His pardon is recommended by the judge who sentenced him, the prosecuting attorney, and the Board of Pardons. He does not naturally belong to the criminal class and his sentence was rather severe for the offense committed, taking into consideration all the circumstances surrounding the case. The judge who sentenced him now says that had he then been in possession of all the facts as he now knows them he should not have imposed sentence exceeding six months.

JOHN M. DE WITT.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Iosco, of larceny, and sentenced for four years from December 3, 1892. Pardoned November 27, 1895.

His sentence was rather severe for the crime committed, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding it, and believing on account of his age and his conduct in prison that the ends of justice have been fully subserved his pardon is granted.

OLIE J. WATKINS.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the recorder's court for the city of Detroit, for forgery, and sentenced for three years from June 12, 1894. Pardoned November 27, 1895.

There is strong doubt as to whether Watkins is guilty of the crime of which he was convicted. He has been an exemplary man in prison, has a wife and five little children who are much in need of his assistance in their support, and as he has already suffered sufficient punishment for the offense charged against him his release is ordered. His pardon is recommended by the board of pardons, and many prominent and influential citizens of Detroit have favored his release.

H. J. McNULTY.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids, of forgery, and sentenced for one year and six months from October 24, 1893. Pardoned January 16, 1895.

McNulty's term of imprisonment would have expired January 25, 1895. His wife died suddenly on January 15. As the time between that day and the expiration of his term was so short, and in order that he might go home to arrange for and attend the funeral of his wife, his pardon is granted.

JACOB ASHER.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Eaton, of conspiracy, and sentenced for one year from May 12, 1894. Pardoned February 19, 1895.

Asher is released on the statement of the prison physician that he is afflicted with cancer of the stomach and cannot live but a few days.

JOHN CLAYPOOL.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, of burglary, and sentenced for five years from June 1, 1893. Transferred from State Prison, at Jackson, to State House of Correction and Reformatory, at Ionia, April 20, 1895. Pardoned June 1, 1895.

Claypool was pardoned on the statement of the prison physician that he is dying of consumption.

JOSEPH P. MALADY.

Michigan Asylum for Dangerous and Criminal Insane at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Berrien, of burglary, and sentenced for seven years and six months from February 14, 1891. Transferred from State Prison, at Jackson, because of insanity. Pardoned July 24, 1895.

Malady's previous character had, so far as known, always been of the best. His people in New York state promise to take him home and care for him, and believing that a release at this time would greatly aid in his restoration to health and mind, his pardon is granted.

MARC J. BRONKHORST.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, of assault with intent to rob and sentenced for ten years from September 9, 1891. Pardoned January 20, 1896.

Bronkhorst was pardoned in order that he might go to England to care for his mother. The British consul at Philadelphia urged his release on this account.

BARTHOLOMEW SANDS.

State Prison, at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Oakland, of rape, and sentenced for life, from September 20, 1869. Pardoned January 28, 1896.

Sands is one of the oldest convicts in the State Prison, and is in feeble health, being continually confined in the prison hospital. He will not live very long. A good home has been provided for him with his sister in Saginaw county. The question of his guilt is not taken into consideration in granting his release.

JOHN McDONALD.

State House of Correction and Branch of State Prison in Upper Peninsula, at Marquette. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Marquette, of murder, and sentenced for life from February 19, 1890. Pardoned March 23, 1896.

This case has been under investigation by the Governor and Board of Pardons for the past four years, and a large amount of testimony taken bearing on the alleged offense, and it is the unanimous opinion of the Board of Pardons, based on this testimony, that McDonald is innocent of the crime charged against him. This evidence is of the most convincing character, and shows beyond a reasonable doubt that another person committed the crime. A question has been raised as to the character of the witness who gives this evidence. Her story is corroborated in many ways, but even standing by itself it is as much entitled to credit as that of the persons upon whose testimony McDonald was convicted, and with this distinction, that no motive can be found for her to tell anything but the truth, while in the case of the complaining witnesses their liberty depended upon McDonald's conviction.

WILLIAM H. STAPLEFORD.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Huron, of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and sentenced for three years from February 14, 1894. Pardoned May 1, 1896.

Stapleford is affected with a peculiar nervous disease, which can probably be helped by medical treatment, and believing that he has already served long enough in prison, he is released.

THOMAS DAUGHERTY.

State Prison, at Jackson. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, of breaking and entering a shop in the day time, and sentenced to five years from May 3, 1894. Pardoned May 12, 1896.

Daugherty is released solely on account of ill health. He is afflicted with pulmonary consumption, and will probably live but a short time.

SARAH HAVILAND.

State Prison, at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Calhoun, of murder in first degree, and sentenced for life from June 7, 1866. Pardoned May 13, 1896.

Mrs. Haviland is the only female convict in the State Prison, where she has been confined for thirty years. Her conduct has been most excellent, and she has on two occasions, by giving a timely alarm, been the means of preventing prisoners from escaping. She is quite aged and infirm, and has a good home to go to, where she can quietly spend her few remaining years.

JAMES TROY.

State House of Correction and Branch of the State Prison in the Upper Peninsula, at Marquette. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Gogebic, of burglary and larceny, and sentenced for five years and six months from February 16, 1893. Pardoned June 15, 1896.

Pardon is recommended by the circuit judge, prosecuting attorney and Board of Pardons, on the ground that since his sentence circumstances have arisen which seem to show that there is a reasonable doubt of his guilt. For this reason his release is ordered.

FAYETTE E. McALLISTER.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Kalamazoo, of seduction, and sentenced for three years and six months from December 22, 1893. Pardoned September 18, 1896.

Pardon is asked by judge, prosecuting attorney, and complaining witness, and is recommended by Pardon Board. Believing that the interests of justice have been fully subserved, his release is ordered.

FRED FOERSTER.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Roscommon, of perjury and sentenced for one year and six months from January 16, 1896. Pardoned September 18, 1896.

Under all the circumstances of the case it is considered that the boy has received sufficient punishment for the offense committed, and as his previous reputation had always been good, it is believed that no good can be obtained by his further detention in prison. His release is urged by both judge and prosecuting attorney, and is recommended by the Board of Pardons.

MELVIN RYON.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Shiawassee of rape, and sentenced for five years from May 21, 1894. Pardoned September 26, 1896.

Developments subsequent to the conviction of Ryon have convinced the prosecuting officer that he was not guilty of the crime charged. His pardon is urged by the judge who sentenced him, and by a very large number of the leading citizens of Shiawassee county, and is recommended by the Board of Pardons.

DANIEL SCHREYER.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Cass, of passing counterfeit coin, and sentenced for eight years from October 19, 1893. Pardoned September 29, 1896.

The sentence in this case is deemed an excessive one, in view of the fact that he was a victim. He was a mere boy, of good character and habits, with the exception of an occasional excessive indulgence in intoxicating drinks. The judge and prosecuting attorney join in a recommendation for his pardon. From the facts shown it seems impossible that any judge should have sentenced this boy for so long a term for such an offense.

JOSEPH SWEENEY.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids, of assault with intent to commit rape, and sentenced for ten years from January 5, 1892. Pardoned October 13, 1896.

Circumstances and facts that have come to light since the trial and sentence demonstrate that the testimony of the principal witness against Sweeney was totally unreliable, and creates much more than a reasonable doubt as to his guilt. The prosecuting attorney now believes him innocent of the crime. His release is recommended by the Board of Pardons after careful investigation and mature consideration of the case in all its details.

JESSE CARTER.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Berrien of manslaughter, and sentenced for fifteen years from February 2, 1893. Pardoned October 13, 1896.

Carter is a colored boy, and was nineteen years old at the time of the commission of the crime. Was sober and industrious and had always borne a good reputation. Facts have come to the knowledge of the prosecuting officers and Board of Pardons since the trial tending to show his innocence, and the recommendation of the Board is based upon that reason. The leading citizens of Niles, where the crime was committed, almost unanimously urge his pardon for this reason.

FRANK KABAT.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, of manslaughter, and sentenced for seven years from December 19, 1892. Pardoned November 6, 1896.

Facts have come to the knowledge of the officers of the law and the Board of Pardons since the sentence of Kabat, which impress them that the sentence was too severe, and for this reason, believing that he has already served sufficient time for the offense committed, his release is granted.

CHARLES PAUL.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids, of assault with intent to commit rape, and sentenced for six years from September 25, 1893. Pardoned November 25, 1896.

In view of all the facts developed on the trial, and of information obtained since the trial, I am convinced that Paul has been sufficiently punished. There are also grave doubts of his being guilty of the offense of which he was convicted.

LOUIS GERMAN.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Mecosta, of perjury, and sentenced for five years from July 23, 1896. Pardoned November 25, 1896.

German is pardoned on the recommendation of the Board of Pardons. Except for the verdict of the jury and the action of the court, it would be reasonable to presume that German was honestly mistaken in the dates given in his testimony upon which the question of his guilt depended, but he seems to have been unfortunate in being associated with bad company. Without questioning the correctness of the verdict or the action of the court, it would seem that, in view of the character of the man and his surroundings, he has been sufficiently punished for this crime, and that the law has been vindicated and society protected from this class of offenses. He is therefore given a full and unconditional pardon.

LETTIE PLINE.

Ionia county jail. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Ionia of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and sentenced for six months from December 10, 1895. Pardoned February 14, 1896.

Mrs. Pline is pardoned on grounds of humanity only. Reputable physicians certify that she is to become a mother in the near future. She is confined in a small room with another woman, and there are no rooms in the jail or at the control of the sheriff where other and better accommodations can be furnished. The physician further states that the woman's life is in danger if she remains in the room where now confined. Her sister will take her to her home and give her such care as her condition demands. She has served since December 10, 1895, on a six months' sentence. While it is not the purpose to reduce the punishment, it must be conceded that her condition makes her punishment much greater than was expected when she was sentenced.

HOWARD ALLEN.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit of larceny, and sentenced for three years from August 3, 1894. Pardoned October 19, 1896.

Allen is pardoned at the behest of prominent citizens, and the recommendation of the circuit judge. The expiration of his term is near at hand, and he goes to Kansas, where he is to be furnished employment by his brother.

FRED FOOTE.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Genesee of murder in the first degree, and sentenced for life from March 1, 1886. Pardoned December 10, 1896.

Foote is a man about 33 years of age. The crime was committed while he was in a state of intoxication, and was, to a large extent, provoked. Public sentiment at the time of the trial was strongly against him, and his conviction of murder in the first degree is now conceded by the court officials not to have been fully warranted by the evidence. His release is urged by the judge and prosecuting attorney, and recommended by the Pardon Board. He is pardoned on condition that he abstain from the use of intoxicating beverages for the term of five years. A bond of $250 is given to insure his compliance with this condition.

SETH AIKEN.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Manistee, of manslaughter, and sentenced for ten years from December 19, 1890. Pardoned December 11, 1896.

Aiken is neither vicious nor an habitual criminal, and his crime was directly brought about by over-indulgence in intoxicating beverages. His release is urged by the judge and prosecuting attorney, and unanimously recommended by the Board of Pardons. The citizens of Manistee county generally ask for his pardon. He is a strong, healthy man, and a good workman at his trade, and there seems to be no doubt about his being able to obtain steady employment. For these reasons his pardon is ordered.

COMMUTATIONS.

HENRI CLOUGH.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of St. Joseph, of burglary, and sentenced for six years from January 26, 1891. Sentence commuted February 2, 1895, so as to expire February 4, 1895.

Sentence was a long one. Judge states that it was supposed that Clough was implicated in other offenses, but it has since been proved that he was not. His conduct in prison has been excellent. By his skill in a certain class of work he has earned enough to entitle him to consideration. It is believed that if he is released he will become a useful citizen.

CHARLES MAY.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Calhoun, of horse stealing, and sentenced for five years from June 9, 1892. Sentence commuted February 20, 1895, so as to expire March 25, 1895.

May stole two horses, one in Kalamazoo county and the other in Calhoun county. He was tried and convicted in Kalamazoo county and sentenced for two and one-half years, the judge taking into consideration the larceny of both horses, and the fact of his not belonging to the criminal class and not strong mentally. After serving the two and one-half years' sentence he was arrested and convicted in Calhoun county and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. The judge states that if he had known the circumstances he would not have imposed so severe a sentence, and believing that the ends of justice have been fully met his sentence is commuted.

JAMES HARCOURT.

State House of Correction and Branch of the State Prison in the Upper Peninsula at Marquette. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Chippewa, of manslaughter, and sentenced for ten years from September 19, 1891. Sentence commuted May 6, 1895, so as to expire May 8, 1895.

While the evidence at the trial failed to convince the jury that the shooting was strictly in self defense, it does show that Harcourt had reason to believe that Dunn would shoot him at the first opportunity. After a thorough investigation of this case the conclusion has been reached that in view of all the circumstances Harcourt has been sufficiently punished for the offense. This position is sustained by the recommendation of the jury before whom he was tried, by two separate and distinct pardon boards and by a very large number of prominent citizens of the State, acquainted with the two men and with the circumstances of the shooting. Interested friends have raised a small amount of money to aid him to start anew in life, far from the scenes of his past life, where he will follow an entirely different occupation from that in which he was formerly engaged.

CHARLES O. SEAMAN.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Macomb, of murder in the second degree, and sentenced for ten years from August 30, 1888. Sentence commuted September 26, 1895, so as to expire September 28, 1895.

The pardon of Seaman is recommended by the circuit judge, the prosecuting attorney and many of the best citizens of Macomb and Wayne counties, as well as by the Pardon Board. He is an actor by profession, and in order that he may have an opportunity to secure a position at the opening of the theatrical season his sentence is commuted. His good time would have expired February 28, 1896.

OSCAR STRAND.

State House of Correction and Branch of the State Prison in the Upper Peninsula at Marquette. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Iron, of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and sentenced for eight years from May 14, 1890. Sentence commuted October 18, 1895, so as to expire October 21, 1895.

This is a peculiar case and the injury done to the complaining witness was painful and disfiguring, but the man had a hasty trial and was defended by an attorney who had no time to prepare for the case. One man who was next to the two men when the injury was inflicted was not sworn on the trial and he now makes affidavit that he thought then and still thinks it was an accident. He has now served nearly five and one-half years, has a good prison record and the unanimous recommendation of the Pardon Board. In view of the doubt as to the malicious intention, it is believed that the ends of justice will be best subserved by his release.

CLINTON E. WORDEN.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids, of burglary, and sentenced for two years and six months from October 9, 1894. Sentence commuted November 23, 1895, to one year and six months.

Worden has quite apparent consumptive tendencies. He is not a confirmed criminal, and, in view of his youth, the condition of his health and the circumstances of his home life it is believed that clemency will be a material incentive to his leading a better life in the future. For these reasons his term of imprisonment is shortened.

STEPHEN KOSMITZKI.

State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia. Convicted in the recorder's court for the city of Detroit of malicious injury to property and sentenced for three years from January 31, 1894. Sentence commuted November 27, 1895, so as to expire November 27, 1895.

This boy prior to his conviction had borne a good reputation. His release is recommended by the judge, prosecuting attorney, and the Board of Pardons. In view of the fact that the sentence imposed was excessive under the circumstances and the defendant was led into the commission of the crime by others much older than himself, clemency is extended.

CHARLES SCAMERHORN.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Genesee, of rape, and sentenced for twenty-five years from November 30, 1883. Sentence commuted December 31, 1895, so as to expire January 1, 1896.

His pardon is recommended by the Board of Pardons, after a careful review of the whole circumstances connected with the commission of the offense, and also on the recommendation of the then prosecuting attorney, for the reason that under the law, as it is now, Scamerhorn could not have been convicted of more than taking indecent liberties with a female child, with a punishment not exceeding ten years. He has already served over twelve years' actual time, and, believing that he has been sufficiently punished for the crime committed, his sentence is commuted.

CHARLES W. ALLEN.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Van Buren, of murder in the second degree, and sentenced for twenty-three years from January 28, 1887. Sentence commuted January 11, 1896, to eighteen years.

Sentence was commuted to eighteen years in order that he might have the benefit of the parole law. His conduct in prison has been exemplary.

NORVAL A. HAWKINS.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, of embezzlement, and sentenced for three years from October 5, 1895. Sentence commuted December 24, 1896, so as to expire at once.

The punishment this young man has already received has undoubtedly accomplished all that longer confinement would do. There are some mitigating circumstances in the case. His previous record, and his record since incarceration, have been unexceptionally good. The parties injured are in favor of his release. A prominent manufacturer has signified his intention to give him a substantial position in his employ as soon as he is out of prison. His family is an eminently respectable one, and he will have every incentive to live a correct life hereafter. His release is urged by many of the most prominent and influential citizens of Detroit, and is recommended by the Board of Pardons.

EUGENE J. KIRBY.

State Prison at Jackson. Convicted in the circuit court for the county of Calhoun, of forgery, and sentenced for ten years from March 23, 1892. Sentence commuted December 24, 1896, so as to expire at once.

There are many mitigating circumstances in this case. It is believed that further punishment will be of no benefit to him. The injured parties have petitioned for his release, as have also the most prominent citizens of Marshall, where the crime was committed. His previous record was of the best. His prison record has been exemplary. He now has an opportunity for employment, which he might not be able to secure at a later period. It would seem that if he is ever to become a useful citizen now is the time. If he should prove to be a criminal by nature, it will only be demonstrated a little earlier than if he should serve out his sentence. His family is an honorable and respectable one, and it is believed he will have every incentive to lead the life of a useful citizen. For these reasons his sentence is commuted to expire at once.

JOHN T. RICH,

Governor.

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR PINGREE.

His Excellency, Governor Pingree, then read his message as follows. I desire to urge upon you as the law making power the necessity which exists for the amendment of several laws of the State, for the repeal of others and for the enactment of a few which I deem of vital importance. As representatives and servants of the people let us endeavor to work harmoniously, with no object in view but the public good. Michigan ought to stand in the front rank of progressive states. Her people desire that she should. Just laws will aid her, unjust laws will retard her. Whatever stumbling blocks have heretofore been placed in her pathway should be removed. The labor of removing them will not be an idle pastime. It will require united and persistent effort on our part. It remains to be seen whether we shall be equal to the great work. It is within your power to make the coming session of the legislature an ideal one. This can be done by the enactment of a few laws which will meet the approval of all patriotic citizens of this State and the commendation of every true member of our great republic.

Primary Elections.

If we would inaugurate reforms in our State government we must commence where the governing power originates, in party organizations and conventions. I would recommend that the political party caucus laws already upon our statute books be so amended as to abolish party conventions. If political corruption exists its origin can here be found. The true theory of party organization is that the best men should be chosen for election to office. This theory cannot be carried out under the present system. The caucuses and conventions have become the means by which the few obtain power and place.

Under a representative form of government the people should have free choice of their representatives. Any obstruction to such free choice should be removed. Syndicates of office seekers are formed, corrupt combinations are made, delegates are bought and sold, promises of position to unworthy men are often of necessity made, and the example is set before us that those who in the ordinary walks of life pass for honorable men enter upon the duties of public office under a cloud of suspicion and shame. The convention has become the medium of trickery, bribery and fraud. The higher criminal is here developed. The direct vote of the ballot holder for party candidates is the simplest means of expressing preference for representatives. If the people make mistakes they alone are to blame. The direct vote and the Australian ballot system is of less cost to the people than the convention system.

It is remarkable that so great has been the power of the few and ambitious that in a nation having a representative form of government and composed of forty-five great states, but two of those states vote direct to put party candidates in nomination, while every Canadian province has the direct vote, and for that reason is so much nearer the ideal republic.

Taxation.

The question which is always present and is never solved in any State or municipal government is the question of taxation, direct and indirect. Taxes are burdens which must be borne. The theory of the republican form of government is that they are borne equally by all owners of property in proportion to their wealth. If this principle does not prevail the government has favorites and therefore it is not republican. All exemptions and variations from this fundamental principle should be upon lines of public policy and for the greatest good of the greatest number.

The cost of government of the State should be lessened by the reduction of the charges of departments and of State institutions, proportioned to proper maintenance and administration, and to the reduced cost of living incident to the general decline of values. I also recommend, in order to the proper distribution of the public burdens, that all forms of wealth bear their just proportion of taxation. The policy of continuing the system of specific taxation of corporations as the sole resource of the State from such organizations which originated when the State was new and which favored the promoters of needed works for small and scattered communities has long been regarded with disfavor by the people of this State, who contend that the time has arrived when the well known inequalities of taxation should be adjusted and proportioned according to values.

There is nothing new or novel in this recommendation. In 1877, Governor Bagley took occasion in his address to the senate and house of representatives to emphasize the inequalities of specific taxation of corporate property, which he contended should be taxed locally according to its value like other property. In the same year Governor Crosswell recommended improved methods for uniformity in levying taxes. In 1887 Governor Luce recommended the equalization of taxation and in 1891 recommended, for purposes of revenue, a tax on bequests, on corporations and an income tax. In 1891 Governor Winans recommended equalizing taxation as between classes of property paying specific taxes and property under assessment claiming that the assessed property pays double the tax paid by property upon which specific taxes are levied. He favored the local taxation of corporate property and doubted the policy of exempting any property from equal taxation.

It will thus be seen that the contention of the people against the system of solely specific taxation of corporations found expression at the capitol through several of the governors of the State regardless of party and as early as the seventies, and that the recommendations were in favor of taxing the property of the corporations as other property is taxed. The question, therefore, is one no longer for debate but for energetic action since it has been under consideration for twenty years. While I do not believe that the system of specific taxation and the method of its distribution in support of the common schools should be disturbed, I recommend that steps be taken in the form of local or general taxation to make corporations bear their proper share of taxation.

Fixing Railroad Tolls.

The right of the legislature to fix the maximum rate for passenger fares has been exercised ever since the first general enactment as to railroads, in 1855. In 1870 the people of the State amended the constitution expressly conferring upon the legislature the power to fix such maximum rates.

"The legislature may from time to time pass laws establishing reasonable rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight on different railroads in the State." Article 19-A Paragraph 1.

In 1873 there was a general revision of the railroad laws and certain rates were fixed. Amendments were made changing rates at various periods up to the final amendment in 1891, and generally speaking there has been a reduction of rates by legislative enactment.

It will thus be seen that any proposed reduction of railroad passenger rates of fare or of freight charges has its precedents in the changes made from time to time in the past history of these corporations. The right of the legislature to fix the maximum rates has been contested by interested corporations and the supreme court has held that the legislature has the right to fix such rates.

At the present time inequalities of passenger fares exist which should be adjusted by the legislature. Thus, for example, the Chicago & Grand Trunk Railway is confined to a local passenger charge of two cents per mile, while the Michigan Central and Lake Shore roads are permitted to charge a local fare of three cents per mile. It is also commonly known that passengers traveling from station to station in Michigan are charged more by the railroads than passengers who travel through the State from outside points. A passenger arriving at Detroit having paid two cents per mile over the New York Central and subsequently finding it necessary to go to Jackson pays a local fare of three cents per mile on the Michigan Central which is part of the same general line of road owned by the New York Central people.

What is true of discriminations by railroads in favor of through passengers as against local passengers, and of discriminations by the State in favor of one railroad as against another in the matter of maximum passenger rates, is true as to discriminations by railroads in favor of terminals as against local stations in the same State. All of these inequalities of charges are within the power or partly within the power of the legislature of Michigan to correct. And their correction in my firm belief would prove to be for the benefit of the railroad companies as well as for the people of the State. I therefore recommend that the legislature take into consideration the question of passenger fares at two cents per mile for Michigan.

The Referendum.

The referring of important acts of the legislature to a popular vote for final adoption by the people is the extension of the well known principle underlying the practice in this State of referring proposed changes of the constitution, and in certain local cases, matters of extraordinary expenditure involving the issue of bonds, to the vote of the people.

I am not prepared to state how far opinion favorable to the extension of this method of legislation has penetrated the State generally; but I am acquainted with the opinion of the people of the city of Detroit which is favorable to its extension to the granting of street railway and other quasi-public franchises as a check upon corrupt public officials Trusts and Combinations.

There is growing up in this country a system of trusts and combinations which is becoming more and more impudent and extortionate. Its influence is felt in the home of every citizen. The necessities of life are made instruments of oppression in the hands of those who reap a rich reward from the weak and the helpless. Such trusts and combinations destroy competition and throw thousands of worthy people out of employment. For this reason the consuming power of the people is destroyed and the producing power to just that extent is affected. Such combinations are illegal upon the broad grounds of public policy, but wholesome laws should be enacted against them. I do not propose to suggest the form of the laws nor the penalties for their violation, but they cannot be too strong. In the presence of a threatened destruction of individualism and the breaking of the spirit of independent effort, it is high time that the makers of the laws should be the people's representatives, whose names are upon the roll of your houses, and not members of a third house who infest the halls of legislation for evil purposes.

It has been rumored that Michigan has been selected as the field for the operation of a company controlling vast amounts of wealth to obtain possession of the mineral resources of the State, and in connection therewith to control the shipping interests of the great lakes. Prices will be reduced at first, of course, but in the end the people will be made to suffer; heretofore the waterways of the State have been instrumental in keeping down freight charges on railroads, but if the shipping interests pass into the control of one gigantic company, it needs but one more step to stop competition between the railways and vessel men.

If upon investigation I find that we are seriously threatened with this danger, I shall in some future message communicate with you upon that subject.

State Control of Corporate Stock and Bond Issues—Property Rights Respected.

We should be extremely jealous of the reputation of our business interests. All investments should be given such guarantee of safety by law as to inspire confidence in those who deal with us. Capital should be encouraged to invest in the development of our varied resources. Investments made within the State should be governed and protected by wise laws and not be disturbed by frequent changes in the laws that govern them. The burden of taxation should be equally distributed, all property bearing its just share. The issuing of stocks and bonds should be so regulated that when the investor seeks for proper security, he will find that the State has guarded him in his investment against the purchase of artificial values by way of watered stocks and bonds. Legislation on this subject need not be untried or experimental; in fact it doubtless would be wise to adopt in some measure the laws of older states if a precedent can there be found. It is in your power to materially aid owners of corporate property in Michigan in disposing of their securities if you will pass such laws as will protect the investor therein, by making the sale of the securities easier and at a lower rate of interest. All legislation of this character should commend itself to sound business discretion.

Under the laws that now exist manufacturing and other corporations are permitted to do business after having paid in 10 per cent of the authorized capital without the residue being subscribed for, and upon this payment of 10 per cent, and upon the strength of the authorized capital, and the fair standing of the men connected with the corporation, and possibly to some extent the fair prospects of the business, large credit has been obtained by the corporation, in some cases many times larger than the actual capital paid in. The practical workings of this law are unsatisfactory to creditors because in many instances the creditor after the corporation has failed to be successful has been found to be the largest investor in the venture, in order to protect the creditors of corporations of this character, I recommend that you increase the responsibility of the stockholder by making him individually liable for such debts as are incurred beyond the amount of capital actually paid in, at least up to the amount of the authorized capital of the corporation. In other words when a corporation obtains authority to do business with a certain amount of capital, that capital should exist in good faith for the security of the creditor.

In the case of banking corporations, much greater liability of the stockholders exists under the law with very satisfactory results to the creditors of the banks and to the people generally. In this connection it would be well to consider such supervision of corporations by a corporation commissioner, whose duty it shall be to ascertain what the exact available assets of a corporation are before it is permitted to enjoy corporate privileges and enter upon the business for which it is created.

Great care should be used in preventing corporate bodies from coming into existence on values that are artificial. The price for which its first issue of stock shall be sold might safely be fixed by law as an additional safeguard against deception. Accurate and detailed reports of the exact condition of the corporation and the value of its assets should be made at stated periods, and statements made by them in that behalf should be carefully examined and scrutinized by competent authority, and if it is found that, notwithstanding the value placed upon the assets of the corporation by itself, it is as a matter of fact insolvent, it should be prohibited from doing business. In short, I deem it as important that all corporations dealing with the public should be under the supervision of a competent State official as that railways and banks should be under the supervision of the proper officials. In some of the older states this plan has been carried out with great success and without expense to the state by the charge of such a reasonable inspection fee as is not burdensome to the parties paying it, and for which they receive full value by having a statement of their business and assets made by an expert.

Liability of Stockholders.

I am not unmindful that there are some legitimate advantages in organizing partnerships and other enterprises into corporations. The death or withdrawal of a partner sometimes compels the winding up of the affairs of a partnership. This and several other inconveniences are obviated by converting the partnership into a stock corporation.

While partnerships are often thus converted into corporations for legitimate purposes and with honest intentions, it is equally true that this opportunity afforded by the law is seized by the dishonest for the purpose of avoiding individual liabilities for debts contracted in the conduct of their business, and thus cheat their creditors out of their honest dues.

Many worthless corporations are organized, electing for its president a person of well known financial strength, thus giving to this institution a fictitious credit. When the affairs of the concern become involved and creditors seek to get their money, it is found that the aforesaid president has only a few dollars stock in the concern and therefore is only liable to the creditors for a small amount. The creditors are thus swindled by the use of the rich man's name.

There is an easy remedy for all this—the law should make a distinction between public and quasi-public corporations and those which are strictly private; the latter should, in my judgment, for convenience and distinction, be designated as joint stock companies and all holders of stock in such companies should be liable for the debts of the concern precisely the same as though they were partners.

All the honest advantages of a corporate existence can thus be obtained, while at the same time the public is protected from the swindling operations of those who organize a corporation for dishonest purposes.

I recommend that a law be passed, substantially embodying the views above indicated.

While we should not of necessity select the railway of the State to prove the great inequality of our present distribution of taxes and present burdens, yet I have the figures at hand with reference to these corporations because there has been a supervision of them by the public, and the facts have at least become partially known. I submit the following statement taken from the report of the railway commissioner for 1895, which I am sure will be of interest to you in determining what your duty to the people of the State may be with reference to the question of taxation. The figures are taken from page 56 of the railway commissioner's report for 1895:

The gross earnings of the companies from all sources were..... $29,307,909 03
Upon which there was collected a total tax of..... 670,529 00
And as I compute it the percentage of taxation on gross earnings is... .022878

I have made a comparative table of earnings, tax and per cent of taxation on earnings for the year, 1894, of the states given in the schedule below:

States.	Earnings.	Taxes.	Per cent.
Michigan	$20,537,475 71	$670,136 18	.0228
Massachusetts	30,472,707 00	8,500,102 18	.0886
Iowa	40,000,070 02	1,420,014 85	.035
Wisconsin	28,318,544 09	1,205,000 13	.0457
New York	105,478,088 57	7,305,330 77	.0098
Illinois	77,508,537 00	8,840,378 87	.0406
Minnesota	30,005,524 00	923,804 43	.03008
Missouri	85,250,240 03	1,094,018 19	.0203
Indiana	150,100,405 00	2,250,000 00	.0144
Ohio	60,140,831 56	2,073,777 45	.0344
Connecticut	32,444,318 88	733,538 58	.0226

Page 61 of the Commissioner's Report gives the following total tax for Michigan, under the present system of tax of gross earnings:

1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.
$812,009 63	$854,334 12	$803,762 01	$811,050 65	$670,136 18

Showing that railway companies in Michigan are paying taxes under the gross earnings system in exact proportion to the conditions of their business, thereby increasing the taxes on all assessable property during the period of decreased earnings.

A like inequality of taxation under our present system applies to telephone, telegraph and express companies. Concerning the latter I call your attention to the fact that while the earnings of these companies are very large the amount of assessable property either real or personal used in their business is very small compared with the earnings.

I submit also herewith a statement obtained from the reports of the Auditor General and of the Railway Commissioner showing the inequality of taxation of railway properties in this State. The items contained in the statement as obtained from the railway commissioner's office are taken from the report not yet published:

The total cost of railway property in the State of Michigan in the year 1895, according to the report of the railway commissioner (not yet in print) was $316,333,027.90. The railway companies paid during the year in specific taxes $741,408.77, or a fraction more than two and one-third mills on the dollar.

The total value of real and personal property in the State in the year 1895, as equalized by the boards of supervisors, was $818,086,160.00, and the taxes levied for the same year for State, local, and all other purposes (as shown below) amounted to $20,633,571.04, or a fraction less than two and one-half cents on the dollar.

The taxes were as follows:

State tax.....	$3,010,227 83
County taxes.....	2,791,036 00
School taxes.....	5,491,077 47
Township and city taxes.....	7,174,326 83
Liquor taxes.....	1,879,891 62

From this statement it will appear how unjustly and how unequally the public burdens have been distributed, and what applies to railways in this regard applies with equal force to large amounts of other property in the State. While you may not deem it advisable to dispense entirely with the present system of specific taxation of corporations, which I do not recommend, some steps must be taken by you in the interests of the people in at least adding to that system. From many sources comes the proposition to tax corporate property in the localities where it may be situated, and in the absence of any better method I commend it to your attention. However, after considerable investigation it appears to me that a wiser and better method would be to create a department of taxes and assessments, composed of a board to be appointed by the Governor, and which board should be composed in part of such officials as have the supervision of the corporations against whom taxes are to be assessed. This board to determine the exact value of all corporate property in the State not now taxed locally under the present law and to levy taxes thereon in the same proportion that private property is taxed. If the formation of such board can meet the requirements of law no difficulty should be experienced on the part of the State in compelling the payment of a just tax on the actual value of the property owned by such corporations within the State including the value of the franchise. I look upon the question of taxation in these times as the most vital one with which you have to deal and one with which we must deal justly if the people are to be satisfied with our work.

A careful investigation of the statement herein submitted to you will make it manifest that the people of the State when they have a just and proper system of taxation can be relieved of the burden of the expense of State government, and be burdened only with local taxes of their own creation.

And I especially recommend to you that in the settlement of the question of taxation you avoid levying taxes in such a manner that by increasing the prices of products or tolls to the consumer the burden of taxation will indirectly remain upon the people.

The Present Tax Law.

I am of the opinion that some radical changes should be made in the present tax law. The taxation of mortgages upon land must be considered double taxation. The owner of the real estate must in all cases pay the tax, not only upon the real estate, but upon the mortgage, for if he who loans the money is required to pay tax upon the mortgage which he holds, he will recuperate from the owner of the property either by requiring him to pay additional interest sufficient to cover the amount of the mortgage or by compelling him to execute a mortgage which contains a clause requiring him to pay the tax upon the mortgage direct. The effect of the present law is to prevent residents of the State from loaning money directly, and to avoid the payment of tax, frauds are permitted, and the mortgage is taken in the name of a non-resident against whom the collection of the tax cannot be enforced. It would be far better to permit the borrower to have the advantage of a lower rate of interest than to allow the lender to exact a higher rate upon the plea that a portion of the interest received must be used for the payment of the tax.

I am also of the opinion that a radical change should be made in the present law by which tax titles are acquired. While every facility should be afforded for the collection of taxes, yet it should not be possible for one individual to confiscate the property of another. Whatever rights are required by reason of the non-payment of taxes should be acquired by the State. Whatever penalties are added for the non-payment of tax should inure to the State. The present law which prohibits the recording of deeds of transfer without the payment of taxes due at the time the transfer is made has facilitated the collection of taxes. This law, however, should be amended so as to require the payment of all back taxes and not merely those that stand against the property for five years preceding the transfer.

I would also recommend the adoption of a general enabling act, if such can legally be done, by which all property in the State which has been sold for taxes either to the State or to the individual can be redeemed by the original owner, or by his heirs or assigns, at any time within five years from the passage of such an act upon the payment of the original tax and costs and 6 per cent interest to the date of redemption. In times like the present such an act would meet the approval of all broad-minded citizens and only a few who desire to reap large rewards from the misfortunes of their fellow citizens would raise a voice in its condemnation.

Taxes Upon Timber Lands.

The State has suffered great losses in the past by reason of the failure to collect taxes due upon timber lands. The principal object of the owners has been to strip the lands of valuable timber and refuse to pay taxes during the time the stripping process has gone on. When it is known that this evasion of the tax law has been and is now practiced to an alarming extent by many wealthy people, both residents and non-residents, something should be done at once to prevent it. To this end I would recommend the passage of a law prohibiting the cutting and removal of timber from lands upon which taxes are due and unpaid. Such an act could be enforced by delegating special authority to trespass agents or others acting under the control of the State Land Commissioner.

State Institutions.

The educational, charitable, reformatory and penal institutions of the State should all command your earnest attention, and be subjected to such inspection as will enable you to provide intelligently for their needs. Economy in their management should always be practiced, but the necessity for reducing the cost of maintenance, if possible, was never more keenly felt than at the present time. The number of officers and employes on the pay rolls should not exceed actual need for safe and efficient service, and high or extravagant salaries ought in no case to be paid. False economy and retrenchment generally result in loss and poor service, and therefore should be avoided. In my judgment some reforms in the matter of buying supplies for the institutions might save to the State many thousands of dollars annually, but until such time as I shall be able to investigate the subject more fully, recommendation in this matter will be deferred. In making appropriations for current and other expenses of the institutions it is hoped the legislature will not be less mindful of the conditions that render appropriations necessary than of the strain that every additional dollar appropriated puts on the resources of the tax payer.

I am very strongly of the opinion that supplies for the various institutions should be bought of Michigan producers. Considerable sums of money are annually expended for beef and other supplies that come to our institutions from other states, while the farmers of our own State, who are taxed for the support of the institutions, are compelled to go away from home to find a market for their cattle and produce. I am sure you will agree with me that this is wrong, and if legislation is necessary to prevent it, you may be depended on to supply it.

The University.

Permit me to direct your special attention to the University. This great institution should under no circumstances be crippled. Its reputation as one of the great American universities should be sustained. It has been endowed by the people and has been maintained by them with a spirit of pride and often at a great sacrifice. Its teachers should be equal to any in the world and they should be men of independent thought, ready and willing to meet all great questions of modern civilization and advancement with an intelligent and enlightened public spirit. They should be qualified to aid in the preparation of wise measures of government and be willing at all times to give counsel upon political, social and economic questions. They should be so highly respected and so well compensated that it would not be profitable, as soon as they become efficient to be called away to give instruction to some great institutions which have been endowed by monopolists, who have acquired tens of millions of dollars at the expense of tens of thousands of their fellow men.

While it may not be possible at this time to greatly extend your support to this great institution, let no step be taken by you looking to its humiliation.

The Lobbyist.

I cannot refrain from expressing my views upon the subject of the professional lobbyist. At every session of the legislature just measures are killed by the enemies of good government and equal rights and the means used to compass their death are the paid lobbyists who infest our halls. If the members of the legislature are not intelligent enough to give independent thought and action to great public measures without the aid of those who wine and dine and cajole and flatter and bribe, at least some steps should be taken to modify the nuisance.

I do not propose to formulate rules for the government and control of those whose business it is to obstruct legislation. All attorneys who practice before courts and juries must be admitted as members of the bar and are required to pay certain fees and observe certain rules. If the lobbyist, like the poor, must be always with us to aid in thinking and assist us in acting and furnishing us food and drink, there should be some method of enrollment and a fee demanded as a condition precedent to the right to practice before the people's legislative jury.

It has come to my knowledge that some of these professionals have secured large retainers from individuals and corporations who are interested in obstructing honest legislation, and I trust a roll will be made of all such in order that their particular purpose may be clearly known and understood.

It unfortunately happens that in the past at least a few of the members of both houses have occupied the dual capacity of legislators and lobbyists, being paid by the people a small salary to serve in the former capacity and being hired by the people's enemies at high salaries to serve in the other capacity. It has not been necessary for these to be enrolled as their real employers are generally discovered early in the session of the legislature. I trust that there are no such public servants in the present legislature and that such evil work will not be felt or recognized.

Public Franchises.

The question of granting public franchises by the State and by municipal authorities, and the conditions under which they should be granted and operated is one of the greatest problems with which we have to deal. A public franchise, when it has passed beyond State or municipal control, may become a power greater than the sovereign or municipal power. It may become an engine of oppression and corruption. The moment a franchise is granted the whole people surrender to a few of their number the right to exercise a public function, and the question which should be considered is what proportion of that right should be reserved to the people themselves in the way of regulation and control.

In order to suggest a remedy for an evil or abuse it is first necessary to know what the evil is. To cure a disease the physician must be able to call it by name. What are the evils which have grown up under the present system of public franchises in this State and in all the other states of the union? A few of them only need be mentioned.

Combinations and consolidations by franchise owners in cities are going on all over the United States. These combinations and consolidations are for the purpose of keeping up tolls. The amount of wealth that is being accumulated in the hands of a few by these favored holders of special privileges is appalling. These tolls are indirect taxes, and to the extent that the right to regulate the tolls is abandoned by the sovereign or the local power to the franchise owner, to that extent the right to levy taxes is given away. The State or the municipality appoints an agent for a period of thirty years, more than the life of a generation, and before the term has half expired the agent becomes the master and the master becomes the slave.

Permit me to give an example of the abandonment of such power: A license is given to a company of three men to operate a street railway in a city of 60,000 people and they are permitted to charge five cents per passenger for a period of thirty years. At the time the license was granted the cost of carrying a passenger was four cents and the profit was therefore but 20 per cent upon the money actually invested. In ten years the population has increased to 120,000 and the cost of carrying the passenger is three cents and the profit is 40 per cent. Rather more than the profit of most merchants and manufacturers and farmers. If the original grant of the license, for that is all the franchise is, had reserved the right to regulate fares, and the municipality had been able to keep the profit down to 20 per cent, even the most radical advocate of vested rights could not complain that the corporation was being oppressed.

It should be very clear then that the right to regulate fares should always be reserved. But the reservation of this right is not all that is necessary. Permit me to give another illustration. The amount actually invested in a plant is one million dollars. After the road is completed it is mortgaged and bonded for two million. This could only be done by executing a mortgage upon the license itself. In other words the three men who formed the company and their associates advanced a million dollars and immediately thereafter placed a mortgage upon the industry and earnings of every inhabitant of the city for thirty years to come to the amount of two millions, and then when the question of regulating the fares is brought up the municipal authorities are met with the bland statement that the original owners have transferred their vested rights to innocent purchasers and in order to pay the bonus of a million dollars, and the interest upon it for thirty years, the company cannot live if the fare is reduced.

This system of indirect taxation is going on in every city in the United States; and hundreds of millions of dollars of fictitious values, which must represent some form of human labor, have been created for a few by the simple stroke of the pen, and in order to pay these immense sums tribute is laid upon every man, woman and child in the country. It simply means that these hundreds of millions of dollars are to be taken from the ordinary channels of legitimate trade to the injury of every mercantile and manufacturing and farming industry in the land, for no one interest can suffer without a corresponding injury to all. Is it not strange that in the presence of this insidious, but constant process of concentration, learned financiers, wise statesmen and profound political scholars wonder why the few become rich and the many become poor?

In order to prevent such accumulations a law should be passed which will prevent the execution of a mortgage upon the license. I would suggest the following amendments to the laws permitting the granting of franchises to public corporations such as street cars, electric light, telephone and gas companies.

1. Reserve the right to fix rates of tolls or charges.
2. Let the construction of the plant of every such corporation be under the supervision of the municipality, so that the actual cost shall be known.
3. Provide that no mortgage shall be executed and no bonds issued to a greater amount than one-half of the actual cost of the plant.
4. Require the corporation each year to file a sworn statement of its receipts and expenditures, certified by a public accountant who shall have access to its books.
5. Provide that there shall be no consolidation of one company with another and that no individual stockholder of one company shall own, either directly or indirectly, any stock in another company operating in the same city.
6. Provide that no franchise or license now existing or to be granted in the future shall be renewed or extended beyond the terms of the original grant during the life of the original grant.
7. Provide that no franchise of the character above enumerated shall be granted by any municipal authority without being submitted to a vote of the people.

I appreciate the fact that the passage of such a law, by which the people can be protected from extortion and fraud, will be opposed by every friend of special privileges, not only in this State, but that they will be reinforced by agents from other states who represent like interests. I cannot emphasize in too great a degree the necessity for some action in the line here indicated. Unless some such course is pursued it will be necessary to provide for State or municipal ownership of street car lines, telephones and other means of transportation and transmission, and I believe that such a plan should only be adopted as a last resort; for in my opinion it would be a blow struck at individual enterprise and exertion, and when these are lost the virility of a nation will be destroyed.

In this connection I desire to call attention to the question of fraud and corruption in securing public franchises and in the awarding of public contracts. It has always been a principle of law that fraud vitiates all contracts, and yet it has been held that the right to operate a public franchise is such a divine right that fraud cannot affect it. This matter has been often referred to in connection with the case of Jake Sharp and the Broadway street car franchise. Briber and bribed were sent to prison, but the fruit of their corruption was held by the courts to be too sacred to be touched. Before the courts of Michigan give their sanction to such a code of morals I would suggest that a law be passed making all public contracts, like private contracts, absolutely void for fraud or corruption. The manner of raising the question of fraud and the time within which and by whom it can be taken advantage of must be wisely considered by you.

Telephones.

Great interest within the past year has been manifested in the construction of telephone plants. Previous to that time the Bell Company has had the absolute monopoly. The rates charged have been extortionate. It has been argued by some that the telephone business is a natural monopoly. There is no such thing as a natural monopoly in telephone any more than in railroad or telegraph service. In addition to what I have already said under the head of public franchises I make the following suggestions as to telephones:

1. The law should permit the fixing of telephone rates by the local authorities in each municipality or town.

2. All companies should be required to charge the same price for the same service and no one should be permitted to give free service upon any consideration. A company which for years has charged double rates could for a number of years give free service, and the result might be to wreck a younger company, destroy capital and enterprise and leave the community in the hands of the old monopoly.

3. All telephone companies in a city should be compelled to exchange telephone service, upon terms to be fixed by the municipal authorities. The present law contains a provision looking to that end, but I am satisfied that it is too indefinite to be made available.

4. The law against consolidation of telephone companies should be made so positive and emphatic and contain such penalties and forfeitures that it would be impossible to evade it.

It has come to my knowledge that certain railroad corporations of this State have made contracts with the Bell Telephone Company by which, for certain reduction of rates and mutual concessions, an agreement has been made whereby the railroad company has agreed to prohibit opposition telephone companies from placing telephones in the stations and offices of said railroads. While such a contract is of course absolutely void, not only as against public policy, but as against the present telephone law, which provides against discriminations, yet it will avoid litigation if you pass an act which will forever prevent the execution or carrying out of such contracts. For two public servants to combine to defraud their master, the people, cannot be for one moment tolerated.

Prisons.

The treatment of criminals is one of the vexed questions of the age. Criminals are of two classes, corrigible and incorrigible. These should be kept separate in all jails, prisons and reformatory institutions. The original purpose of the establishment of the prison at Ionia was to provide a place for those who were not deemed to be hardened criminals. I fear that this purpose has not always been kept in view. I recommend that some discretion be lodged in the prison boards for transferring from Ionia prison those who have been found to be incorrigible, and also for transferring from prisons to Ionia such inmates as may be deemed to be corrigible. There can be no greater nursery for crime than a prison which permits the association of the vicious with those who are merely unfortunate.

The care of criminals is another question which becomes every year a subject for more serious and thoughtful consideration. The employment of machinery and the manufacture of articles which compete with the products of our great industries is in my opinion fundamentally and radically wrong. Hundreds of great prisons in the United States have become immense manufacturing establishments. Will it not be proper to make an effort to secure a change from the present system? I cannot outline at length a plan for such change, but would respectfully offer a few suggestions as a basis for legislation.

Would it not be well to investigate the question of utilizing and enlarging the present system of prison farms to the greatest possible extent for the production of such articles of food as may be necessary to feed prisoners? Beyond this it might be well to inaugurate the system of raising such vegetables as beets for the manufacture of beet sugar or other food plants which will not come into competition with the farming interests of the State. Before embarking upon the general system in this direction, however, I would recommend the adoption of such a system in connection with but one of the prisons of the State in order to test its practical workings. If hand labor only were employed both upon the farms and within the walls, it seems to me that the prisoners could be kept at work and could produce enough for their own support without creating a surplus and thus crowding the market with prison made goods.

The sale of prison made goods in competition with the products of free labor has a tendency to reduce prices for such goods and hence reduce wages. The mingling of prison made goods with others enables those handling the same to cut the prices below a fair profit, and in order to obviate this I am of the opinion that all prison made goods should be labeled and no label should be removed until the final purchase from the retailer. Such a law is in force in the state of New York, and I have been informed with good results.

In order to make prison farms secure, temporary stockades might be erected, but they should be replaced by permanent stone or brick walls which can be built by the convicts, thus utilizing their labor to the fullest extent, even to the manufacture of the brick themselves. No argument is necessary to emphasize the necessity of work for prisoners, both as an aid to their physical and moral training. At the present time there is a large number of convicts lying idle in two of the Michigan prisons.

Insurance.

Another matter that may well deserve your attention is that of fire insurance as conducted in this State. It is well known that by a combination of nearly all stock companies doing business in Michigan the State is divided into five districts; in each district is a supervisor who fixes absolutely the rates of insurance for all risks in his district. When an application is made to any of these companies for insurance the rate must first be sent to and approved by the supervisor of the district in which the risk is located for its approval by the company. All insurance must go through this agent of the combination. No more open evidence exists of a trust in this State than is to be found in this common necessity to our people.

It is also stated upon authority that rates of insurance in Michigan are higher on like hazards than in many of the eastern states. In several instances "non-board companies" have entered the field offering lower and profitable rates of insurance, but wherever such offers have been made, the common weapons of monopolies and trusts have been drawn and agents of the "board companies" have been authorized to meet such rates until the "non-board companies" have been driven from the field or have been forced to enter the combination when rates have again been raised to the high level. By these methods rates of insurance no longer become a matter of contract between the insurer and the insured, but an assessment without voice and without escape on the part of the person applying for insurance.

I believe you can find some way by which the field of insurance may be open to fair competition and without injustice being done to the companies. It is also suggested that the form of policy in use and authorized by the statutes of this State be examined with a view to making the same more liberal for the insured.

Coal and Other State Resources.

I find that but few of the State institutions are supplied with Michigan coal. As the State is interested in the development of these mines I would suggest the propriety of the more extended use of this fuel by these institutions, all things being equal.

All of the elements required for making Michigan one of the foremost manufacturing states of the world are present in the State on every hand, inexpensive transport inclusive. Coal is plentiful; and water power, without naming the force reserved in the rapids of the Sault Ste. Marie river, is unsurpassed. The vast resources of Michigan may be best illustrated by citing the fact that less than fifty years ago there were but three millionaires in the United States and by contrasting this with the more startling fact that Michigan mines have been making at least one millionaire a year for the cities of the east besides sustaining in large part as great a fleet for other states as that passing through the Suez Canal. This compared with what Michigan has received as her share is as the bounty of nature to the crust of charity. You are here to legislate for Michigan, and I desire to freely express the opinion that were these conditions mastered there would be much less need for the maintenance of charitable institutions by the State, and much less valid complaint of excessive taxation.

Good Roads.

The success of the agitation for good roads depends entirely upon a more equitable system of taxation. It is plainly apparent that one class of our citizens, the farmers, is bearing a greater share of the taxation of the State proportioned to values than another class, the organizations receiving corporate privileges from the State government. So long as this inequality exists just so long will the farming communities have manifestly just cause to oppose appropriations from which at the best they can draw no more benefit than to the rest of the people of the State, and from which, as a matter of fact, they draw less. Good wagon roads are a direct benefit to villages and cities and to transportation companies. Each should pay a proportionate share of such benefit. Under the prevailing method of taxation whatever of benefit is derived by producers is in brief time absorbed by the classes privileged by the legislature to levy indirect taxation in the form of rates of toll; largely those levied for transportation. There is no kind or class of taxes levied in the State of Michigan from which the incorporated bodies do not derive greater benefit than do the unincorporated and it is because they pay less for such benefits.

Incorporated bodies walk into the capitol of this State and almost openly pay for the privilege of escaping taxation in whole or in part. While there is escape in this way for special interests there is no escape for the ordinary or small tax payer, as there can be no property omitted from the tax roll; as there can be no burden thrown off in whole or in part by any person or corporation, that is not shifted to the shoulders of his neighbor. It is false economy that in the end works as disastrously for those who are for the time being relieved as for the overburdened.

There is absolutely no question as to the necessity of good roads for Michigan; but the State, rendered poor by unequal direct taxation and exorbitant indirect taxation, cannot afford at the present time to enter into the great work of constructing public roads at an outlay that will assure substantial highways which will endure for some time to come. The State government must first satisfy the people with a measure of equal taxation before the question of good roads can be entered upon; indeed before any measure involving an appropriation of public money is seriously approached. We have before us the lesson of the spectacle of the administration immediately preceding the present, consciously or unconsciously in aid of those who successfully shift taxation from their own to the shoulders of others, cutting away from the appropriation for the chief educational institution of the State. And this in obedience to the wishes of the largest body of taxpayers in the State who in their distress, and perhaps aware of the possible hopelessness of enforcing equal taxation were willing to sacrifice along the lines of education to retain the proper support of the home.

I would therefore urge upon the legislature, if the institutions of the State are to be maintained at all; if the proper work of the State is not to be abandoned; if all classes of citizens are to be treated alike before the law, that the question of equal taxation be seriously taken up and treated with impartiality.

Certain School Districts.

Since the repeal of the law existing prior to 1893 it has become impossible for some of the school districts in northern Michigan to fill the required number of school months and meet the expenses. They are situated in former lumbering townships; but the pine being taken off, payment of taxes on stump lands is refused. No relief is anticipated from delinquent taxes. It is suggested by officers of school districts that section 52 of act 206, laws of 1893, be amended so as to authorize township treasurers to retain out of moneys collected for the townships the whole amount of school taxes voted by the school districts. It is possible that some form of relief is needed and should be extended and I commend the subject to your attention.

Arbitration.

In the experience of the State of Michigan, if not in that of the United States, it is found that the military arm is called into requisition to suppress riots, chiefly on account of disagreements between corporations and their employes. Recourse to the military should be the final extreme resort. It is the duty of corporations to live at peace with their neighbors. And employes have a like duty to perform. Neither has any rights superior to the other in the eyes of the people. It is the duty of the State to preserve the peace and defend the rights of all. But it is also the duty of the State to prevent that which tends to disturb the peace or which infringes such rights and to that end laws have been passed and courts have been instituted. To further promote that end, I would recommend that no body of men be allowed the privilege of incorporation without their free consent, expressed in the articles of incorporation, as in part consideration for such privilege, that all disputes found impossible of adjustment between employer and employe, shall be referred to arbitrators, in accordance with the latest platform declaration of the Republicans of Michigan, that of the State convention for 1896, held at Grand Rapids.

Statistics Relating to Corporations.

The value of statistics to the State relating to corporations is incalculable. But they are valueless if they do not extend far enough to afford the legislature absolutely safe material from which to gather the correct deductions, upon which the regulation of corporations is based.

The day of absolute reliance upon competition, especially between transportation lines, is passed and the day of the trust and the combine is here and the legislature must stand between the rights of the people of the State and the encroachments of the trusts and combines. To hide successfully is to swindle successfully. The people are entitled to all of the facts in relation to the creations of their representatives and all of the facts relating thereto should be gathered by the State and placed in the hands of each and every elector of the State free of technicalities. Information is education and private publications like private schools have private purposes. If it is the duty of the State to educate children it is likewise the duty of the State to inform the people. If, for an example of the importance of such statistics, it is required to know today the earnings capacity of any given railroad in Michigan upon which to base a maximum rate of fare it cannot be obtained from the public reports of the State, surprising as it is, because the number of passengers other than employes, hauled on passes is not shown in such reports. Yet passes are being regularly written by railroad attorneys for United States senators, United States representatives, and for other public servants whose good will is valuable to the roads. Certain classes of shippers, as also certain classes of so-called influential people, inclusive of certain newspaper publishers, obtain passes. So, too, the public statistics do not show the amount of money expended by railroads for maintenance of lobbyists at this capitol.

Actual earnings of roads do not show their earnings capacity by any means; and passes and the money maintenance of lobbyists are not all the lacking figures of the problem, the solution of which would show conclusively that bad management growing out of the exploitation of watered stocks and bonds, is ruining the railroads and checking the development of the earnings capacity of the State of Michigan. Actual value of roads and rolling stock and actual cost of operation are not clearly known and set forth.

As for freight rates they are at the option of the companies either to raise to exorbitant figures for occasions of speculation in the stock market or to reduce to figures intended to ruin a competitor or favor the monopolistic designs of a shipper, and the ordinary statistician must fail in following the changes.

Coercion of Electors.

As a guard against coercion of voters; a provision for the safeguard of the ballot; an additional assurance of the independence of the voter and the purity of elections, I would recommend that a penalty be provided by an act of the legislature severe enough to prevent corporations of a public character exerting undue influence in elections.

Fish Propagation.

The importance of the work of the fish commissioners cannot be overestimated. The introduction of brook trout into the streams of the lower peninsula, where none were found before, demonstrates the possibilities of fish culture.

The labors of the commission have been directed to the question of the productiveness of our great commercial fisheries. The great lakes have ever been great storehouses from which have been drawn annually an important revenue to the State, and have produced a substantial portion of our food supply.

Our people have never appreciated the importance of these fisheries. Under proper regulations, and with little care and attention, a given area of water may produce as great a quantity of food as an equal area of land.

The food upon which young fish live and thrive is ever present and ready for their wants. It is there without man's intervention or aid. With proper methods instituted as to the planting of fish and the control of the fisheries, the waters of the great lakes lying within our borders can be made a source of great revenue, and any investment made in stocking these waters with young fish will return a thousand fold increase.

The indifference hitherto manifested regarding these fisheries has been because of lack of knowledge of what might be derived from them with an exercise of proper care. The State should, each year, place in these waters the greatest number of young fish they can possibly hatch, and to this end additional hatcheries should be established to carry on this work whenever required, and at as early a date as possible.

The commercial fisheries have been subject to abuses for years by the methods of fishing. The fishermen by long use have come to look upon the fisheries of the State as their own personal property, from which they may take each year, without regard for the future, all fish that come to their nets. As the larger fish begin to diminish in numbers the meshes of the nets were found to be too large, and profits began to decline. Then began gradual contraction of the meshes of the nets, until today more than one-third of the catch of white fish in the great lakes is of ten inches and under in length, and of salmon trout weighing less than two pounds, this length and size being the maximum for number two fish.

Large quantities of fish are taken which are graded as standard No. 3 white fish, of which the maximum requirement is three-quarters of a pound, and standard No. 2 trout, of two pounds. The havoc thus created can well be imagined, and the fishermen, themselves, admit, that unless vigorous steps are taken to prevent this wicked waste, a speedy termination must come to the fisheries. Thousands of pounds of commercial fish are taken from the lakes, each year, that have never arrived at a spawning age.

The State has a coast line of about two thousand miles upon the great lake system and the statistics show that the nets used for fishing, placed end to end, would measure 3,036 statute miles. The fish are not protected by laws such as have been passed for the protection of the birds of flight, the quadrupeds, like the deer, or the game fish, whose seasons of reproducing have been surrounded by the most ample safeguards. The fish of the great lake are pursued by the fishermen practically through the entire year.

The result is the destruction of the adult fish for spawning, the taking of millions of young fish, that have been spawned naturally, and of those artificially propagated. It can be readily seen that there must be but one result from this great inroad on the supply and that the efforts that the State is making to maintain the fisheries is rendered useless.

The first and substantial benefits derived from our fisheries are gathered by the fishermen themselves. Whatever benefits the fishermen may enjoy from the prosecution of their industry, they enjoy as a privilege and not as a right. The fisheries belong to the people, and it is their right that they should be maintained, not only for the present, but for the future. The State has appropriated freely of its means to establish hatcheries and render the fisheries fruitful.

The fishermen have been the immediate beneficiaries of the bounty of the State; and in many instances non-residents, while they have enjoyed the benefits, have shared none of the responsibilities in the way of taxation.

The product of the commercial fisheries, even in their depleted condition, amounts annually to more than a million dollars, at the lowest wholesale price of not more than three cents per pound.

With the passage of just laws protecting the fisheries, preventing the capture of young and immature fish, and protecting the spawning fish upon their beds, and their stringent enforcement, the result in the next five years would be an increase in the value of the product of, at least, one-third, and if continued for ten years would treble or quadruple this amount. As a business proposition solely, this matter should appeal with the greatest force to the legislature.

The dominion of Canada, which has by far the greatest extent of territory opposed to our own upon the great lakes, several years ago adopted regulations governing her fisheries, and their adoption and enforcement have resulted to their advantage.

They have imposed a license on the boats and nets of the commercial fisherman; they have made regulations to control the number and length of nets that each individual fisherman may have; they have made restrictions as to the setting of nets at certain distances from the shores and in channels, and they fixed the month of November as a close season to allow the fish a free opportunity to spawn.

It must appeal to the common understanding that if we are to preserve our fisheries, immediate steps must be taken to secure proper regulation and enforcement.

I therefore recommend that the legislature, at its coming session, pass such laws as may be needed to increase the productiveness of the fisheries and maintain their benefits for future generations. An act should be passed enlarging the meshes of the nets and imposing a severe penalty for the taking of small fish; a close season should be made to protect the spawning fish, and a license to be laid on the boats and nets similar to the one now in force in Canada, and income derived from such licenses must not only maintain the fish commission in their work of artificial propagation as at present established, and its enlargement in the future to its fullest possibilities, but at the same time provide a substantial revenue for the State.

Banking Department.

While I believe that most of our State banks are well managed and in good condition, still the lessons taught by the failures during the past two years should not be unheeded or forgotten and I feel that I cannot too strongly urge attention to this subject.

From the report of the commissioner on banking, it appears that there are now upwards of 170 State banks and three trust companies in existence in our State with a liability to depositors of $95,000,000.

This is three times the number shown by the first annual report and over twice the liability to depositors.

The severe strain of the past three years has increased the burden and responsibilities of those charged with the administration of banks and has developed some weak points in our banking laws. During the period mentioned a number of banks have failed. In the city of Lansing alone three State banks failed, swallowing up nearly $1,000,000 of depositors' money. The cause of these, and in fact nearly all bank failures, may be distinctly traced to the excessive loans made to the officers of those banks and to the various business concerns in which these officers were interested. It is hardly necessary to add that most of these loans were made in violation of the law or by evading it.

It seems to be a fact that too few bank directors understand banking and most of them find it easier, at least when times are good, to leave the management of the bank with its cashier or some other one officer. Something certainly should be done that will make bank directors more familiar with the affairs of the bank and thus prevent mismanagement for which they are morally, and should be legally, responsible.

The quarterly reports, which are now required to be made to the commissioner, should be verified by the oath of all those who are required to sign the report and the oath should contain a statement that they have personally examined the books and assets of the bank and that from such examination they personally know that the statement signed by them is true in substance and in fact.

It should be made obligatory upon each bank to require from its cashier or treasurer such a bond as shall be approved by the banking commissioner.

Whenever a cashier or treasurer shall, without authority shown upon the records of the bank, discount or cash any negotiable paper or security of any kind, it should be regarded and treated as an unlawful use of the money in the bank and appropriately punished.

A full and complete record of the actions of the board of directors relative to loans and discounts should be kept, which record should be signed by all those present.

There is altogether too much red tape in the manner of getting a receiver under the present law. The commissioner has not sufficient power to enforce the law and protect the depositors. Whenever he finds a bank insolvent or violating the law, he must report to the Attorney General and the latter may, if he feels so disposed, apply to the courts to appoint a receiver.

The banking commissioner should be given power to close a bank at once whenever it is insolvent. And in general, I believe he should be given the same power over the State banks that is given the controller of the currency over the national banks.

Every safeguard possible should be placed around the banking business of our State. Without banks, about whose safety there can be no question, we cannot carry on business.

Each mercantile and manufacturing concern should feel that its best and safest friend is the bank in which it makes its deposits and from which it must necessarily be a constant borrower.

In this country where sudden fortunes are often made by some fortunate speculative enterprise, the temptation to make unsafe and illegitimate investments with depositors' money is often too great to be overcome.

Severe punishment should be meted out to those officers and managers of banks who are thus led to betray their trusts.

Business prosperity depends upon sound banking. Without it we must always expect to pay a higher rate of interest than our business will warrant.

What I have said relative to banks applies with equal force to building and loan associations.

The cost of maintaining the banking department with such additional power may be somewhat increased, but, whatever it is, it should be paid by the banks so that the burden of ascertaining whether or not they have safe places in which to deposit their money shall not fall upon the people.

Savings banks, pure and simple, with no capital stock—the depositors standing in the relation of shareholders to the extent of their deposits, and profit-sharers pro rata—are not obliged to earn money for shareholders and depositors too. They are enabled to make very conservative investments. As there is no incentive to make great profits such institutions are obviously in the interest of depositors, to whom a reasonable dividend can be paid. I recommend that our general banking laws be amended to admit of such societies for savings in Michigan.

Inheritance and Income Taxes.

I am in favor of an inheritance tax and an income tax. I earnestly hope you may see your way clear to provide for them.

A Point in State Finances.

Without reflecting upon any previous administration I feel it my duty, here, to call your attention, and that of the people of the State of Michigan, to a deficiency which exists, and which I am informed has existed for some time, in the State finances. This has necessitated the borrowing of considerable sums of money as high sometimes as half a million dollars without authority of law, in order to bridge over emergencies, when there was no funds in the State treasury. This condition should not be continued but should be met openly and manfully and provided for in an intelligent and businesslike manner. It is not so necessary to ascertain where the responsibility for this deficiency exists, as it is to provide for the existing condition without subterfuge.

Short Legislative Sessions.

I would respectfully call your attention to the provision of the constitution requiring sessions of the legislature to be held biennially.

This and the granting of special municipal charters are the two great obstacles in the way of short sessions of the legislature.

I recommend that an amendment to the constitution requiring annual sessions of the legislature of not over sixty days each to be submitted to the people. I also suggest the advisability of your honorable body taking a recess for one year after a session of sixty days.

I further recommend that general incorporation laws for all cities and villages be adopted.

Child Labor.

More stringent laws should be passed to prevent the employment of children in many lines of work. Such employment is another of the results of the concentration of capital in trusts and monopolies, combination stores, consolidation of companies operating public franchises and the employment of prison labor. The result of such combinations and consolidations is to destroy competition and this necessitates the employment of children and women to do the work that ought to be performed by able-bodied men with families out of employment and to compel them to be a burden upon the public. The greed and avarice of those who thirst for wealth and power is so great that the weak and the helpless are forgotten and those who have felt interested enough in the uplifting of their fellow beings to consider these questions seriously must unite in combatting the evils to which I have referred. The people have no hope except in their representatives in legislatures and in congress and I trust you will do your whole duty or at least inaugurate a system of reform which will redound to your credit and honor.

Yours respectfully,

HAZEN S. PINGREE,

Governor.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on State Affairs:

The committee on State Affairs, to whom was referred the subject of "junketing" referred to by our Speaker in outlining the work to be done, has been carefully considered in detail, and especially the subject named above, "The Junket Trip." We have no disposition to question the honesty of purpose of any member of previous session, or of this, in regard to the best way to obtain the information necessary pertaining to the State institutions. We are well aware that this custom has prevailed for a long time; also that our constituents are demanding that we abandon the old custom and resort to a more advanced means by which the best results can be achieved. We are fully convinced that the best way for committees to do is for each committee to visit its institutions in a body without notification, or knowledge of any institution, when the time arrives, pursue and perform the duties assigned them.

In conclusion would most heartily commend and endorse the advice given by our worthy Speaker and would recommend that the junket trip be abandoned and relegated to the history of the past; also, that the clerk keep a record of the absence of the committees and that not more than one committee to the upper peninsula and three to the lower peninsula be absent at the same time, and that no legislation of a local nature in which any absent member is interested shall be enacted.

The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

To the honorable members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, we, who represent the farmers' clubs, bring greeting:

To supplement our efforts in the direction of economy, we hereby petition your honorable body, to so use the powers delegated to you by the people of Michigan, as to avoid all forms of extravagance in the appropriation and use of the funds of the State.

Especially, we ask you to refrain from that practice of junketing which constitutes the chief claims to distinction of your immediate predecessors in these halls, not only because the practice involves a wanton waste of the wealth of your constituents, but because it ill befits the custodians of the people's interests, honor and dignity to become the guests of the individuals and corporations expectant of legislative favors or bounty.

We further petition your honorable body to abolish all offices not essential to the economical administration of the State government, and to make such reductions of official salaries as will in some degree correspond to the present progressive shrinkage in the money value of industrial wages and products.

On demand of Mr. Adams, the petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal as follows:

To the Honorable Legislature, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

The undersigned, your petitioners, residents of Grand Rapids and vicinity, respectfully represent that Alphonzo Button, of Grand Rapids, aforesaid, to whom was awarded the sum of $3,000 by the Board of State Auditors, on the 29th day of June, 1887 (pursuant to joint resolution No. 17, session laws of 1887), as compensation for the loss of his left arm entire, below the elbow, and his right hand, except the thumb and forefinger, while in the discharge of his duty in the regular military service of the State of Michigan, in our opinion was not justly compensated therefor; that considering the nature and extent of said injuries we believe the sum so awarded was entirely inadequate,—it being conceded by said joint resolution, that he was in fact justly entitled to compensation; therefore, it would seem but a simple act of justice that a rehearing should be granted in this case, and if it should appear to your honorable body that justice has not been done, and additional allowance to him should be awarded;

Therefore, your petitioners pray that such rehearing be granted, and if deemed advisable, the Board of State Auditors be authorized and instructed to pay said Button an additional compensation, not exceeding a sum certain, as to them shall seem more just and equitable, and your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM STATE OFFICERS.

The Speaker announced the following:

BOARD OF STATE AUDITORS,
Lansing, January 28, 1897.

To the House of Representatives, Lansing, Mich.:

The Board of State Auditors have received notice through the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of the resolution adopted January 27, 1897, requesting the Board to cover the floor of the House cloak room, closets, wash room and postoffice lobby with linoleum or similar covering, and also to put in new closets.

The superintendent has been instructed to secure linoleum and lay the same at once.

As to putting in new closets at this time it will be impossible to do that work while the House is in session and the Board can do nothing further with that matter unless instructed by the legislature, with an appropriation to cover the cost.

Respectfully,

S. A. Commons,

Clerk Board of State Auditors.

The communication was ordered spread on the Journal.

BOARD OF STATE AUDITORS,
Lansing, January 28, 1897.

To the House of Representatives, Lansing, Mich.:

Your communication of the 13th inst., containing the resolution of the House of Representatives, instructing and demanding that the Board of State Auditors return at once to Representative Hall the picture of Zachariah Chandler, which now adorns the walls of the Senate Chamber, has been laid before the Board of State Auditors.

The Board request me to say that they have made inquiries in regard to the ownership of the picture in question and the conditions surrounding same, and find that the picture of Zachariah Chandler, while owned by Mr. L. T. Ives, the artist, or his son, Percy S. Ives, and awaiting a purchaser, occupied a space in Representative Hall; that the portrait was afterwards purchased by Mrs. Zachariah Chandler and donated to the State, under the conditions that it should occupy and be accorded space upon the walls of the Senate Chamber, and that the donor requests that the location of the picture be not changed.

In view of these facts, the Board of State Auditors do not feel that they have power to comply with the demands of the House.

Very respectfully,

S. A. Commons,

Clerk Board of State Auditors.

The communication was ordered spread on the Journal.

A bill to regulate the manufacture and sale of baking powder and chemical substance used for the purpose of making vesiculated or spongiiform bread, also the regulation of the business thereof, and for the punishment for violation of the provisions of this act, and to repeal all existing acts inconsistent therewith.

Section 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, That all substance furnished or sold for the purpose of rendering bread light, spongiiform or vesiculated, and commonly called baking powder, shall have printed on each and every package, in plain sight, in the English language, in Roman faced nonpariel type, the exact composition or percentage of each and every substance entering into such compound or compounds.

No. 66. By Mr. Edgar: Resolutions adopted by the Wayne County Medical Society in regard to the bill now before the legislature, prepared by the Michigan medical legislation league.

On demand of Mr. Edgar,

The resolutions were read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

WHEREAS, A bill to provide for a board of registration in medicine, introduced through the influence of the Michigan medical legislation league, is now before the legislature of this State, and

WHEREAS, This bill requires that the said board shall consist of nine members, five of whom must be selected from among irregular practitioners, thus giving them absolute control of examinations and granting licenses for practice of medicine for all future candidates, although these irregular practitioners constitute only about one-fifth of the whole number of practitioners in the State, and

WHEREAS, The said bill does not demand that even four members out of the nine, or any number shall consist of regular practitioners, merely providing that there shall be no more than four persons on this board chosen from the school of medicine known as regular, thus of necessity leaving the other five to be chosen from among irregular practitioners while it does not place a similar limit to the whole number of irregulars, merely providing that only two shall be selected from the Homeopathic school, two from the Eclectic school and one from the Physio-Medical school, thus leaving it possible for other irregular practitioners to be appointed in sufficient numbers to fill all the places on the board; and

WHEREAS, The bill does not provide for the exclusion of a horde of quacks that have settled in this State after having been driven from other states by the operation of laws that have been enacted for the regulation of the practice of medicine; and

WHEREAS, Any law for the protection of the people of this State against quackery and empiricism, in justice, should be made retroactive in regard to this class of practitioners; and

WHEREAS, It is contrary to the genius of this government and the avowed policy of the great political parties to recognize sectarianism in making public appointments; therefore be it

Resolved, That any board of registration in medicine should be non-sectarian; and further be it

Resolved, That in the opinion of this society Sec. 1 of the bill proposed by the Michigan medical legislation league should be amended by striking out all references to schools or pathies so as to read as follows:

Section 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, that the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint nine resident electors of the State, who shall constitute a board of registration in medicine. All of the persons so appointed shall be learned in the profession of medicine; shall be graduates from recognized and reputable medical colleges and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of medicine for at least six years immediately preceding the time of such appointment. Such persons shall be appointed in three classes, each class to consist of three persons. The first class shall be appointed and hold office for three years, the second for two years, and the third for one year respectively, beginning with the first day of September in the present year, and until their successors are appointed; and thereafter the Governor shall appoint, before the first day in September in each year, three persons qualified as aforesaid, to hold office for three years from the first day of September next ensuing. No member of said board shall belong to the faculty of any medical college or university, or be financially interested in the manufacture of drugs or the practice of pharmacy. Any member of said board may, for malfeasance, be removed from office by the Governor. Vacancies in said board shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of this act for the establishment of the original board, and the persons appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office during the unexpired term of the member whose place he fills. The business of this board shall be transacted by, and receive an affirmative vote from at least five of the nine members.

And section 3 should be amended so that division 1 shall read as follows:

1. The applicant shall be registered and given a certificate of registration, and he shall present proof of his having already been registered under the act of 1883 as amended in 1887, entitled "An act to promote public health:" Provided, however, That upon complaint upon oath being made by any reputable citizen of the State that any persons, naming him or her, is engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery in any of its branches, and that said person is not, as the affiant verily believes, properly qualified under the provisions of this act, and containing the further statement that the affiant knows, or has good reasons to believe, and does believe that said person removed to this State in order to escape the operation of the law regulating the practice of medicine in force in the state, territory or county from which such person removed, said board shall issue a citation directed to the person named in the affidavit, citing him or her to appear before said board at a time and place to be mentioned in said citation, and to submit to an examination under the provisions of this act. Which citation shall be personally served upon said person at least ten days before the day mentioned therein for the appearance before said board. Upon the appearance of such person before said board, or upon some date to which the same may be adjourned, said board shall proceed to examine into the charges contained in such affidavit, and in case they shall ascertain that said person so charged did remove to this State with a view to escape the operation of any law regulating the practice of medicine they shall then proceed to examine into the qualifications of such persons to continue the practice of medicine or surgery in any of its branches, and in case they find him or her unfit, they shall so certify and thereafter such person shall be prohibited from the practice of medicine and surgery in this State; and in case such person shall be found qualified under the provisions of this act, said board shall so certify and give to such person a proper certificate, agreeable to the provisions of this act. The fee for applicants of this class shall be one dollar.

Resolved, That when the said bill shall have been amended as above, then this society will endorse and work for its passage, otherwise it recommends that the bill does not pass, believing that any law which places the licensing board under the control of irregular practitioners, will be so conducted as to retard the development of scientific medicine and be worse in the end than the present state of affairs.

Resolved, That a committee of five, including the president and secretary, be appointed by this society to urge upon the committee of the legislature to which this bill may be referred, the amendments here proposed.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the legislature.

No. 80. By Mr. Chamberlain: Memorial of the W. C. T. U. organization of Michigan relative to the liquor traffic within this State.

On demand of Mr. Chamberlain,

The memorial was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:—

Honorable Sirs—The undersigned memorialist officially representing the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of Michigan, desire most respectfully to petition your honorable body to enact a statute during your present session, completely prohibiting the traffic in alcoholic beverages in this State. The reason for our request may be briefly stated, and we trust they will commend themselves to your conscientious convictions of duty. Prohibition is the only correct principle of legislation on this question, both in law and ethics. The business which we ask you to outlaw is essentially vicious in its nature and tendencies. It is incapable of being regulated either by license or tax, so as to be in harmony with the public good. Ample evidence to this effect can be cited from the public utterances of publicists and tourists of the highest repute, and inasmuch as the State as truly as the individual is amenable to the law of God, we ask that you will exercise your prerogative as legislators, by placing our noble commonwealth in harmony with the high and irreparable statutes which pronounces a "woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth thy bottle to him and maketh him drunken also."

We further submit, that to legislate the liquor trade in any form is a gross prostitution of political power; "Rulers should not be a terror to good works but to the evil."

Everywhere in society, the weak and defenseless are rendered more exposed to injury by the open saloon. These places are notoriously the crime-breeders of the State. Why then should the State in effect go into partnership with them and grant them protection?

Furthermore, the commodities in which liquor vendors deal are neither useful nor safe. Every transaction wherein any valuable consideration is paid for in intoxicating drink is of the nature of fraud. Alcohol used as a drink is incapable of rendering any real service, but always strikes in the direction of dishonorable death.

Again, we readily believe that apart from considerations of party politics and including the non-voting population, a vast majority of the citizens of the State desire complete legal suppression of the liquor traffic. It should be borne in mind that the best informed friends claim that the small majority of 5,540 votes were only counted, not cast against the constitutional amendment on this question in 1887.

It may be objected that the policy of prohibition was once given a trial in Michigan for a number of years and finally abandoned in 1875, because of its inefficiency. It is a sufficient reply to this objection to call attention to the almost universally confessed failure to endorse the most salutary provisions of the regulation laws which have been substituted for prohibition. But, it seems to us such a slander on any subject upon the fair fame of our noble State to even intimate a just law on any subject cannot be enforced with reasonable strictness. If the executive department of the government is faithful to its trust, there can be no insurmountable difficulty in this direction.

But it is claimed that this State through its several municipalities derives a large revenue from the present method of taxing the traffic which goes far towards lessening expenses for local, internal improvements. Whoever urges this consideration as an argument against prohibition and in favor of a legalized liquor trade, needs to be better informed on the fundamental principles of political economy. Moreover, we beg reverently to cite on this point another brief passage from the Divine Law: "Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood and establisheth a city by iniquity."

Finally, we record the solemn conviction that the best elements of our Christian civilization must soon unite in some effective way to utterly overthrow the liquor power in the State and nation. And that you will find it consistent with your sense of duty to deal an effective blow upon the "gigantic crime of crimes" is and shall be the sincere prayer of your humble memorialists. The 8,000 women belonging to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of Michigan.

Referred to the committee on Liquor Traffic.

No. 81. By Mr. Chamberlain: Memorial of the W. C. T. U. organization of Michigan asking the passage of a law compelling the removal of screens and anything obstructing the view from the outside, of all places where liquor is sold.

On demand of Mr. Chamberlain,

The memorial was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan.

Honorable Sirs—The undersigned memorialist officially representing the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of Michigan, desire most respectfully to petition your honorable body to enact a statute during your present session completely prohibiting the use of screens, blinds, curtains or any other means or devices whatever by the keeper of any hotel, restaurant, saloon or any other place in which intoxicating or any other beverages may be sold or kept for sale, to obstruct, obscure, or in any manner interfere with the view of the interior of the premises where such intoxicating or other beverages may be sold, or kept for sale, at any day or time whatsoever.

Mrs. Jane M. Kinney,

The bill was then ordered printed, referred to the committee of the whole and placed on the general order.

By the committee on Judiciary:

The committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred

House bill No. 18, entitled

A bill to amend Sec. 30 of act No. 264 of the session laws of 1861, entitled "An act to authorize proceedings by garnishment in the circuit courts and the district court of the upper peninsula," approved March 16, 1861, as subsequently amended, the same being Sec. 8086 of Howell's annotated statutes;

Also,

House bill No. 19, entitled

A bill to amend Sec. 25 of act 137 of the laws of 1849, as amended, relative to authorizing proceedings against garnishees and for other purposes, as amended, being Sec. 8055 of Howell's annotated statutes, as amended by act 178 of the session laws of 1891;

Respectfully report that the sub-committee, to whom was referred the questions:

First, As to whether or not the bills were contrary to public policy; and,

Second, Whether or not such laws were constitutional;

Made a report which is hereto attached, and the committee recommend that said report be spread upon the Journal.

A. J. Sawyer, Chairman.

The following is the report of the sub-committee:

Your sub-committee, to whom was referred the question of whether garnishment proceedings against municipalities are against public policy, report as follows:

We find that the states of Pennsylvania, New York and Indiana have held that such proceedings were against public policy.

The following states exempt by statute the liability of municipal corporations: Iowa, Missouri, Georgia, Michigan and others.

The state of Colorado by statute holds municipal corporations liable.

In Ohio, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Massachusetts the statutes are liberally construed so that municipalities are not exempt and are, therefore, held liable in such cases.

15 Ohio St. 462.
5 N. H. 113.
45 N. H. 168.
20 Conn. 416.

There seems to be a distinction, however, between salaries due officials of municipalities and express contracts entered into by the municipality. In the former case it has been held in Massachusetts that garnishment proceedings will not lie, whereas, in cases where the municipality had entered into contract relations independent of salary, garnishment proceedings would lie against a municipality.

112 Mass. 380.
129 Mass. 577-9.

In Kentucky it has been held that a state is not subject to garnishment proceedings, but that a municipality is.

Citing 7 Mon. 439.

In Rhode Island the law seems to be that municipalities are liable.

10 R. I. 285, in which the city of Providence was held liable.

From the foregoing it would appear that a majority of states hold that it is not against public policy to hold municipalities liable in cases of garnishment, and we therefore so report on the question assigned to us.

H. M. Zimmerman.
Charles W. McGill.
Frank Shepherd.

To the chairman of the sub-committee:

On the question as to whether the legislature has power to make municipalities liable as garnishee defendants, the following opinions of text book writers are submitted. I have been unable to find that it is held by any writer that such a measure is beyond legislative authority:

Rood on Garnishment, Sec. 19: It has been held upon grounds of public policy that municipal corporations such as townships, counties, cities, school districts, school boards and the like are not subject to garnishment process unless expressly included in the terms of the statute; and almost as frequently it has been decided that they are so liable though not included, etc. In support of this concluding clause of the above proposition the author cites cases reported from the supreme courts of Kentucky, Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Texas, Colorado; but where it is held that only money on contract can be reached by garnishment, it is held that fees due a juror, and the like, cannot be reached by garnishing the county, for in such case there is no privity of contract.

Williams v. Boardman, 9 Allen, Mass. 570.

Walker v. Cook, 129 Mass. 577.

Waple on attachment and garnishment, Sec. 442: * * * The general rule is that public corporations are not garnishable, though the statute should expressly authorize the process against all persons and corporations. The opinion prevails that municipal corporations must be expressly mentioned if they are to be made garnishable by statute. But it is held that a city may waive its privilege.

Waple offers a wise suggestion (Sec. 431): That public accounting officers should not be obliged by the garnishment law to liquidate accounts out of due time and thus derange business. That the answer of such accounting officer that the demand of the principal defendant is unliquidated, should be final and not subject to traverse.

Wade on attachment, Vol. 2, Sec. 345: "That this question (garnishment of municipalities) may be controlled by legislation, either giving or withholding the right to garnish towns, cities, and other suable public corporations, there can be no doubt."

Drake on attachment, Sec. 516, gives a brief digest of the decisions of different states, some favoring and others opposing the proposition that minor municipalities may be garnished, but none of them going so far as to say that they may not be made by statute liable as garnishees. Further on (Sec. 516b), Drake says: "Though a municipal corporation be, by express law, exempt from garnishment, it may waive the exemption and submit itself to liability as garnishee."

Clapp v. Davis, 25 Iowa 315.

F. Shepherd.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

By the committee on Judiciary:

On motion of Mr. Davis,
The bill was laid on the table.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Adams moved to take from the table

House joint resolution No. 6, entitled

A joint resolution to authorize and instruct the Board of State Auditors to examine into, and if they deem it justifiable, to allow the claim of Alphonzo Button for injuries sustained by him from a premature discharge of a cannon while engaged in the regular performance of his duty as a member of the gun squad of the Curtenius Guard (an organized volunteer uniformed militia company, organized under the laws of the State of Michigan), at Mason, Michigan, on the 3d day of July, 1858;

Which motion prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Adams,

The bill was referred to the committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Gustin offered the following:

Resolved, When the House do adjourn for the day, we adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning;

Which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Lusk,

Leave of absence was granted to committee on University until Saturday next.

Mr. Savage, by unanimous consent, presented the following:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

Your petitioner, Wm. R. Kendrick, respectfully represents that he is a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector of the county of Saginaw, State of Michigan, which said county constitutes the 10th judicial circuit of the said State of Michigan.

Your petitioner further represents that at the election held in said circuit, November 3, A. D. 1896, there were only two candidates upon the ballots to be voted for the office of circuit judge to fill vacancy, and that your petitioner was the candidate on the Republican ticket and Byron A. Snow was the candidate on the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket.

Your petitioner further represents that the county board of canvassers of said Saginaw county canvassed the votes of said judicial circuit and certified the same to the State Board of Canvassers as they were counted and returned by the several election boards of the voting precincts of said circuit, and that by the canvass as made and returned by said county board of canvassers, it appears that said Byron A. Snow received a majority of the votes cast for the said office of circuit judge to fill vacancy in said circuit, and he was therefore declared elected to said office, and the said State Board of Canvassers caused to be issued to him a certificate of election, but your petitioner believes that said Byron A. Snow was not legally elected to said office, but that your petitioner was, and that he therefore desires to contest the final determination of said State Board of Canvassers in the premises, and avers that your petitioner will, if the votes lawfully cast in said circuit which are legally marked so as to express the voter's choice in the manner provided by law and legally counted, be shown to have been elected to said office and entitled to a certificate of election, and that the said election of the said Byron A. Snow, or his apparent election, results in the fraudulent and illegal manner of conducting the election and of counting the ballots, and in permitting persons who are not electors to vote in the several townships and wards and voting precincts in said circuit hereinafter named.

Your petitioner therefore charges, upon information and belief, that in the conduct of the election in many of the voting precincts in said circuit there was gross fraud and illegality and a wilful disregard of the mandatory and directory laws enacted for governing elections and the conduct of the board of election inspectors, and that many votes were cast by persons who are not electors and by others who were not registered, and that many votes were counted for said Byron A. Snow wrongfully and illegally, and that many votes legally cast for your petitioner were not counted for him by said several boards of election inspectors, and that such fraud, illegality, and error in the conduct of said election and in permitting persons who are not electors, and who are not registered, occurred in the townships, wards, and polling precincts in said district hereinafter named, that is to say:

In the townships of Birch Run, Buena Vista, Brant, Chapin, Carrollton, Frankenmuth, Fremont, James, Jonesfield, Kochville, Lakefield, Richland, Saginaw, Spaulding, Thomastown and Taymouth, and also in the wards of the city of Saginaw to wit: in the first ward, the fourth ward, the eleventh ward, the fourteenth ward and the fifteenth ward.

Your petitioner charges upon information and belief that in each of said townships, wards, and voting precincts, many persons who voted at said election were assisted in the marking of their tickets by the members of the board of election inspectors and by other persons without said voters being first sworn that they could not read English or that because of physical disability they were unable to mark their tickets themselves, said voters being persons whose disability, if any existed, was not manifest to said election inspectors. And that in said several townships, wards and voting precincts, persons adverse to the interest and election of your petitioner were allowed to be and remain inside of the railing erected in said polling place during the greater portion of the day and to converse with the voters and influence them after they had secured their ballots and before the same were deposited in the ballot boxes, and that in each of the said several townships, wards and voting precincts some of the members of the said boards of election inspectors instructed and permitted others to instruct a large number of voters how to mark their tickets without such assistance or instruction having been first requested by such voters, and that in many instances said members of said election board and other persons went into the booths with the electors and wrongfully and illegally influenced them in selecting their tickets and the persons for whom they voted, and that in consequence thereof, a large number of voters in said several townships, wards and polling precincts exposed their tickets to the view of others after they were marked, in violation of law.

Your petitioner further represents that in said township of Birch Run in addition to the other irregularities and illegal practices hereinbefore mentioned, that the said election board of said township neglected to prepare any ballot box within which to deposit the ballots when the ballots were received after being marked by the voters, instead of being placed by said election board in a proper and legally prepared ballot box having a lock and key, and which could be securely closed and sealed, they were placed by said board in a common box which had been prepared and used for the shipment of bird-seed, and which had neither lock nor key, and the bottom and top to which were insecurely fastened on with small wire nails, and in no other manner, and said election board with respect thereto acted in entire disregard of the safeguards provided by law securing the ballots cast by the electors of said township.

Your petitioner further represents that in each of said several townships, wards, and voting precincts, persons who were not members of said board of election inspectors were permitted to assist in the counting of the ballots and that instead of each member of said boards counting and inspecting all of the tickets, they individually and severally counted and inspected only a part and parcel of the ballots cast, and in that way acted without check upon each other's inspection and count and by reason thereof made many mistakes and omissions and counted many votes for said Snow when the voter's choice was not expressed by marking his ticket in the manner the law provides and requires.

Your petitioner further represents that in addition to the illegal conduct and irregularities hereinbefore referred to respecting the election held in the township of Frankenmuth that said election was held in their township hall which was partitioned off by solid walls into three rooms and that the larger room was divided by a railing extending from one side to the other; that within said larger room, but within the railing and about two and one-half feet therefrom were the booths which were constructed with doors on each side thereof, one opening towards the railing and one on the opposite side; that the board of election inspectors and the ballot boxes were in one of said other rooms and the ballots were handed out through a small window about two feet in diameter and when marked were again returned through said window and the ballots if deposited in the ballot box, were not so deposited in the presence of the voters. And when said board of election inspectors counted and canvassed the ballots at the close of said election, said window was closed and the public entirely excluded from the presence of said board during the time of such counting and canvassing of said ballots. And that during the entire day there was posted up upon the walls within the polling place a large placard with instructions thereon to the voters to vote the silver ticket. Your petitioner further represents that a like placard was posted up within and on the polling place in said several other townships, wards, and voting precincts.

Your petitioner further represents that in several of said townships, wards and voting precincts the gate keeper appointed by said board to attend the gates in the railing erected through said polling places, in violation of law conversed with the voters as they passed in through said gates and urged them to vote said Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket.

Your petitioner further represents that in several of said townships, wards and voting precincts, and particularly in the township of Brant, the inspector of election designated by said board of election inspectors to distribute the tickets to the voters, several times during the day and while said polls were open and for a considerable period of time gave the ballots to the challenger of the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver party and absented himself from said polling place and said challenger was permitted by said boards of election inspectors to distribute the ballots to the voters.

Your petitioner further represents that in many of said townships, wards and voting precincts, and in each of them, a large number of persons were illegally registered upon the registration day next before said election who were permitted to vote in said several townships, wards and voting precincts at said election, and whose illegal registration was known to said election boards and a large number of persons upon said registration day were registered by proxy and from places of residences named by them which do not exist in fact, and such persons were also permitted to vote.

Your petitioner further represents that many persons were permitted to register in several townships, wards and voting precincts upon said election day and to vote at said election without having been first sworn as the law provides they should be. Your petitioner further represents that in said several polling places in the townships, wards and voting precincts hereinbefore mentioned and in close proximity to the booths therein many persons were permitted to discuss and advocate openly and urge the voters there present to vote said Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket during the greater portion of said election day.

Your petitioner further represents that in the several townships, wards and voting precincts of said district many tickets were counted for the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver party, and consequently for said Byron A. Snow, which bore distinguishing marks, which should not have been counted for any candidate.

Your petitioner respectfully shows that according to the provisions of Sec. 5, Art. VIII, of the constitution of the State of Michigan, in consideration of the premises belonging and by right ought to be exercised by the legislature in joint convention, and therefore your petitioner being remediless, except before your honorable body, therefore, in consideration of the premises, prays that an investigation of said matters be had and the correctness of said final determination of the said State Board of Canvassers be determined as to your honorable body may seem proper and just under the constitution and laws of this State, and that your petitioner may be declared elected circuit judge to fill vacancy of the said 10th judicial circuit for the term expiring January 1, 1900, and your petitioner will ever pray.

Wm. R. Kendrick.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, }
County of Ingham, } ss.

edge, except as to the matters therein stated to be on his information and belief, and as to those matters he believes to be true.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on Fisheries and Game:

On the 22d of January your committee on Fisheries obtained leave of absence and made a visitation of the various fish hatching stations, under the charge of the State Board of Fish Commissioners, and of the office and books of the Board.

We first visited Detroit, where the business office of the Board is located, and where its largest hatching station is maintained. This hatchery is devoted entirely to the artificial propagation of commercial fish, embracing the whitefish and the pike perch, or wall-eyed pike of commerce.

The active operations at this station begin with the latter part of October of each year with the gathering of the ova of the whitefish, which, after impregnation, are sent to the hatchery, put into automatic jars and kept in constant circulation in water taken directly from the city mains until the hatching time arrives in the last days of March or the first part of April. When the eggs are hatched the young fish are in due time taken and distributed on the natural spawning beds of the whitefish in the waters of the great lakes within the State jurisdiction, convenient to all points that can be reached by rail. More than 150,000,000 of whitefish ova are taken at this station every year, and from there a certain proportion is sent later in the season to Sault Ste. Marie and Charlevoix, to be there finally hatched out and distributed in waters of the great lakes adjacent to those stations.

The Detroit station is made to serve a double purpose, and two crops of fish are hatched each year of the commercial varieties. Immediately following the planting of the whitefish, operations are begun for the taking of the pike perch, and from 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 of this variety are hatched each year and distributed to both the inland lakes and great lakes of the State. The whitefish being a fall spawning fish, and the pike perch a spring spawner, advantage is thus taken of their habits of spawning and both kinds are hatched and distributed from this station without interfering with each other, and thus this hatchery is made to serve a double purpose.

Particular attention was given by your committee to the practical operation of this station, and its results, as claims have been current in the press that the fish thus hatched were prematurely brought into existence. Our investigation showed that there was no foundation for such claims. For a number of years the commission, with its characteristic caution, has had kept daily records of the temperatures of the water at the station and in the Detroit river at the foot of Joseph Campau avenue, and the readings of those temperatures show conclusively that the same temperature is preserved in the hatchery that prevails in the water of the river and lakes where the fish are naturally hatched. Such claim could only have arisen from ignorance, because investigation showed that the water was taken directly from the city mains, the hatchery room itself not being artificially heated, the only fire therein being an open grate fire, which merely serves the purpose of ventilation.

Further investigation by inquiry has developed the fact that this hatchery reflects great credit upon the management and that its efficiency and the magnitude of its output is not exceeded anywhere in this country, and so far as we have been able to determine, is not equalled. It may not be unworthy of mention that the reports of the eminent scientists and fish culturists from the countries of Europe, who take the deepest interest in fisheries, and who were sent to this country during the World's Fair year, show that after visiting all the fish culture stations in this country, the work of the fish commission of Michigan is placed in the very highest rank.

Your committee next visited the station at Glenwood in Cass county, where the culture of carp is conducted. This station is the smallest station of the commission and is conducted at the least expense, only $500 per annum being required for its maintenance. While the carp has had much discredit cast upon it in this country, we are inclined to believe that it is unjustly deserved. It has its place in fish culture, and while it cannot be ranked in character with our finer food or game fishes, it may be and is ranked with the coarser varieties of fish which enter largely into domestic use, like the shovel nosed pike, the sucker, the red horse, and others of the commoner varieties of fish, it being the superior of either of these varieties as a food fish and bringing a much higher price in the market. We are informed that two years ago an inquiry among the dealers in fish in Detroit showed that there had been marketed and disposed of in that city alone for the year, in the neighborhood of 75 tons. The current weekly reports from the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other eastern cities, show that an average wholesale price of better than 3 cents per pound is maintained for this fish in those markets and that large quantities are disposed of each year.

We would advise the continuance of this work, and are satisfied from the facts that a large return is made for a small annual investment for their rearing and distribution.

We next visited the site of the proposed new black bass station at Plumb's Creek, in Kent county, just outside the city of Grand Rapids. The board have selected a site for a permanent hatchery at this place, which seems to your committee to be well chosen for the purpose. The land acquired amounts to about six acres, and upon this site the board propose to construct a series of breeding ponds, which, when completed, will, in the course of a year, have a capacity of output of 500,000 black bass each year. The board some three years ago established an experimental station for the culture of black bass at Cascade Springs in Kent county, for the purpose of determining whether this work could be successfully carried on. The actual outlay of money at this experimental station has been very slight, but the experience of the board there shows that it is entirely practicable to rear and distribute these fish through the inland lakes of this State, which have, in many locations, been over-fished to the extent that the stock is now at a very low ebb.

There has been and is now a large and increasing demand for these fish all over the lower peninsula. It has increased to that extent that the board is in no situation to make anything like an adequate distribution of this fish until they can complete the contemplated station, and we believe it is an absolute necessity, and that it is advisable to grant the amount that will be asked for this purpose.

Your committee next visited Paris in Mecosta county, where the board has 159 acres of land and complete and partial control of three trout streams. Upon Cheney Creek, which the board controls completely, they have constructed 25 ponds, in which are carried the stock fish, from which the ova is taken each year. These ponds contain between 11,000 and 12,000 adult spawning fish, besides a large number of young fish, which are raised each year to maintain the stock. The lands connected with this station were obtained for the purpose of protecting the sources of the streams and the temperature of the water. If this had not been done, in the gradual development of the country, the streams would have been denuded of their timber, the sources would have been endangered and the temperature would have been raised to an extent that would have made the water undesirable for fish culture work. The land is a good investment for the State, and should occasion arise in the future for any reason necessitating its disposal, more could be realized therefrom than has been expended to acquire it.

Your committee wish to commend the board for the excellent condition in which the buildings and ponds are maintained at this station. The grounds are tastefully kept and the station is a credit to the State, both in its management and the efficiency of its work.

Some small improvements are needed at this place in the way of repairs to buildings, the erection of a larger ice house and meat cutting room for the food of the fish, a boiler and engine for food cutting and heating, and some slight additions to the number of ponds for the purpose of holding stock fish. These all seem necessary to your committee, and we would advise the allowance of the amount needed.

We next visited the hatchery at Sault Ste. Marie. By reason of the favorable local conditions at this point, this hatchery affords facilities that no other hatchery enjoys in this country. The waters of Lake Superior and of the Sault river abound with the whitefish and the brook trout. Both of these species are natural to that lake and stream, and the temperature of the water is such that the operation of hatching both varieties can be carried on at the same time and in the same water. The commission here has established and has in operation a fine hatchery, with a capacity of about 30,000,000 of whitefish, from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 of lake trout, and from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 of brook trout. The building is situated on an island belonging to the United States government and is in the verge of the rapids. A lease has been granted to the commission of this island free of compensation and including a large area immediately below the building, which can be used for the construction of ponds. Since the last session of the legislature, and with the money allowed at that time, the commission have equipped this hatchery and have constructed upon the grounds three ponds for stock fish. The water is furnished free by the city of Sault Ste. Marie, which also donated a motor and pump, and the pumping is done by electric power as the motive force. There has also been constructed an electric railway of about five or six hundred feet in length, extending from the hatchery to the railway spur, whereby the cans of fish to be transported are conveyed from the hatchery to the car on the spur. The ties and rails were donated by private parties, who had contracts in connection with the construction of the new lock, after the necessity for their use had terminated, and the only outlay required was the construction of the car and the work involved in laying the track.

We desire to call attention to the fact that there is now near by the hatchery building a considerable amount of earth, excavated during the construction of the new lock, which the commission will be able to secure free of cost from the canal authorities for the construction of new ponds that are needed and must be built within the next two years, in order to give this hatchery an opportunity to make the desired output of fish. This earth will be available during the next summer, but in all probability unless it is then used for this purpose, it will be removed by the government and used in the grading of grounds to the extent of their needs, and the remainder will be carted away and disposed of as best it can be, as the government intends to immediately begin with the opening of spring the grading and completion of its grounds. In the opinion of your committee, unless advantage is taken of this opportunity, when the work comes to be done in the future in connection with the construction of the ponds, the earth to be used therein will have to be brought a long distance upon scows at a large expense, and will have to be carried more than twice as far after being delivered at the nearest point, than it can now be obtained. It would therefore seem to be economy for the legislature to grant the amount of money necessary to do this work at the present time.

When this station is finally completed and the grounds are graded and sodded, by reason of its situation, it will practically become a part of the government park and reserve surrounding the locks and will be a station of which the State may well be proud, not only because of its beauty, but because of its efficiency as a practical work.

At Charlevoix we found the commission was occupying a rented building as a relief station in the conduct of the whitefish work. This station is only run for about three months out of the year and is managed by men detailed from other stations for that purpose. The city of Charlevoix furnishes free water to the commission for use at this station. This hatchery is situated convenient to the spawning grounds of the whitefish and easy access is had to them from this point, and the establishment of the relief station here has been of practical value in the conduct of the work.

Your committee were met at St. Ignace by a volunteer delegation of five commercial fishermen, who had heard of our trip and came to interview us upon the necessities of the fisheries. These men were practical fishermen who had been engaged in the work for more than twenty years. We had no knowledge that these men were to interview us, neither had the commission, and we therefore felt that the information thus derived from them was of the greatest value. We were also able to interview several of the commercial fishermen at the Sault upon the same subject.

It was admitted by all of these gentlemen that the hatching and planting of whitefish had been of great practical benefit, and they acknowledged that they had caught the planted fish. It developed that the main object of the delegation at St. Ignace in meeting your committee was to enforce upon it the necessity of some strong legislation at this session in the interest of the commercial fisheries if they were to be preserved. They exhibited to your committee samples of the meshes of nets now being fished and advised that the only safety for the fisheries was in the enlargement of the nets to permit the escape of the smaller fish and an enforcement of a close season during the spawning period. From our observation and conferences with those who are interested in the commercial fisheries, and those who are also interested in the stocking of our inland waters, we are satisfied that there is manifest now a deeper interest in legislation that shall protect the fish than has ever been before known. Notwithstanding the statements that have appeared in the public press by interested parties, claiming that the hatching and planting of whitefish is a failure, your committee is entirely satisfied from its interviews with the commercial fishermen themselves that the planting has been a success, and that the only thing needed to secure good results is a reasonable protection of the fish after they are planted, and we recommend that such legislation be passed.

Your committee would also recommend that a reasonable license fee be imposed upon the nets and boats of the commercial fishermen who are enjoying the benefit of the public fisheries, and that the revenue thus derived shall be devoted to the support of the work of the commission. In our opinion, the enforcement of the laws protecting commercial fisheries should be placed in the hands of the Board of Fish Commissioners, as it is closely related to their present work of planting, and is a matter in which they are most deeply concerned as to its success. We would suggest that it might be well to make a discrimination in amount of license fee, which shall be paid by residents of the State and by non-residents fishing in Michigan waters, and we believe that each of these parties should contribute to the success of this work. Canada has a license fee on all nets fished in its waters, and many of our American fishermen are carrying on the business of commercial fishing there and paying the license fee imposed by Canadian laws.

Your committee have taken pains to inquire into the relative costs of sustaining the work of the Michigan State Fish Commission and that of other commissions engaged in kindred work. A comparison with New York and Wisconsin, both of which states are largely engaged in fish culture, and of the amounts appropriated for that purpose by those states, warrants us in saying that the work of our own Board of Fish Commissioners is conducted on a smaller amount of money and with a greater output of hatched fish than in any other state. We feel justified in saying that such a comparison, when made, reflects the greatest credit upon the State Board of Fish Commissioners from the standpoint of economy and efficiency.

We have looked into the management of the business part of the board's work, and into its methods of bookkeeping, and the character of its other public records. The examination has convinced us that the work is thoroughly done and complete records are kept, both as to expenditures and as to the practical operations.

It is apparent that the commission is being called upon for fish for our inland lakes and streams to an extent far beyond their present capacity to satisfy. We believe that it is only a question of a short time when the present plants will have to be considerably enlarged to supply this demand, and it is safe to say that such reasonable expenditure as may be needed to meet this demand will meet with favor by the people, who are asking for it themselves.

From the inquiries we have made, we believe that the amount appropriated last year for the current expenses of the board was insufficient, and that the amount should be somewhat increased in the next bill, in order to relieve the board from embarrassment and to enable it to meet its bills promptly.

When we consider that the commissioners are gentlemen who are serving the State without compensation and because of the devotion and interest they have in this work, we feel that too high a compliment cannot be paid them for their unselfishness. We are satisfied that whatever recommendations they may make with reference to the protection of the fisheries and the enlargement of their work are dictated by no selfish motive or interest, and that due consideration should be given to such recommendation.

PROCEEDINGS IN JOINT CONVENTION.

The joint convention was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Thomas B. Dunstan, President of the Senate, and President of the joint convention.

The roll of the Senate was called by the Secretary thereof, and a quorum of the Senators was present.

The roll of the House was called by the Clerk thereof, and a quorum of the members was present.

The President announced that the two Houses had met in joint convention for the purpose of considering the petition of Hon. Wm. R. Kendrick, asking that the legislature make an investigation as to the correctness of the finding of the board of State canvassers, in declaring that Byron A. Snow was duly elected to the office of circuit judge for the 10th judicial circuit of this State, in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 5, Art. VIII, of the constitution.

The petition of William R. Kendrick was then read at length as follows:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

Your petitioner, Wm. R. Kendrick, respectfully represents that he is a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector of the county of Saginaw, State of Michigan, which said county constitutes the 10th judicial circuit of the said State of Michigan.

Your petitioner further represents that at the election held in said circuit, November 3, A. D. 1896, there were only two candidates upon the ballots to be voted for the office of circuit judge to fill vacancy, and that your petitioner was the candidate on the Republican ticket and Byron A. Snow was the candidate on the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket.

Your petitioner further represents that the county board of canvassers of said Saginaw county canvassed the votes of said judicial circuit and certified the same to the State Board of Canvassers as they were counted and returned by the several election boards of the voting precincts of said circuit, and that by the canvass as made and returned by said county board of canvassers, it appears that said Byron A. Snow received a majority of the votes cast for the said office of circuit judge to fill vacancy in said circuit, and he was therefore declared elected to said office, and the said State Board of Canvassers caused to be issued to him a certificate of election, but your petitioner believes that said Byron A. Snow was not legally elected to said office, but that your petitioner was, and that he therefore desires to contest the final determination of said State Board of Canvassers in the premises, and avers that your petitioner will, if the votes lawfully cast in said circuit which are legally marked so as to express the voter's choice in the manner provided by law and legally counted, be shown to have been elected to said office and entitled to a certificate of election, and that the said election of the said Byron A. Snow, or his apparent election, results in the fraudulent and illegal manner of conducting the election and of counting the ballots, and in permitting persons who are not electors to vote in the several townships and wards and voting precincts in said circuit hereinafter named.

Your petitioner therefore charges, upon information and belief, that in the conduct of the election in many of the voting precincts in said circuit there was gross fraud and illegality and a wilful disregard of the mandatory and directory laws enacted for governing elections and the conduct of the board of election inspectors, and that many votes were cast by persons who are not electors and by others who were not registered, and that many votes were counted for said Byron A. Snow wrongfully and illegally, and that many votes legally cast for your petitioner were not counted for him by said several boards of election inspectors, and that such fraud, illegality, and error in the conduct of said election and in permitting persons who are not electors, and who are not registered, occurred in the townships, wards, and polling precincts in said district hereinafter named, that is to say:

In the townships of Birch Run, Buena Vista, Brant, Chapin, Carrollton, Frankenmuth, Fremont, James, Jonesfield, Kochville, Lakefield, Richland, Saginaw, Spaulding, Thomastown and Taymouth, and also in the wards of the city of Saginaw to wit: in the first ward, the fourth ward, the eleventh ward, the fourteenth ward and the fifteenth ward.

Your petitioner charges upon information and belief that in each of said townships, wards, and voting precincts, many persons who voted at said election were assisted in the marking of their tickets by the members of the board of election inspectors and by other persons without said voters being first sworn that they could not read English or that because of physical disability they were unable to mark their tickets themselves, said voters being persons whose disability, if any existed, was not manifest to said election inspectors. And that in said several townships, wards and voting precincts, persons adverse to the interest and election of your petitioner were allowed to be and remain inside of the railing erected in said polling place during the greater portion of the day and to converse with the voters and influence them after they had secured their ballots and before the same were deposited in the ballot boxes, and that in each of the said several townships, wards and voting precincts some of the members of the said boards of election inspectors instructed and permitted others to instruct a large number of voters how to mark their tickets without such assistance or instruction having been first requested by such voters, and that in many instances said members of said election board and other persons went into the booths with the electors and wrongfully and illegally influenced them in selecting their tickets and the persons for whom they voted, and that in consequence thereof, a large number of voters in said several townships, wards and polling precincts exposed their tickets to the view of others after they were marked, in violation of law.

Your petitioner further represents that in said township of Birch Run in addition to the other irregularities and illegal practices hereinbefore mentioned, that the said election board of said township neglected to prepare any ballot box within which to deposit the ballots when the ballots were received after being marked by the voters, instead of being placed by said election board in a proper and legally prepared ballot box having a lock and key, and which could be securely closed and sealed, they were placed by said board in a common box which had been prepared and used for the shipment of bird-seed, and which had neither lock nor key, and the bottom and top to which were insecurely fastened on with small wire nails, and in no other manner, and said election board with respect thereto acted in entire disregard of the safeguards provided by law securing the ballots cast by the electors of said township.

Your petitioner further represents that in each of said several townships, wards, and voting precincts, persons who were not members of said board of election inspectors were permitted to assist in the counting of the ballots and that instead of each member of said boards counting and inspecting all of the tickets, they individually and severally counted and inspected only a part and parcel of the ballots cast, and in that way acted without check upon each other's inspection and count and by reason thereof made many mistakes and omissions and counted many votes for said Snow when the voter's choice was not expressed by marking his ticket in the manner the law provides and requires.

Your petitioner further represents that in addition to the illegal conduct and irregularities hereinbefore referred to respecting the election held in the township of Frankenmuth that said election was held in their township hall which was partitioned off by solid walls into three rooms and that the larger room was divided by a railing extending from one side to the other; that within said larger room, but within the railing and about two and one-half feet therefrom were the booths which were constructed with doors on each side thereof, one opening towards the railing and one on the opposite side; that the board of election inspectors and the ballot boxes were in one of said other rooms and the ballots were handed out through a small window about two feet in diameter and when marked were again returned through said window and the ballots if deposited in the ballot box, were not so deposited in the presence of the voters. And when said board of election inspectors counted and canvassed the ballots at the close of said election, said window was closed and the public entirely excluded from the presence of said board during the time of such counting and canvassing of said ballots. And that during the entire day there was posted up upon the walls within the polling place a large placard with instructions thereon to the voters to vote the silver ticket. Your petitioner further represents that a like placard was posted up within and on the polling place in said several other townships, wards, and voting precincts.

Your petitioner further represents that in several of said townships, wards and voting precincts the gate keeper appointed by said board to attend the gates in the railing erected through said polling places, in violation of law conversed with the voters as they passed in through said gates and urged them to vote said Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket.

Your petitioner further represents that in several of said townships, wards and voting precincts, and particularly in the township of Brant, the inspector of election designated by said board of election inspectors to distribute the tickets to the voters, several times during the day and while said polls were open and for a considerable period of time gave the ballots to the challenger of the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver party and absented himself from said polling place and said challenger was permitted by said boards of election inspectors to distribute the ballots to the voters.

Your petitioner further represents that in many of said townships, wards and voting precincts, and in each of them, a large number of persons were illegally registered upon the registration day next before said election who were permitted to vote in said several townships, wards and voting precincts at said election, and whose illegal registration was known to said election boards and a large number of persons upon said registration day were registered by proxy and from places of residences named by them which do not exist in fact, and such persons were also permitted to vote.

Your petitioner further represents that many persons were permitted to register in several townships, wards and voting precincts upon said election day and to vote at said election without having been first sworn as the law provides they should be. Your petitioner further represents that in said several polling places in the townships, wards and voting precincts hereinbefore mentioned and in close proximity to the booths therein many persons were permitted to discuss and advocate openly and urge the voters there present to vote said Democratic-People's-Union-Silver ticket during the greater portion of said election day.

Your petitioner further represents that in the several townships, wards and voting precincts of said district many tickets were counted for the Democratic-People's-Union-Silver party, and consequently for said Byron A. Snow, which bore distinguishing marks, which should not have been counted for any candidate.

Your petitioner respectfully shows that according to the provisions of Sec. 5, Art. VIII, of the constitution of the State of Michigan, in consideration of the premises belonging and by right ought to be exercised by the legislature in joint convention, and therefore your petitioner being remedyless, except before your honorable body, therefore, in consideration of the premises, prays that an investigation of said matters be had and the correctness of said final determination of the said State Board of Canvassers be determined as to your honorable body may seem proper and just under the constitution and laws of this State, and that your petitioner may be declared elected circuit judge to fill vacancy of the said 10th judicial circuit for the term expiring January 1, 1900, and your petitioner will ever pray.

On demand of Mr. Crippen,

The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

We, the undersigned, residents and citizens of Dickinson county, Michigan, hereby petition your honorable body, that no change be made in the present game law relating to deer, except that the sale of venison be prohibited for the term of three years. Experience has taught us that the only way to fully protect deer is to prohibit the sale of venison. Our county, we think, contains more deer than any other county in the State and we have had more and better opportunities than others to see the workings of the law as it now stands. Practically no does are killed under this law, but if a change is made to October, does will be killed in greater quantities than bucks, as they do not seek shelter until their running season is over, which is about the first of November. Pot hunters find a ready market for venison, and no trouble to avoid even the present law, as it does not prohibit the sale of the deer lawfully and unlawfully killed by them. If they and every other person are prohibited from selling, they will soon lose all interest in killing, and by this means only can deer be fully and fairly protected by law.

Referred to the committee on Fisheries and Game.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 128. By Mr. Van Camp: Petition of numerous citizens of Benton Harbor asking for some efficient protection from empiricism and quackery,

On demand of Mr. Van Camp,

The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled:

We, the undersigned, citizens and taxpayers of the town of Benton Harbor, county of Berrien, most respectfully petition your honorable body to pass some efficient law for the protection of the citizens of this State from empiricism and quackery. For this purpose we believe a board for examination and registration in medicine, consisting of six or more members, should be established, to be appointed from among the best educated and most scientific physicians of the State, whose duty it shall be to examine as to the qualifications of all future candidates, and reject all who are not qualified for the duties of physicians, and to grant licenses to all applicants who are found sufficiently qualified. It being against the policy of this government to recognize sects in making appointments for public service, we believe such a board should be non-sectarian, and we remonstrate against the passage of any bill for the above purpose which specifies any particular school or pathy. We believe the simple title of Doctor of Medicine is broad enough to cover all the different theories in medicine, and while adherence to any particular system should not be a barrier to an appointment no preference should be shown on that account, and the persons chosen to act on this board should not be selected as representatives of a sect, but because of their pre-eminence in the medical sciences, and their upright character as citizens.

We believe such a law would be retroactive as regards those practitioners that have been driven from other states by the operation of a similar law, and who are now engaged in medical practice in this commonwealth. We believe that no good government should ignore the importance of the healing art, or fail to protect its citizens from the imposition of quackery. If it is made a felony to forge a bill of exchange, it ought to be made equally a crime to forge a medical title, and with it impose upon the credulity of the sick and afflicted. We believe, further, that legislation in Michigan has been remiss in this respect, and that failure to pass a proper law for the protection of the people is the reason why this State is so overrun with quacks who have been driven from other states where a more enlightened policy has prevailed. We believe that such legislation in this State has been prevented by certain sectarian practitioners who have opposed legislation unless they could have absolute control of medical examinations and the licensing of candidates.

We believe that the long suffering of the people in this matter should cease, and that it is the duty of your honorable body to take this matter in hand and decide yourselves what enactment is necessary for the protection of the people, and without waiting further, to ignore the claims of sectarianism and appoint such men on the medical board as are best qualified to perform the duties of such an important office.

Referred to the committee on Public Health.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 139. By Mr. Sawyer: Petition of druggists of Ann Arbor relative to proposed legislation.

On demand of Mr. Sawyer,
The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal as follows:

We, the druggists of Ann Arbor, are opposed to the bill before the legislature, known as the House bill No. 66, to amend the pharmacy law so that all physicians may be registered as pharmacists without an examination. We oppose this because we do not think it is a wise move for the people. The law as it now stands allows the physician to dispense his own medicines. The requirements of the Michigan Board of Pharmacy for granting registered pharmacist certificates is nothing more than every man that is practicing medicine should know, if he is well posted in his profession. We do not see the necessity of changing the law in this respect. The expense for taking the examination is very light, and as mentioned before, any person well versed in the medical profession would find no trouble passing the board's requirements.

GENERAL ORDER.

On motion of Mr. Graham,

The House went into committee of the whole, on the general order, whereupon

The Speaker called Mr. Perry to the chair.

The committee of the whole have had under consideration the following:

1. House bill No. 148 (file No. 41), entitled

A bill to amend Sec. 2 of an act entitled "An act to authorize the board of control to transfer the St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal, with the property belonging to the same to the United States," the same act being No. 17 of the session laws of 1881, approved March 3, 1881, so that said section as amended shall authorize and direct said board of control to transfer all moneys remaining in the canal fund to the United States in the consideration of the construction, by the United States, of a marine hospital for the use and benefit of sick or disabled seamen; said section so amended being compiler's section No. 5504 of Howell's annotated statutes.

The speaker announced that the proper entry would be made in the Journal to correct the error.

The following officers and employes joined in the present:

Which motion,

Pending discussion, was withdrawn.

Mr. Sawyer moved that a committee of three be appointed to act with a like committee of the Senate as a committee of conference in regard to the sending out of the Legislative Journal;

Which motion prevailed.

The Speaker announced as such committee, Messrs. Sawyer, Chamberlain and Foote.

Mr. C. C. Phillips moved that the House take a recess until 7:30 o'clock this evening;

On demand of Mr. Oberdorffer,

The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled:

We, the undersigned, citizens and taxpayers of the county of Menominee, most respectfully petition your honorable body to pass some efficient law for the protection of the citizens of this State from empiricism and quackery. For this purpose we believe a board of examination and registration in medicine, consisting of six or more members, should be established, to be appointed from among the best educated and most scientific physicians of the State, whose duty it shall be to examine as to the qualifications of all future candidates, and reject all who are not qualified for the duties of physicians, and to grant licenses to all applicants who are found sufficiently qualified. It being against the policy of this government to recognize sects in making appointments for public service, we believe such a board should be non-sectarian, and we remonstrate against the passage of any bill for the above purpose which specifies any particular school or pathy. We believe the simple title of Doctor of Medicine is broad enough to cover all the different theories in medicine, and while adherence to any particular system should not be a barrier to an appointment no preference should be shown on that account, and the persons chosen to act on this board should not be selected as representatives of a sect, but because of their pre-eminence in the medical sciences, and their upright character as citizens.

We believe such a law would be retroactive as regards those practitioners that have been driven from other states by the operation of a similar law, and who are now engaged in medical practice in this commonwealth. We believe that no good government should ignore the importance of the healing art, or fail to protect its citizens from the imposition of quackery. If it is made a felony to forge a bill of exchange, it ought to be made equally a crime to forge a medical title, and with it impose upon the credulity of the sick and afflicted. We believe, further, that legislation in Michigan has been remiss in this respect, and that failure to pass a proper law for the protection of the people is the reason why this State is so overrun with quacks who have been driven from other states where a more enlightened policy has prevailed. We believe that such legislation in this State has been prevented by certain sectarian practitioners who have opposed legislation unless they could have absolute control of medical examinations and the licensing of candidates.

We believe that the long suffering of the people in this matter should cease, and that it is the duty of your honorable body to take this matter in hand and decide yourselves what enactment is necessary for the protection of the people, and without waiting further, to ignore the claims of sectarianism and appoint such men on the medical board as are best qualified to perform the duties of such an important office.

Referred to the committee on Public Health.

No. 166. By Mr. Peek: Petition of Dr. F. W. Main and 30 other prominent citizens of Jackson favoring the establishment of a board for examination and registration in medicine.

Referred to the committee on Public Health.

No. 167. By Mr. Peek: Petition of "The Tourist Club," 47 members, of Jackson, asking the passage of House bill No. 72.

Referred to the committee on State Affairs.

No. 168. By Mr. Peek: Petition of "The Mosaic Club" of Jackson, 39 members, asking the passage of House bill No. 72.

Referred to the committee on State Affairs.

No. 169. By Mr. O'Dett: Petition of Wales Farmers' Club, asking the passage of House bill No. 198, relative to county salaries.

On demand of Mr. O'Dett,

The petition was read at length and spread at large on the Journal as follows:

At a meeting of the Wales' Farmers' Club the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Wales Farmers' Club, believe that the bill introduced in the present legislature, "providing that all county officers receive a stated salary, and that all fees collected by said officers be turned into the county treasury," is in the interest of all taxpayers; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the desire of this club that our Representatives use their influence and vote for the passage of said bill; be it furthermore

Resolved, That the committee on resolutions be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to each of the Representatives from St. Clair county.

James Dunning.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Lansing, February 18, 1897.

To the Honorable, the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Dear Sir—I have the honor to transmit to you herewith a copy of my letter to Prof. E. F. Johnson, of the Law Department of the University of Michigan, and a report of the gentlemen whom I appointed as judges in the matter of awarding a prize of $25 to the law student of the University of Michigan who would, after careful research, prepare the largest list of obsolete laws on the statute books of the State of Michigan.

The letter and the report of the judges, Hon. James H. Pound and Judge Frazer, both of Detroit, explain themselves, and I submit the report to you for such action as you deem advisable to take.

(Copy.)

Respectfully,

H. S. Pingree,
Governor.

Prof. E. F. Johnson, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.:

My Dear Sir—I have notified President Angell that I would write you offering a prize of $25 to be paid to the student of the law department who would point out the greatest number of inoperative or dead-letter laws on the statute books of the State of Michigan. These reports to be made in writing and should be as brief as possible. My object is to have attention called to the laws that have never been enforced, or laws without any penalty clause which cannot be enforced. I have requested Hon. Robert E. Frazer, Wayne county circuit judge, and James Pound, Esq., of the Detroit bar, to act as judges.

If you will kindly present this matter to the students of the university, I will be very much obliged. This offer will be open until the 28th day of December, 1896.

Yours very respectfully,

To the Hon. H. S. Pingree:

The undersigned, your appointees to pass in judgment upon the work of the law students submitted to us, beg leave to report that we have examined the work of the young gentlemen and desire to compliment them for their diligence.

We have taken no note of repealed and superseded laws to be found upon our statute books, being assured a new compilation is only necessary to clear away the debris.

Neither have we entered into questions of the past failure to enforce the laws, which is due to the failure of the officers or courts to do their duty.

Again, where the law is good in its moral effect, although not rigidly enforced, we have sustained the law. As for example the law in reference to children being allowed under 17 to purchase cigarettes. We believe it to be a wholesome one. This is also true as to their employment. While not strictly enforced it is, we believe, salutary, and should stand. Laws condemning the sale of drugs to cause miscarriage and abortions are of this class. In short we have sustained the efficacy of the law wherever we could.

Again, one young gentleman cited to us a number of acts for the authorization of numerous fraternal societies, which we agree could all be covered in one short general act. But we deem that outside the scope of our duty—the laws as now upon the statute books effectuate the purpose for which they were passed, and that is sufficient to uphold them in our judgment.

We have numbered the work of each student alphabetically and after giving each a thorough examination. The work on each section being noted on the margin with the letter S which means should not be disturbed and should stand C for credit. The laws so designated being within the object of the Governor and repeal being of no consequence as we view them.

The work of the student marked A shows us 427 sections we think should stand, 34 which should be repealed.

The work of the student marked B shows us 207 sections which should stand, 33 which should be repealed.

The work of the student marked C shows us 90 that should stand, 40 that should be repealed.

The work of the student marked D shows us 132 which should stand, 32 that should be repealed.

The work of the student marked E shows us 57 which in our judgment should stand, 24 which in our judgment should be repealed.

The work of the student marked F shows us 22 which in our judgment should stand, 39 which in our judgment should be repealed.

The work of the law student marked G shows us 64 laws which should stand, 32 which should be repealed, 851 which are already repealed.

The work of the law student marked H shows us 79 laws which should stand, 39 which should be repealed.

From the foregoing it would appear that the student whose work is marked C wins the prize, Mr. Theo. T. Jacobs, although the work of Mr. Carl V. Wisner is so compact and Mr. Dancer but one behind, that if the judges had any discretion they would feel like dividing.

Still, under the conditions mentioned in the Governor's letter which we attach, we think the prize goes to Mr. Jacobs. We making honorable mention of Mr. Carl V. Wisner and Mr. Herbert A. Dancer, whose work is almost as good and whose percentage of law quoted probably greater than the winner.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

James H. Pound,
R. E. Frazer.

I desire to call your attention to a few statutes which impose ministerial duties upon officers. The list is by no means complete, but I only design it to be illustrative of a general proposition. The sufficiency of the execution of the laws is dependent upon the efficiency of the officers.

The laws should be adopted to the improvement of the temperment and should reflect these habits and customs.

As soon as they cease to be observed or executed there is evidence of a departure of the rule.

But, however well the laws may be suited to the endemic traits of the people they are all worthless if the officers charged with their enforcement, neglect or refuse to act.

The coordinate departments are very properly supreme in their own spheres; but there are many duties of a strictly ministerial character imposed upon them which can only be reached through the agency of mandamus.

In some instances, as in the case of the Governor in this State, mandamus will not lie in the great majority of cases. Mandamus is the only adequate remedy to remove a delinquent officer to action. In some cases in the statutes penalties are attached where there is non-feasance in other cases. Penal bonds are required which shall be forfeited if there is a failure to perform prescribed duties; but this latter is not a feasible instrument from the fact that it is too harsh and will for that reason not accomplish the desired purpose.

In our statutes there is nothing to compel a person elected to an office to qualify as in common law, except in a few instances. Difficulty has never arisen in this State over these matters, the fact that it may arise and has arisen in other States is sufficient to point out the weakness.

It is frequently too difficult to distinguish mandatory productory provisions, and judicial and executive duties from those which are ministerial and the chief defect in the statutes upon the executive of the expressed will of the people is the duties and penalties all not correlative.

CARL V. WISNER,
 28 N. State St., Ann Arbor, Mich.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN,
 Ann Arbor, January 19.

Hon. Robert E. Frazer, Hon. James Pound:

Dear Sirs—I herewith inclose a list of inoperative laws of Michigan, compiled in accordance with Governor Pingree's expressed purpose in offering a prize for the largest number of such laws from a student of this university. Those laws which may be inoperative at various times and in various localities, owing to the failure of the individual officers to enforce them, have been omitted. A large number of such laws might be given, but I believe that Governor Pingree desires only such mandatory statutes as are generally inoperative, and that only such will be considered by the judges.

Very truly,
 Herbert A. Dancer.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS,

Being the consideration of the following:

WHEREAS, Large sums of money are annually appropriated and used by the various institutions of this State to carry on their running expenses and a large portion of the money being used in the purchasing of supplies, it is apparent that no satisfactory system exists whereby the people and taxpayers of this State are informed as to how purchases are made. It is also charged that in the matter of purchases Michigan people are discriminated against and that higher prices are paid for supplies than would be if a proper system were inaugurated; therefore be it

Resolved by the House (the Senate concurring), That a joint committee be appointed to consist of five members from the House and three members from the Senate to be appointed by the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate for the purpose of investigating the matter of purchases by the various institutions of this State for the past four years; and

Resolved, That the officers and purchasing agents of the various State institutions be and are hereby required to give full information on any matter pertaining to purchase by them that may be required by the committee; and

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to send for persons and papers;

Concurrent resolution requesting the Attorney General to proceed against certain gravel and plank road companies or corporations.

WHEREAS, It appears to the satisfaction of the Senate and House of Representatives that a number of gravel and plank road companies of this State have not complied with the provisions of the laws under which they are incorporated; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that by such violation they have forfeited their charters and the right to exact toll: therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Attorney General is hereby authorized and instructed to receive all complaints that may be made to him relative to such alleged violations and to make an examination himself; and if, after such hearings and investigations, he is satisfied that such corporations have forfeited their charters and their corporate privileges, and franchises, by neglecting or refusing to comply with the terms of the acts under which they were incorporated, then, and in such case, he, with such assistance or assistants as may be necessary, shall institute such proceedings in the courts of this State as shall be suitable in the premises, and as he shall deem necessary to cause such charters forfeited, and to protect the interests of the people of the State of Michigan. All necessary expenses shall be paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers by warrant of the Auditor General on the State Treasurer on any moneys therein not otherwise appropriated;

Laid over one day under the rules.

Mr. Goodell, by unanimous consent, offered the following:

WHEREAS: The cost of the necessities of life has within the past decade been greatly diminished by depreciation in the price of the product of the toil of the farmer and the mechanic and;

WHEREAS, Our citizens are thereby enabled to purchase a greater proportion of the necessities and luxuries of life at a less expenditure of money than heretofore, therefore be it,

Resolved: That a committee of three be appointed by the Speaker of the House, for the purpose of preparing and submitting for the information of the members of the Legislature a detailed and complete report of the names, employment and salary of every person in the employ of the State whose rate of compensation is equal to or in excess of $800 per annum, that such report be submitted within 15 days from the date of the appointment of the said committee and that they are hereby authorized to expend not more than $15 in receiving such information;

No. 221. By Mr. Sawyer: Communication from Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, relative to the University Hospital.

On demand of Mr. Sawyer,

The communication was read at length and spread at large on the Journal, as follows:

THE VALUE OF THE UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL TO THE STATE.

The University hospital is one of the most practical of the charitable institutions of this State. This hospital is generally looked upon as merely an adjunct to the medical department. It is true that the patients in the hospital are of great service in the education of medical students, but the hospital has another and possibly a more important relation to the people of the State.

In this hospital, the deserving poor of the State receive skilled aid in various forms of illness. It has been repeatedly demonstrated that a hospital used for the instruction of students also gives the best services to its patients. The incentive to the medical staff to do the best and to keep everything in a model condition, is increased by the presence of students. Thus, the University hospital serves the double purpose of giving instruction to students and of aiding in the relief of the suffering poor. The present building was first occupied in 1891. It was constructed and equipped at a cost of about $75,000, of which the people of Ann Arbor contributed about one-third. Ever since it was opened, it has been overcrowded with patients, and the demand for admission has been so great that only a little more than one-half the applicants could be accommodated in the hospital. By overcrowding, nearly 80 patients have been taken care of at one time. The building is so small and inadequate that patients with all kinds of diseases often have to be crowded into the same room. It not infrequently happens that a patient who has just undergone some important operation can find a bed only in the general ward. Desired privacy and needed comfort cannot in all cases be secured. There should be an isolation ward for communicable diseases, for while such cases are not accepted, such diseases may and sometimes do break out among the inmates, and at present there is no provision for their isolation. There should also be a ward for repulsive cases. It cannot conduce to the cure of a nervous patient to have constantly before him a repulsive form of syphilitic disease.

The regents have been so cramped for money that they have felt themselves able to provide only twelve nurses to take care of all the patients. These nurses must do both the day and the night work. The nursing force is wholly inadequate, and should be doubled at least. The rule in the best equipped hospitals is to have one nurse for every three patients, and this gives one nurse to every six patients for day service, and an equal number for night service.

There is no day room for convalescents, and many of these must sit in the ward all day or walk about the narrow halls, getting an insufficient amount of exercise, air and light. A convalescing room should be built, and this could be done at a cost of not more than three or four thousand dollars. The hospital should be enlarged. There is no doubt that if it contained two hundred beds, all of them would soon be filled.

The regents have also felt compelled to close the hospital for three months of each year for the past two years. This has been rendered necessary by the lack of funds and by the desirability of temporarily vacating and cleaning the building, which, on account of the overcrowding, becomes foul, notwithstanding the most energetic attempts of the small number of attendants to keep everything clean.

The closing of the hospital for three months is a great misfortune. Many most distressing cases have applied for admission when the hospital was closed. A workman was wounded in the eye by a piece of steel, and another had his leg crushed. Telegrams were sent, asking that these be admitted to the hospital, but the only reply that could be made was that the hospital was closed on account of lack of funds. These are only illustrative cases, and they might be multiplied. Is it not the duty of the State to make provision for the care of such cases and be ready at any and all times to supply the sick and injured people with every help? Is it not inhuman to shut the doors of the hospital during one-fourth of each year? An appropriation of three thousand dollars would render this possible, and should this appropriation not be made at once?

The services of the medical staff are given to the hospital without any compensation additional to their University salaries.

It may be of interest to learn something of the class of people who avail themselves of the help afforded by the hospital. The patients are among the most deserving of the poor of the State. Most of them are able to pay the small fee of five dollars per week, charged them by the State for room and board, but they would not be able to pay for medical services. They are, for the most part at least, self-respecting, honest, worthy citizens of the State. Many of them are small taxpayers. Some would soon become inmates of the county houses, were not some means provided for the relief of their ailments. Some are already county charges and are sent by the superintendents of the poor, and for these, the county sending them pays the small fee already mentioned. When, on account of the nature of the trouble, a private room and a special nurse are required, the charge is necessarily greater; but, as has already been stated, the crowded condition of the hospital often renders the securing of a private room impossible. It should be stated in this connection that whether a patient has a private room or occupies a bed in the general ward is determined by the nature of the illness and not by the ability of willingness of the person or his friends to pay the greater fees.

The hospital is for the poor, not for the rich, and the governing body takes care that in this respect the object of the institution is attained. A large per cent of these patients leave the hospital cured or greatly improved. Many of those who, without skilled medical attention, would soon have become county charges, go home sufficiently improved to make their living and to take care of dependent members of their families. It is also true that many of those who are sent to the hospital as county charges go home able to support themselves. They retain their self-respect. They are removed from the pauper class, and good is done, not only to them, but to the communities in which they live. It is from the very nature of the case quite impossible to compute with any exactness the value in dollars to the citizens of the State of the work done in the hospital.

Some general statements may be made concerning the work done in the University hospital. During the five years ended July 1, 1896, 7,497 patients were treated. Of these, 6,235 have come from the smaller towns and farming communities. This shows that those who are not within easy access of skilled physicians and who cannot go to city hospitals, are the ones who are most largely benefitted by this hospital. Indeed, it may be said that the hospital is of the greatest benefit to the small farmer and to the day laborer from rural districts. These are the ones most in need of skilled medical help, and this need is supplied by the University hospital to the extent permitted by the very limited and inadequate revenues in the hands of the Board of Regents for that purpose.

During the past five years, 323 cataracts have been removed, and in more than 98 per cent of these sight was restored. Is it not worth something to the State to have more than 300 eyes restored to sight? If the sight of an eye is worth $500, this operation has alone within the past five years paid for the entire building and equipments twice. Besides the removal of the cataracts, 3,668 other operations have been made upon the eye during the past five years.

More than 1,600 patients have been treated by the professor of surgery. About 800 operations have been performed, and at least 250 of these have been capital, i. e., when life depended upon the operation. Of these, more than 225 have been successful. If each life is worth to the State $1,000, the surgical clinic in its capital operations alone has paid for the entire hospital plant three times.

A large number of deformed children have been fitted to make their living by the cure of club foot and other malformations. Many who were incapacitated for work by the existence of grave hernias have been cured by radical operations, after which they are able to return to the productive class. Others with strangulated hernias, threatening immediate death, have been saved by operation. Many tubercular joints have been cured. Epileptics have been rendered producers instead of being consumers only. Men invalided from the results of bad stricture, cases of stone in the bladder, those with suppurative diseases of the kidney, and the large numbers of men and women unfitted for work and rendered miserable by rectal diseases, such as fissures, hemorrhoids, fistula and stricture, have been cured or at least rendered capable of maintaining themselves and families for prolonged periods, instead of becoming charges upon the communities in which they live. More than 60 cases of appendicitis have been operated upon, and practically all of them would have died without this surgical aid. The average charge for this operation in private practice is $500. At this rate, the professor of surgery has rendered to the State by this operation alone $30,000 worth of surgical skill, in the past five years.

In the department devoted to the diseases of women, 722 cases have been treated, and 97 capital operations have been performed. The last includes the removal of tumors of various descriptions.

I have not taken into consideration the large numbers which have been treated by the professors of internal medicine, nervous diseases, and diseases of the skin. These, while often as important as those mentioned, are not so tangible, and the value of the treatment cannot so easily be computed.

Is not an institution that does this work and accomplishes this good, worthy of the support of the people? The cost to the individual taxpayer is so small that it can hardly be computed. The force of this can be appreciated when we remember that the cost of the maintenance of the whole University, every department included, amounts to only sixteen and two-third cents on every $1,000 of assessed valuation, and that the man who is assessed on $10,000 worth of property pays only one and two-thirds dollars annually for the support of the whole University.

There is certainly no other State institution that renders to the people greater service than does the University hospital. Its needs should appeal to both public and private charity. The State should at once assist it in its most pressing necessities, and the individual of wealth can build for himself no more worthy monument than that which might be erected by a contribution for another ward. If to heal the sick and to restore the deformed to the image of God are worthy deeds, then are the needs of this State hospital an opportunity for both the State and the individual to honor themselves.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

By the special committee appointed by the House of Representatives in the matter of the contested election between John Baird and James Kerr.

The undersigned members of the special committee to whom was referred the protest of John Baird, against administering the oath of office to James Kerr, as representative in the State Legislature, and against his admission to a seat in the House of Representatives, respectfully state that they have fully considered such protest, the answer of the respondent, and the testimony taken in the matter, and beg to hereby report as follows:

The said protest alleged that the official vote of the said James Kerr, as certified to by the board of county canvassers of the second legislative district of the county of Saginaw was 2,060 and that the official vote of the contestant was 1,989, showing a majority of 71 in favor of the former.

The protest alleges among other things that the contestant filed a petition in writing with the board of county canvassers of Saginaw county, at their meeting held subsequent to the general election of November 3d, 1896, and more than twenty-four hours before they adjourned, requesting a recount of the vote for representative in the second legislative district of Saginaw county, and that the board refused to make such recount on the ground that they had no power in the premises.

And it is further alleged by the contestant that there was fraud and illegality in the conduct of the election and in the counting of the votes cast for representative in several of the townships in said district, and claimed that on a proper counting he, the contestant, will be entitled to the certificate of election as representative to the State Legislature from said district.

Specifically, the contestant presented the following claims:

First—That in the township of Birch Run many persons unknown to the contestants who were not members of the board of election inspectors and who had no authority to act at the polls at said election, in said township, remained in the room of said polling place and entered booths with electors and influenced them as to the manner of preparing their ballots. That many electors in said township were instructed at said election how to cast their votes by some of the inspectors of election and their ballots marked by them, and many by the challengers, without said persons being duly sworn that they could not read English, or that, because of physical disability they could not mark their ballots, and that such disability, if any existed, was not made manifest to the inspectors. That many persons voted at said election in said township who were not entitled to vote, not being electors, and that many were allowed to vote who were not registered. That no suitable ballot box with lock and key, having an opening through the lid of size to admit a single closed ballot was provided by the township clerk for the reception of the ballots cast at said election. That a plain box which had been used by grocers for bird seed was used in said township at said election to receive the ballots cast by the electors at said election, that it was not furnished with any lock or key, and that for that reason the box was not examined as provided by section 7, act No. 190 of the laws of 1891, nor the safeguards therein provided against fraud complied with, and for the same reason the safeguards against fraud in case of adjournment could not be and were not carried out. That after the closing of the polls in said township at said election and the counting of the ballots contained in said box by the election inspectors, the ballots were not, for reason above stated, placed in a ballot box, securely sealed, and the instruction given in reference thereto in section 37 of said act No. 190 complied with.

The contestant claiming for the reasons given that the election in said township of Birch Run was entirely illegal and void and that the entire vote cast therein at said election should be rejected.

Second—That in the township of Frankenmuth many votes, to-wit, twenty-two, were cast for the contestant and were not counted for him. That while the returns of said township showed that the contestant received 140 votes in the said township there had actually been cast for him 162, and that Kerr had received but 254 votes in said township.

The undersigned members of your committee further report that at the time of the commencement of taking of testimony by your committee in the city of Saginaw, both parties gave notice that they desired not to be confined to the petition of the contestant which had been presented to the house and published in the legislative Journal of January 6, but that they desired to examine into not only the matters set up in the said petition, but also the re-counting of the ballots and the manner of conducting the election in several other townships of the district, and that after they had stated their respective claims, which appear in the record, your committee proceeded to the examination of the ballot boxes, their contents, the manner of receiving the votes, the conduct of the board, and others, regarding the election held upon November 3, last, in the townships of Frankenmuth, Birch Run, Buena Vista, Zilwaukee, Spalding, Taymouth, Maple Grove, Albee, Chesaning, Bloomfield, and Bridgeport, which compose the major part of said second legislative district of the county of Saginaw.

The undersigned members of your committee would further report that a large amount of testimony covering 612 type-written pages was taken upon the hearing of this matter in the county of Saginaw, all of which is herewith filed and to which reference is hereby made.

The undersigned members of your committee further report that in the township of Frankenmuth the election returns as made and canvassed by the commissioners show that 140 votes had been cast for Mr. Baird and 264 for Mr. Kerr. Upon a re-count of the ballots in that township your committee found that there was 160 votes cast for Mr. Baird and 247 for Mr. Kerr, making a gain for Mr. Baird of 27 votes. It appeared by the testimony of the officers of the election board in that township that at the election held therein on the 3d of November, 1896, there were many things done in the conduct of the election in that precinct that, in the judgment of the undersigned members of your committee, clearly invalidates the vote of that precinct. Reference is hereby made to the testimony of John Schluckbeir, John M. Liszt, and George L. Roedel, members of the said board. It appeared from the testimony that the board of inspectors were in a room separate from the rooms where the booths were, and that the actions of the board were not open to the view of the public; that access could not be had to that room by any person except the challengers, and the board of election inspectors, and that the ballots were not received in public as provided by statute.

At the request of the parties in interest your committee visited the polling places in the said township of Frankenmuth, on the 28th day of January, and found that the board of election inspectors had sat in an inner room 21½ feet by 10 feet 10 inches, which was separated from the part of the outer room behind a rail in which the booths were situated by a solid partition, through which there was one door, which door, it appears by the testimony of at least one witness, was locked during the time the votes were being received and canvassed; and an opening in the partition designated in the testimony as a window 4½ feet by 22 inches in size, and being 31 inches from the bottom of the opening to the top of the arch in the center, the top of which window was 5 feet and 10 inches from the floor; outside of this room in which the board received votes was another enclosure separated from the so-called town hall by a railing, and in which the booths were located, not opposite of, but to one side of said window. In the outer room, which was separated from the one last mentioned by a railing, your committee found upon the wall a poster, 32 by 21 inches, upon which was printed in large letters the words, "Free silver voters, the Bryan ticket is headed with this silver dollar. If you want to vote for Bryan and Brucker put a cross in a circle underneath the silver dollar, as shown above." And in the center of which was a circle 7 inches in diameter containing a picture supposedly of the late Mr. Bryan, around which was printed the words, "Democratic-People's Union Silver ticket," and underneath which was a circle containing a cross, which said poster is attached to the testimony herewith filed and marked exhibit "B," as is also a diagram of the town hall of Frankenmuth township already described and which is marked exhibit "A."

The testimony taken relative to the manner of conducting the election in the said Frankenmuth township also discloses that one Christ. Neuchterlein, who was not a member of the board of election inspectors, was designated by the board to instruct electors, and that throughout the day he did instruct a large number of voters, going within the railing at will throughout the whole time the polls were open, and conversed with voters after they had their ballots and before the same were deposited in the ballot box. It also appeared that Neuchterlein was a Democrat in politics and spoke the German language, and that he had an opportunity to talk with, and did talk with the electors continually, both within and without the railing with reference to how they should vote and for whom, and that the electors of this township for the most part spoke the German language.

It further appears that he instructed large numbers of voters and went into the booths with many of them and either marked their tickets or showed them how to mark their tickets, and that none of the voters so assisted were sworn as to their inability to mark their own ballots, and that with the greater majority of them no reason was assigned for their needing assistance nor was it shown that any of them had requested assistance in the marking and preparation of their ballots.

This appears to the undersigned members of your committee to have been a direct violation of sections 21 and 26 of the Public Acts of 1891, which provide that no person shall be allowed to be inside of the railing except to vote or to assist the elector in the preparation of his ballot as thereafter provided, and also prohibits any elector from exposing his ballot, and provides that his ballot shall not be counted if he does expose it to any other person except in the manner provided by the statute. And to the undersigned members of your committee this appears to be parallel with the case of Harwood vs. Stillson, 66 Northwestern Reporter, 388. In the case above cited the court says, that where mandatory provisions are disregarded, if the result would be thereby changed, the voter must sometimes be deprived of his vote, and also that the statute above cited was passed to correct evils of the former system, and the opportunity for bribery and corruption, and that the legislature intended that after its passage ballots should not be prepared by the voter or others before the elector reached the polling place, and that when he reached there he ought not to be annoyed by importunities or more potent influences calculated to prevent or affect his untrammelled action. The court in the above case also say that the possible loss of votes is not the greatest calamity that can follow improperly conducted elections, and that they are not credulous enough to believe that an election board was so ignorant as not to know that the law was transgressed by the course permitted in that case, and that unless they put a premium upon such conduct and invited its repetition throughout the State they must conclude that some of the voters must lose their votes through their offending officers.

And the court adds:

"The readiest way to stop fraud and corruption at election is to see to it that the same is not rewarded by success; and when, by the connivance and procurement of the election officers the law is in essential particulars disregarded so that candidates and voters lose the benefit of its protective provisions under circumstances well calculated to produce the belief that such conduct may have changed the result from what it otherwise would have been there is a great danger of wrong to the individual voter through counting, as excluding the vote of the precinct."

The reckless conduct of the inspectors of election in this township and the utter disregard of the plain requirements of the law, coupled with the fact that there were twenty votes not counted for the contestant which should have been counted for him, and seven votes counted for the contestee to which he was not entitled, convinces the undersigned members of this committee that this disregard was not a matter of inadvertence, but a willful disregard of the provisions of law, and that the entire vote of this township should be rejected, for the reasons cited above.

It is also disclosed by the testimony that in addition to the misconduct on the part of the election inspectors of the board of Frankenmuth township, that they did not permit the voters to see their ballots deposited in the box as the statute requires they should; neither did the board count the ballots in public, which the law also requires.

See section 26 of act No. 190, session laws of 1891, as amended by act No. 202, session laws of 1893, page 330, and section 36 of act No. 190, session laws of 1891, page 268.

The election returns from the township of Birch Run from the said legislative district showed that 174 votes had been counted for Mr. Baird and 210 for Mr. Kerr. The re-count made by the committee credited Mr. Baird with 174 votes and Mr. Kerr with 206.

Four members of the board of election inspectors, George E. Hammond, Leonard Alger, John E. Austin and George Sargeant were sworn and testified before your committee. The testimony discloses that a large number of voters were instructed at that precinct at the said election and ballots marked for them by unauthorized persons, and that none of the voters whose ballots were thus marked or who were so assisted were sworn as to their inability to prepare their own ballots, or that they had requested assistance, and that many of them after having received assistance in the preparation of their ballots exhibited the ballot, open, to sundry persons. The number of voters whose ballots were thus marked for them, or who were assisted and instructed in the marking of their ballots, is somewhat indefinite from the testimony, but the undersigned members of your committee believe a fair deduction from the evidence is that between twenty-five and thirty were so assisted.

The testimony also discloses that there were a large number of persons voted at this polling place who were not registered. An effort was made by Mr. Hammond, the Democratic supervisor and chairman of the board of election inspectors, at this precinct, to account for a portion of those whom it was charged had voted without being registered, the number having been placed at about 30 by the contestant, but there were between 12 and 15 names which, after a careful search of the register, he could not find, which he admitted were not upon the registration book. Of the number which he claimed to have found upon the register, which the contestant claimed were not registered, were several which had no similarity either in the sound of the pronunciation or in the appearance of the name with those appearing upon the poll list; but he insisted that they were probably meant for the persons whose names were upon the list, but his explanations in reference to those names were unsatisfactory to the undersigned members of your committee.

We call attention to the testimony of Mr. Hammond appearing upon pages 100 and 255 of the record.

The testimony discloses the fact that a small ballot box was placed in use at the opening of the polls of this precinct for the reception of ballots but that soon thereafter the board, discovering that it would be too small, opened the box while the ballots were being received from the voters, and the ballots were held in the hand of the supervisor, Hammond, retained by him until a member of the board went to a store near by and procured a small wooden box that had been used to contain bird seed, which box was so labeled on the outside, it having no hinges or lock, in one side of which a hole was cut and the tickets inserted. When this box was brought before the committee by the township clerk it was only sealed by a small piece of canvass pasted over the edge of one side and it appeared that one side of the box had been removed many times, but when your committee was unable to ascertain. The box had no lock, cover or hinges of any kind when brought before your committee and the testimony disclosed that in an election contest concerning the office of sheriff, held in the county of Saginaw since the election on November 3, last, the board refused to open the box or count the ballots, for the reason that the law had been entirely disregarded with reference to the furnishing of a proper ballot box, and the care and preservation of the ballots cast.

In McOrary on elections, section 540, we find the following: "The use of a hat or a cigar box instead of a ballot box, together with the fact that other than election officers passed near the boxes is held sufficient evidence of fraud to invalidate the vote of the precinct."

In the case of Attorney General vs. McQuade, the court said: "The provisions of the law prohibiting any one from entering the booths with an elector except those authorized by the statute and prohibiting an elector from displaying his ballot to any one except persons so authorized, must be held mandatory or else the purpose of the law is defeated, and the opportunities for fraud are increased rather than diminished." And also, "That when fraud on the part of the officers is established the poll will be rejected if it be impossible to purge it of the fraud."

It being the opinion of the undersigned members of your committee that no one should be allowed to disclose for whom he cast his ballot, and that, therefore, it would be impossible to ascertain for whom the illegal votes were cast, under the rules laid down by the authorities the entire vote of this precinct should be rejected.

In this same connection the undersigned members of your committee also cite Haffron vs. Mahoney, 24 Pacific Reporter, 93-5.

Paine on elections, p. 513.

This rule is also proved by the House of Representatives of this State, in the contested election of Davock vs. Rush, House Journal, volume 1 of 1893, pages 363 to 368.

It is explicitly laid down in 94 Michigan, page 441, already cited, that under our statute no unregistered person possesses the right to vote; and the votes of these unregistered voters are also to be rejected.

Where the frauds are of such character that the correct vote cannot be determined, their return will be rejected.

Attorney General vs. May, 99 Mich., 555.

In the above case the court say, "In the present case the inspectors and other officers of the various districts are not charged with active fraud but with marking ballots of those who claimed they could not read English without their having first made oath as to that fact."

But they held, nevertheless, "that it amounted to constructive fraud, and that the person receiving a majority on the face of the polls could not profit by such fraud."

Where 82 men from the Soldiers' Home voted, who were not legal voters, and as it was impossible to ascertain for which candidate they voted, it was held the vote of the precinct must be rejected.

People vs. Hannah, 98 Mich., 515-16.

The undersigned members of your committee are of the opinion that under the rule laid down in the case of Maynard vs. Stillson, 66 Northwestern Reporter, 389, already cited, and Attorney General vs. McQuade, 94 Mich., 439, the entire vote of the precinct of Birch Run should be rejected.

In the township of Spalding, a part of the second legislative district of Saginaw county, the return made by the election commissioners credits Mr. Baird with having received 65 votes; Mr. Kerr, 87. No recount was made of the ballots in the box in this precinct by your committee.

The testimony discloses the fact that Otto Ferchau, one of the members of the board, marked the tickets of a considerable number of electors, as near as could be ascertained between 15 and 25. That none of the electors who were assisted in the marking of their tickets, or whose tickets were marked for them by Mr. Ferchau, disclosed any disability under oath as required by law. Mr. Ferchau, as the testimony discloses, appeared to have acted voluntarily in assisting voters, and was not appointed or instructed by the board to assist in the preparation of ballots. Mr. Ferchau himself testified that he understood if any voter asked or desired his assistance it was his duty to help him mark his ticket, and he assisted all such who made such request of him.

The testimony discloses that there were challengers at this precinct and that one Peter Evon, who was a challenger for the silver party, but not a member of the board of election inspectors, saw all of the tickets which Mr. Ferchau assisted the electors to mark, and that no other person or challenger did see such tickets or the marking of them.

The testimony also discloses that at that polling place there were posted up within the room where the voters prepared their ballots and handed them to the inspectors, and within close proximity to the election booths, large placards, one with the familiar cut of the silver dollar upon it and containing a request for voters to vote for the silver ticket, and also a large red placard urging them to vote for Mr. James Kerr, the contestee in this matter, and that such placards were within the voting place during all the time the polls were open upon the election day of November 3 last.

The undersigned members of your committee therefore recommend that for the reasons above given the entire vote of the precinct of Spalding should be rejected, and call attention to the law and authorities already cited.

The return made by the inspectors of the township of Taymouth within the said second legislative district of Saginaw county of the election held on the third of November last credit Mr. Baird with having received 152 votes and Mr. Kerr 272. The re-count made by your committee credits Mr. Baird with 152 votes and Mr. Kerr with 255.

The testimony taken with reference to this township discloses that the manifest, and it would seem intentional disregard of the provisions of the statute governing elections upon the part of the election board and other parties connected with the election at this precinct was more flagrant than that at any other precinct inquired into by your committee.

Twenty witnesses were sworn from this township, including Pearly F. Becker, the supervisor; D. M. Hunter, justice of the peace; David Leach, clerk of the board of election, and others connected with the board.

It appears by the testimony of Joseph Phillips, David McNally and James McNally that a large number of voters' tickets were marked in this precinct by one James Morse, who was one of the inspectors of election. That none of the voters for whom such tickets were marked disclosed any inability to mark their own tickets and that few, if any, had any disability which would prevent them from marking their own tickets. The number so marked is indefinite, but the undersigned members of your committee believe the testimony warrants the statement that between 50 and 60 voters had their tickets so marked. Mr. Morse himself when upon the witness stand gave the names of 25 whom he so assisted and stated that there were several others whose names he did not recall; and that also during the campaign and election of 1896, he was an active worker in behalf of the silver ticket upon which the name of Mr. Kerr, the contestee, appears.

As to the manner in which Mr. Morse conducted himself in the voluntary assistance of voters, the undersigned members of your committee give herewith the testimony of one Peter Logan upon that subject.

Peter Logan, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINED BY MR. DAVIS:

Q. Do you live in the township of Taymouth?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you at the election on the third of November last?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state whether any person, when you went into the—or started to go in to prepare your ballot, asked you if you desired any assistance or not.

A. No, sir; I didn't.

Q. I asked you if any person asked you anything about that when you went in.

A. No, sir; there was nobody asked me anything about it; there was James Kerr, he stood at the door when I went in to vote; I looked my ticket over before I voted. He said there was a young fellow in there that needed some help, in case James Morse, Frank McNally—James Morse took my ticket and told me to vote a silver ticket and put the cross right on top there; I told him to wait a minute before I took my ticket back, and I marked it to a Q. You had been in the booth previous to the election took place, had you?

A. Yes; that was right in there.

Q. They didn't see your ticket then after you had

A. No, sir; I folded it up and voted—threw it in

Q. That was all the conversation that was had b

A. That was all.

Q. You say you went in the booth?

A. Yes; they came right in there.

Q. What did Mr. Morse say to you?

A. He asked me, he says: "If you want to vote your cross right at the top." I also told him I had made any request for assistance, Mr. Morse volunteered preparation of Mr. Wheaton's ballot.

Q. Had you made any marks on it previous to the

A. No, sir; I hadn't made any marks.

The testimony of one Daniel Wheaton, an Indian, is a fact that when he was about entering the booth and made any request for assistance, Mr. Morse volunteered preparation of Mr. Wheaton's ballot.

The testimony also shows that Mr. Morse assisted Blackmere, whom he claimed could not see without his glasses, the juror of the same township testified that Mr. Blackmere out his glasses, and that he saw him do so at his said election. Mr. Blackmere was not produced before the court to show that he was laboring under any disability, or to show any reason to mark his ticket.

It also appears from the testimony of Perley J. of the township and chairman of the board of elections when Mr. Morse was going into the booth after having Moore, he, Becker, called Morse's attention to the right to go into the booth until the voter was sworn to mark his own ticket, but that Morse paid no attention to Becker said.

The testimony of Mr. Becker shows that he was Moore could mark his own ticket without assistance.

In the petition of contest filed by Mr. Baird, or stated at the time of the framing of the issue just previous to the taking of testimony at Saginaw, it was charged that twenty-two persons who voted in this township were not attempt was made on the part of the contestee to show that were those of men whose names appear upon the poll list. Instead of David Catchem, No. 275 upon the poll list, the name of Stephen Katcham, which they claim was the party himself was not produced to show that he voted nor is there any evidence before your committee of two, other than the statement of the witness.

The name of John Eugene, number 326 upon the poll list to be intended for a man whose name was found on the list as John Iginaki, but the testimony of Albert Green and others, show that there is a John Eugene and also John they are two different persons. The name of George Howard, number 278 on the poll list, it was claimed, should be George Howell. George Howell was not produced to show that he voted there on election day.

Mike Leightner, number 76 upon the poll list, it was claimed should be Mike Linder, whose name appeared upon the registration book. The name of Oritski, number 171 upon the poll list, and contained in the contestant's list of names, was found to have been registered. A man by the name of David Ross was produced from that township who testified that Mike Haymaker, number 181 upon the poll list, was probably the same person whose name appeared upon the registration book as Mike Hemmeter, and he testified that he saw Hemmeter vote and thought the chairman of the board had called him Mike Haymaker. The chairman of the board, Mr. Becker, was present, but no attempt was made to show by him that he had made any such mistake, and the testimony of Ross is so unsatisfactory in view of the fact that Mike Hemmeter was not produced to show that he voted on that day, that it seems to the undersigned members of your committee to be conclusive against the contention that the two are identical.

The name given as Clarence Woodward, number 129 upon the poll list, was found upon comparison to be Wm. S. Woodward whose name appears upon the registration book.

After a strenuous effort having been made before your committee by the contestee to show that the list of names presented by the contestant of parties in this township who voted unregistered were upon the register, there were upwards of twenty who voted whose names could not be found upon the registration book and these votes, in the judgment of the undersigned members of your committee, were illegal.

The contestant also gave a list in his petition of seven names of persons who voted at that precinct who were marked "removed," on the registration book. Of these persons Alexander Jackson, number 359 upon the poll list, and James Tacklebury, number 61, were found to be properly upon the registration book and not marked "removed," leaving five illegal votes in that list.

Contestant also gives in his petition a list of the names of four persons who were allowed to register upon election day in that precinct and vote without their having been sworn as to their right to register. The evidence of the supervisor and other members of the board of inspectors, so far as inquired of, was to the effect that they had no recollection of any one being sworn or any oath being administered to them on that day at the polling place.

Charles McDonald, number 276 upon the poll list, of that precinct, was produced as a witness and stated that he was sworn as to his right to vote on that day, but in view of the evidence of the members of the board it appears to the undersigned members of your committee that this statement is very doubtful, so that there were four illegal votes received on that day from persons, illegally registered, making a total of twenty-nine votes thus received who were not on the registration book, or improperly registered at that precinct.

When the polls closed at that precinct on the evening of November third, instead of comparing the poll list and counting the ballots unopened and withdrawing the excess, if any, in the manner directed by law, the ballots were opened and then counted and the excess, two ballots, were taken out, the officers first seeing for whom they were cast, one having were spoiled tickets which it would have been necessary to reject in any event.

In addition to the authorities already cited by the undersigned members of your committee we desire to add the following: "It is unlawful for any inspector of election to assist in marking a ballot for any elector who claims to read English until such elector shall have first made oath to the fact as provided by section 32, of the act, and the requirement being mandatory, votes in violation thereof should not be counted."

Attorney General vs. May, 99 Mich., 539-59.

Very few and minor irregularities were found in the manner of taking and canvassing the vote in the township of Maple Grove, and a re-count of the votes cast in that township by your committee credited Mr. Baird with 138 votes, and Mr. Kerr with 230; whereas the vote returned by the board of inspectors of that precinct credits Mr. Baird with 138 votes and Mr. Kerr with 233.

The irregularities in the manner of conducting the election in that township were of such minor importance as to be, in the judgment of the undersigned members of your committee, unworthy of special comment or consideration.

In the township of Albee the return of the board of inspectors credits Mr. Baird with 99 votes and Mr. Kerr with 82; and a recount of the votes cast in that precinct by your committee credits Mr. Baird with 98 votes and Mr. Kerr with 82.

The testimony discloses that there were not over four voters assisted in the marking of their ballots in this precinct and that they were people who were known to the board personally to be unable to either read or write and they were not sworn as to their disability.

The re-count credits Mr. Baird with 316 and Mr. Kerr with 262.

The testimony discloses that the election in this precinct was conducted in close conformity to the provisions of the statutes and that three men, whose names were given, being Volker, C. A. Cantwell, and O'Dell, were assisted by H. J. Hopkins, one of the members of the board duly appointed for that purpose, who instructed them in the presence of the challengers, and it was shown conclusively by the board of inspectors on election day and before your committee upon the examination that the parties mentioned were all physically disabled from marking their own ballots.

One Mr. Groat was also assisted by the same inspector at this precinct and the testimony disclosed that he was a German and that all the members of the board had personal knowledge, after acquaintance with him for many years, that he could neither read nor write English, nor mark his ticket, and he was therefore assisted in the presence of the challengers without having been sworn as to his inability to mark his ballot.

One John Bennett was sworn for the contestee in reference to the manner of conducting the election at that precinct, but no new fact was developed from his testimony.

The testimony further disclosed with reference to this precinct that two persons were allowed to register on the day of election, that they were sworn according to the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided as to their right to vote and register, and the board unanimously decided that they were entitled to both register and vote, when their names were ordered placed upon the register and their ballots accepted and placed in the box.

One George Miller, whose name had been marked "removed," upon the register, voted upon that day and his vote was challenged for the reason that he had been marked "removed" upon the register. Under oath he satisfied the board that he had not removed, that he was and had been for many years a resident and citizen of the precinct, and his vote was accepted by the board.

In the township of Blumfield three members of the board testified before your committee, but no irregularities were discovered in the manner of conducting the election at that precinct, and by consent of both parties the vote was not recounted by your committee.

In the township of Bridgeport the board of inspectors returned 263 votes for Mr. Baird and 191 for Mr. Kerr. A recount of the ballots in that township by your committee credited Mr. Baird with 259 votes and Mr. Kerr with 184.

In this township Andrew Stacey, supervisor and chairman of the board, William Y. Baum, clerk, and John Leidline, and Isaac C. Simons, justice of the peace, all members of the board of inspectors, and also Dr. W. H. P. Benjamin, a challenger for the democratic silver party, were sworn and testified. The testimony disclosed that only two men were assisted to mark their ballots in that township and that both of these were nearly blind and in consequence unable to read or mark their tickets, and this fact was not only made manifest to the board at the time, but that also it was within the personal knowledge of each member of the board and had been for some time previous to the day of said election.

Also that another man by the name of Homer Pratt, who was suffering from rheumatism and unable to walk at all, was brought in upon a chair from which he could not be removed, and that therefore it was impossible to place him within a booth. That a chair was placed in a corner between a booth and the wall facing another wall so that one wall was in front of him and another at his right hand and the booth at his left. The inspector, Isaac C. Simon, and the challenger, Mr. Benjamin, stood immediately behind this chair to prevent any one seeing how he marked his ticket. That he marked his own ticket and that neither of the gentlemen near him saw him and could not have seen him from where they stood and in the position in which they were placed, and did not see his ticket until he had marked and folded it, when they carried him to the presence of the board where his ballot was received and deposited in the box.

An effort was made upon the part of the contestee to show for whom the illegal votes in Taymouth township had been cast, but following the indication made in the opinion by Mr. Justice Montgomery in Attorney General vs. May, 99 Mich., 557-8, and Maynard vs. Stillson, 66 Northwestern Reporter, 389, the undersigned members of your committee considered such testimony inadmissible, and an objection made by the attorney for the contestant to the admissibility of this evidence was held to be well taken.

The election law in force in this state prohibits any voter from disclosing to any person for whom he voted after he shall have marked his ballot, and provides that any ballot exhibited after the voter shall have placed his mark upon it shall not be received by the board of inspectors.

The undersigned members of your committee believe it is just as important that the electors shall be prevented from disclosing afterwards for whom he voted as from disclosing it on the day of election, if the purpose of the law is to prevent corrupt practices.

Mr. Justice Cooley laid down a true rule in reference to this matter in his work on Constitutional Limitation, second edition, pages 625-6, where he states the rule as follows: "When secret balloting is the policy of the law no one is at liberty to enquire how any elector has voted except as he may voluntarily have waived his privilege, and when consequently the avenues to correct information concerning the votes cast are carefully guarded against judicial explorations it seem exceedingly dangerous to permit any question to be raised upon this subject. For the evidence voluntarily given upon any such question will usually come from them less worthy of credit, who, if they have voted without legal right in order to elect particular candidates, will be equally ready to testify falsely if their testimony can be made to help the same candidates, especially when if they give evidence that they voted the opposing ticket, there can usually be no means, as they well know, of showing the evidence to be untrue."

The undersigned members of your committee believe that it would be very dangerous to permit persons to disclose upon any inquiry for whom they cast their votes. Such a proceeding would put it in the power of a person who did not succeed by his illegal vote in electing his candidate, to have him counted in by swearing that he voted for his opponent, and as is said in McCrary on Elections, section 450, in a quotation from the case of Cessna vs. Meyer, 42 Congress, where it is said that one could make his vote count double: First, by voting for his own candidate, and second, by asserting that he voted the other way, and so having his vote deducted from the party against whom he cast it. Such evidence was held inadmissible by the supreme court of Kentucky, 35 Southwestern Reporter, 543, and in Commonwealth vs. Barry, 38 Southwestern Reporter, 400. In those cases the court say, that if evidence can be allowed to be introduced in judicial proceedings showing how or for whom the party voted, it seems to us that one of the safeguards thrown around the voter will, to say the least, be weakened or injured. If he were permitted to so testify he could then be subjected to a moral compulsion from his party associates. And one party might obtain from a willing witness testimony which the other party would be powerless to rebut, because unable to compel a statement of the truth, and such would be the inevitable result if persons were permitted to disclose or not, as they should see fit, for whom they voted." The fact is, the public is interested in a matter of this kind and it is not solely an individual matter.

In Attorney General vs. McQuade, 94 Mich., 439, the court says, that "Whatever may have been the rule under former election laws" (having reference to the present election law in force in this State) "it is evident that under this statute, no voter can be compelled to remove the secrecy of his ballot and state how he voted."

In all cases to which reference is made, wherein it is stated that the deduction shall be proportionately made if the number of illegal votes cast for each can be ascertained, it presupposed a method of arriving at the fact as to how the parties voted, and such is the case with all persons who are in fact challenged, and it turns out that they are illegal voters, and such also is true with respect to those ballots upon which the name of the voter is written, as well as in some other instances.

But in considering the contention of the incumbent respecting the right to show how the unregistered persons voted because they were illegal votes, it must be remembered that he claimed that they were registered under a name spelled differently from that upon the poll list, and therefore under his own claim, it not being established that the votes were illegal, and under the rule that prevents a party from taking two positions which conflict with each other, he could not make the showing which he offered to make.

But the undersigned members of your committee believe that the question as to what ticket candidate or candidates these parties voted, is, in this instance, of no importance, for the reason that the evidence is overwhelming, that the conduct of the election in the townships of Frankenth, Birch Run, Spalding and Taymouth, was so illegal and fraudulent, and that they are so palpably a violation of the laws governing elections, that the whole vote returned therefrom should be rejected.

Maynard vs. Stillson, 66 Northwestern Reporter, 389.

The testimony discloses as already stated that in at least a part of the townships mentioned assistance was rendered by persons who were not members of the board of election inspectors and who were not selected and designated by the board for that purpose.

Upon a somewhat hasty investigation of the reports of the supreme courts of different states where the Australian ballot system is in use, the undersigned members of your committee discover that it seems to have been quite generally held that the provisions of law respecting the assistance of voters in the preparation of and marking their tickets are mandatory.

The court of Kentucky quoting from its statute, section 1,475, says, that it "requires the voter to take an oath of his disability before his ballot can be marked for him and deposited, and that it is mandatory, and that a ballot marked without his declaration on oath being made, is illegal and cannot be counted." The case was decided April 28, 1896.

Major vs. Barker, 35 Southwestern Reporter, 543.

And in the same case the court says, that the ballots marked by the clerk or in his presence, are shown to other persons, within the meaning of the prohibition of the statute.

The courts of California, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Dakota, and Indiana have held the same. In the latter state the supreme court so held in the case of Sego vs. Stoddard, 36 Northeastern Reporter, 204. We also cite, State vs. Gay, 60 Northwestern Reporter, 675, and Attorney General vs. McQuade, 94 Mich, 439, previously cited.

Attorney General vs. May, 99 Mich. 538.

Lankford vs. Gebhart, 32 Southwestern Reporter, 1,128 (Mo).

Nor is it any excuse that the party who was assisted was old and his eyesight dim so that he could not see to read without spectacles which he had forgotten to bring with him.

State vs. Gay, 10 Northwestern Reporter, 677 (Minn).

It appears to the undersigned members of your committee that the courts have held repeatedly that the entire vote returned from precincts should be rejected for fraud when it is impossible to separate the illegal votes so that it may be known how many legal votes they have held that when the election board marked, or marking of tickets in violation of law, or when they were not voters in the view of others, and the number thus illegally exhibited cannot be ascertained, that the entire vote of the precinct be rejected.

See Michigan cases already cited, 94-99. Also Woodcomb, 97 Mich., 361.

People vs. Hannah, 98 Mich., 515.

Russell vs. McDowell, 23 Pacific Reporter, 183 5 (Cal.)

An effort was made upon the part of the contestee, Mr. J. L. Albee, to show that the illegal conduct upon the part of election board in the townships of Albee, Chesaning, Blumfield, Bridgeport and Zilwaukee. No assistance was given in Blumfield, and as to each of the other townships who were assisted except one were laboring under physical disability which was manifest to the board, and no showing was made by any part of the contestees that the tickets of any of those assisted one of said townships were seen by any one, either when being marked or afterwards. And in any event the number assisted in each instance was made absolutely definite and that the rule of proportionate reduction as mentioned in Hannah, 98 Mich. 516, would apply.

But the undersigned members of your committee, believing the reasons above stated that the four townships above mentioned were excluded, make no report regarding a proportionate reduction should it be made, under the testimony taken by the committee in the opinion of the undersigned members of your committee a considerable majority in favor of the contestant.

It is endeavored upon the part of the contestee, Mr. Keister, to show that irregularities had been practiced by the board of election in the township of Zilwaukee, in that the names of two men were inserted upon election day.

The testimony taken before your committee disclosed that upon registration day the two men in question were working upon what is known as the Fifield and Munday farm, a very large tract of which, some 60 acres, is in the township of Zilwaukee, and the farm consisting of about 940 or 950 acres, and upon which the work was being done, was located in the township of Buena Vista, that therefore the two men in question were out of the township of Zilwaukee upon the day the board of registration was in session.

The testimony also disclosed that these two men had been told that the board of registration would be in session in the evening of registration day and had attempted to cross the river in a canoe, being the only method of reaching the place where the board of registration was in session without going around by Saginaw. It was also disclosed that the board of registration was not in session in the evening in question. Therefore upon election day these two men, under oath, stated the facts as above set forth as showing why they registered upon registration day, when, by a vote of the board unanimously adopted, the names were placed upon the register and they were permitted to and did vote.

Under the circumstances, and having in mind section 26, Act No. 202, laws of 1893, and the case of Wolcott vs. Holcomb, in the 97th, Mich. 361, it would have been improper for the board to have refused the receiving of the votes of these two men.

With reference to the actions of the board in the four townships mentioned specifically, Frankenmuth, Birch Run, Spalding and Taymouth, it may be urged that the boards acted in disregard of the law through ignorance; but the law presumes that the election board, as well as all other persons, know the law under which they are required to act, and that they intend the result of their acts.

United States vs. Carpenter, 41 Federal Reporter, 330.

Nor is it necessary to the establishment of their fraudulent conduct, or that they intended by such conduct to defeat Mr. Baird's election, to connect their illegal acts with any candidate.

Blue vs. Peter, 20 Pacific Reporter, 442 (Kas.).

The rule laid down by the text writers is as follows:

"When fraud upon the part of the officers of election is established, the poll will not be rejected unless it shall prove impossible to purge it of the fraud. When the result, as shown by the returns, is false and fraudulent, and it is impossible to ascertain the actual vote from the other evidence in the case, the vote of such poll must be wholly rejected."

Jones vs. Glidewell, 53 Ark., 161. 13 Southwestern Reporter, 723.

Blue vs. Peter, 40 Kan., 701. 20 Pacific Reporter, 442.

In Jones vs. Glidewell the entire vote was rejected because certain voters were intimidated by being compelled to either show their ballots or be ostracised by others. It is of far more consequence to the people of this State and to the stability of our form of government that these provisions should be held mandatory than is the fact that occasionally the will of the people may be defeated by adhering to them, and rejecting the entire precinct so tainted with fraud. Whatever may have been the rule under former election laws it is evident that under this statute no voter can be compelled or should be permitted to remove the secrecy of his ballot and State how he voted. If these provisions are held directory only, it follows that the intent of the people to pass a law to preserve the purity of elections is defeated, and the statute, instead, provides sure means to protect and cover up corruptions and venality.

The undersigned members of your committee charge no fraud upon the sitting member, Mr. Kerr; but we recognize the fact that it is of the highest importance that the integrity and purity of the ballot should be unswerving.

It has been the intention of many preceding legislatures of this State to enact such laws as will insure the purity of elections; that none but legal voters should be allowed to cast a ballot, and that strictly in the manner as is clearly and specifically pointed out by the statutes of this State, and have intended to throw around the elective franchise such safeguards as would insure the will of the people being carried out in strict compliance and conformity with the statutes of the State.

Many bills have been introduced and are now under consideration by the State legislature looking still further to maintaining the purity of elections and to guarding carefully and zealously the rights of the people of the State; and if this very commendable intention is to be carried into effect, it would seem it were high time the people of the State understood from the legislature, as well as from the courts, that at least some regard must be paid to the provisions of the statute governing the conduct of elections and the rights of the people therein and thereunder.

The undersigned members of your committee therefore respectfully recommend that the entire vote of the townships of Frankenmuth, Birch Run, Spalding and Taymouth be rejected, and that the vote thereby in the said second legislative district in the county of Saginaw be permitted to stand as shown by the election returns and as re-canvassed by your committee of the balance of the townships within said district as follows:

Buena Vista, Baird, 282; Kerr, 308.

Zilwaukee, Baird, 161; Kerr, 46.

Maple Grove, Baird, 138, Kerr, 230.

Albee, Baird, 98; Kerr, 82.

Chesaning, Baird, 316; Kerr, 262.

Bridgeport, Baird, 259; Kerr, 184.

Blumfield, Baird, 209; Kerr, 100.

Total, Baird, 1,463; Kerr, 1,212.

Being a majority in favor of Mr. Baird of 251 votes, and that the said John Baird be seated as a member of this House of Representatives as Representative from the second legislative district of Saginaw county.

And in conclusion the undersigned members of your committee recommend in addition to the above the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That John Baird is entitled to a seat in this House of Representatives from the second legislative district of Saginaw county, Michigan, the one now occupied by James Kerr.

F. C. Chamberlain,
W. R. Edgar,
J. H. Anderson.

The minority of the committee to whom was referred the protest and petition of John Baird, contesting the seat in the House of Representatives, now occupied by James Kerr, for the second district in the county of Saginaw, having heard the testimony and evidence given, and having duly considered the same, beg leave to submit the following minority report:

At the election held November 3, 1896, in the second district of Saginaw county, there were two candidates for representative in the State legislature, namely, James Kerr and John Baird. The result of the election as certified by the board of canvassers, shows that there were 4,049 votes in said district cast for the office of representative in the State legislature, and that there were cast for James Kerr for said office as shown by said return, 2,060 votes and for John Baird 1,989; that said Kerr had a majority in said district of 71 votes over said Baird.

In the second district of Saginaw county there are eleven voting precincts, as follows: Albee, Birch Run, Blumfield, Bridgeport, Buena Vista, Chesaning, Frankenmuth, Maple Grove, Spalding, Taymouth and Zilwaukee.

A large number of witnesses were produced and sworn before the committee by both the contestant and sitting member. In the township of Birch Run, there were three persons sworn, supervisor, clerk of the township, and the republican challenger. All agree that in said township a small number of electors were assisted in preparing their ballots, and that the assistance was given by a man appointed and sworn by the board of election inspectors for that purpose and that whatever instructions were given by the person so appointed was in the presence of both challengers and in each case exactly in accordance with the request of the elector. The republican challenger could only name seven persons that were assisted and his testimony shows that four of the seven persons were blind or nearly so.

An attempt was made by the contestant to show that a large number of electors voted in said township of Birch Run who were not registered, but the testimony discloses that by a careful comparison of the registration and poll lists it was found that the clerk of election had misspelled many of the names, and that nearly if not all of the names appearing on the poll list were registered.

The undersigned members of the committee find that no competent proof was offered by the contestant that there was a single elector who voted in said township of Birch Run who was not registered. The fact that so many names were misspelled demonstrates that the most convincing proof should be offered by the contestant before finding should be made that any elector voted in said precinct who was not registered. The following names which appear in the record and were taken from the registration and poll lists demonstrate the danger of such a finding: Michael Rinard for Michael Reinhart; Jerd Spears for Gered Spears; William Rowgt far Billy Rough.

The contestant contends that the entire vote in Birch Run should be rejected because a suitable ballot box was not used. While the box used in said precinct was not the most desirable, the record discloses the fact that the ballots were securely kept until they were canvassed at said election and the result declared. The result of the recount in said precinct as declared by the chairman of the committee, shows that 174 votes were cast for the contestant and 206 votes for the sitting member. The minority of the committee contend that four tickets were rejected which should have been counted for Mr. Kerr. Two of the four tickets rejected were marked at the head of the Silver and Democratic tickets, one at the head of the Silver and National and one at the head of the Prohibition, Silver, Democratic and National. Inasmuch as only one candidate for representative to the State legislature was voted for on each of said rejected ballots, we contend they should be counted for Mr. Kerr, making his total vote 210, as shown by the certificate of the board of canvassers. To ask that 384 electors should be disfranchised because of the few irregularities shown to exist in the township of Birch Run, would be to establish a rule that, if enforced, would disfranchise more than three-quarters of the electors in the State of Michigan. Both the Silver and Republican parties were represented by challengers. In every precinct in the representative district where any irregularities are charged and wherever any assistance was given it was in the presence of the challengers of both parties, and the will of the elector was in all cases, so far as the evidence discloses, carried out. There is not a scintilla of evidence in the record that shows that the contestant was deprived of a single vote by reason of any of the irregularities charged.

In the township of Frankenmuth three witnesses were produced and sworn before the committee being the supervisor, clerk and one other inspector of election. In this voting precinct, the minority of the committee find that the election was conducted in strict accordance with the letter of the law. An attempt was made by the contestant to show that many electors were assisted in marking their ballots, but the record discloses that the instructions given at said election were in a general way; that the assistance given was outside of the railing that includes the booths in the election hall and were similar to the instructions printed on the ballots, and whatever assistance was given in this way was by an elector sworn by the board for that purpose. Not a single voter was assisted in marking his ballot, except possibly one elector whom the chairman of the board testified was blind. Each party was represented by challengers who were present during the entire day, and if there was any intimidation or fraud in the manner of conducting said election there was no evidence laid before your committee to establish that fact. The Republican challenger who was appointed for the purpose of protecting the interest of the contestant as well as the other candidates on his party ticket was not produced and sworn before the committee, but it appears from the witnesses sworn that said challenger was present in the same room with the board of election inspectors during the entire time that the voting was in progress and during the time the votes were canvassed. In canvassing the votes in said township of Frankenmuth a clerical error was made which was discovered on the recount for the office of sheriff of said county of Saginaw. It was admitted by the contestant that it was a mere clerical error. No claim was made that the error was intentional or deliberate.

The election in said township was held at the township hall built by the citizens of Frankenmuth for the purpose of holding therein public meetings and elections. Your committee made a visit to the township of Frankenmuth to view the said town hall, and the minority of the committee find the same especially adapted to the purpose of holding elections therein. The majority of your committee contend that the entire vote of said township of Frankenmuth should be rejected. Such a finding is not supported by the law or evidence, and the minority of your committee contend that such action would be a flagrant violation of the rights of the sitting members.

If there was any fraud or the slightest irregularity in the manner of conducting the election in said township, we insist that before presuming the existence of such facts, the challenger who represented the Republican party should be produced and sworn before your committee.

The canvass of the votes in Frankenmuth as declared by the majority of the committee shows that John Baird, contestant, received 160 votes and James Kerr, sitting member, received 247 votes. The minority of the committee find that one ticket which was rejected by the majority should be counted for Mr. Kerr. This ticket was marked in the circle at the head of the Silver and Democratic ticket upon which there was but one candidate for the office of representative. We therefore find that James Kerr should be credited with 248 votes and John Baird with 160 votes.

In the township of Spalding the ballots were not canvassed by the committee. The ballot box was subpoenaed before the committee by the contestant but it was agreed that neither party desired the recanvass of the votes. The board of election inspectors of the said township of Spalding were all members of the Republican party. Four members of said board were produced and sworn before the committee. The only irregularities relied upon in said precinct was that some of the electors were assisted by one member of the board who was duly appointed and sworn for that purpose. Otto Ferchau, a member of the Republican party, was appointed for the purpose of assisting voters in marking their tickets. The record discloses that said Ferchau was also appointed by the Republican party to act as their challenger at said election and to see that the tickets were properly marked. While the different members of said board testified that there were from ten to twenty persons assisted in marking their ballots at said election, upon further inquiry they were only able to name four persons who received any assistance. If there was others assisted the minority of the committee have no knowledge of why they were assisted. The assistance, if any was given, might have been permissible under the statute. The affirmative of the question rests with the contestant.

The minority of your committee, in view of the fact that the board of election inspectors in said township of Spalding were members of the same political organization as the contestant, and from the further fact that the person appointed by said board to assist the voters in marking their tickets was the challenger of the same party, do not find that the contestant has suffered by reason of any irregularities committed by said board without some proof to show that the voters that were assisted did not exercise their choice. We therefore find that the return made by the canvassing board for the said township of Spalding should not be disturbed.

The petition of the contestant charges that in the township of Taymouth a large number of persons voted who were not registered and that a number of persons were assisted in marking their ballots. The board of election inspectors in the township of Taymouth were all members of the Republican party. On election morning, a man by the name of James W. Morse was appointed and sworn by the board to assist persons who were unable to mark their own ballots. It appears from the testimony of the person so appointed, that quite a large number of persons were given assistance in marking their tickets, but in each instance, the challengers of the Republican and Silver parties were present. Both challengers were sworn before your committee and testified that in each instance the tickets were marked exactly in accordance with the will of the voter. It further appears that many of the persons assisted had defective eyesight which disability was apparent to the board, and that others were old gentlemen who were unable to mark their ballots without assistance. It was also shown that a number of persons voted in said precinct who were not registered, but the claim was made by the contestee that none of the persons not registered who voted at said election voted for the sitting member. Mr. Kerr's residence is in the township of Taymouth, and it is claimed by him that being a candidate for office at said election; and being especially interested in the outcome of the election, he made a special effort to see that the members of his own party were registered on registration day. The persons who were not registered and voted at said election in the township of Taymouth, were subpoenaed before the committee by the sitting member, and he offered to show by them that they voted for the contestant. This evidence was ruled out by the chairman of the committee, claiming that it was incompetent for an elector to give testimony as to what candidate he voted for.

The undersigned members of the committee did not so understand the law and were willing that the witnesses subpoenaed by Mr. Kerr for that purpose be permitted to disclose that information. We are still of the same opinion and now contend that the testimony should have been received. There is no rule of law that would justify the committee in refusing to receive the proof after it was first shown that the votes cast were illegal, provided the voter was willing to give the information. The rule as laid down by McCrary on Elections, page 306, is as follows:

"A person who votes without being qualified is a mere intruder, and not entitled to the privileges which belong to legal voters, but such a person shall not be compelled to testify as to the person for whom he voted, until it is clearly shown that he voted illegally. So long as the question as to the legality of his vote is in doubt, he cannot be compelled to make the disclosure. An illegal voter may, however, decline to answer for whom he voted, on the ground that his answer might criminate himself, but in such case the contents of the ballot may be shown by other testimony and a legal voter may waive his privilege and voluntarily testify as to the person for whom he has voted.

"It is very clear that the rule, which, upon grounds of public policy, protects the legal voter against being compelled to disclose for whom he voted, does not protect a person who has voted illegally from making such disclosure. To give to that rule this wide scope, would be to make it shield alike the right and the wrong, the honest and the dishonest. It was intended to protect the inviolable secrecy of an honest ballot, and thus the purity of the ballot box. It was not intended to be used in the aid of the schemes of corrupt men to defeat the will of the people."

The attorneys for the contestant urged before the committee that our own court had held a number of times that an elector could not voluntarily disclose for whom he had voted, and cited the case of The People vs. Cicott, reported in the 16 Mich., as holding that doctrine. We find by examination of that case that it holds exactly the contrary doctrine. At page 313, Justice Christiancy, in a very ably written opinion, which is concurred in as to the question at issue by Justice Cooley, uses the following language: "But careful as the law has been to guard the secret of the elector's vote till he sees fit to disclose it, that secrecy is, it seems to me, in its nature and purpose a personal privilege only, and may be waived by the elector at his option. He may, if he sees fit, testify in court to the vote which he has given. The question of privilege becomes much more important when applied to the case of a voter whose qualifications are denied. It is clear that this privilege of secrecy is given only to those who are recognized by the constitution as electors. And whenever the person who has voted admits that he was not constitutionally qualified, or the fact clearly appears, so that it no longer remains a question for the jury, he can claim no protection from this privilege, but when his qualification is a disputed question of fact, which is determined by the jury in rendering their verdict, he cannot be compelled to disclose his vote."

We are unable to find that our own court has ever held that where a voter is willing to waive his right of secrecy, that the testimony of the contents of his ballot should not be received. We therefore contend that the sitting member should have been permitted to prove by the witnesses subpoenaed before your committee for whom they voted. If the proof had been received and the facts established as claimed, whatever votes were cast by unregistered voters should be deducted from the contestant's vote in the township of Taymouth, by thus ascertaining the number of illegal votes cast, and for whom they were cast. The vote in said precinct would be purged of all fraud or irregularity, and the remaining votes which would be legal, would be counted for the candidates for said office. The vote of an entire precinct should not be rejected unless it is impossible to separate the legal from the illegal votes.

In McCrary on Elections, page 325, we find this language: "The power to reject an entire poll, is certainly a dangerous power, and though it belongs to whatever tribunal has jurisdiction to pass upon the merits of a contestant election case, it should be exercised only in an extreme case, that is to say, a case that it is impossible to ascertain with reasonable certainty the true vote."

"Power to throw out the vote of an entire precinct should be exercised only under circumstances which demonstrate beyond reasonable doubt that there has been such disregard of law or such fraud, that is impossible to distinguish what votes were lawful and what were unlawful, or to arrive at any certain result whatever, or where the great body of the voters have been prevented from exercising their rights by violence or intimidation."

If, as the contestee claims, the votes cast by unregistered voters in said precinct were all cast for the contestant, it would seem to us a most unjust rule that would allow the contestant who received all the illegal votes to profit thereby. The sitting member was in no way responsible for any irregularities that have been shown to exist in said township of Taymouth, or any other township, and in the case of Lindstrom vs. the Board of Canvassers, 94 Mich., 469, the court recognize the following to be the rule:

"It may be stated, as a general rule, that the provisions of law relating to the manner of conducting elections will not be held so far mandatory as that a departure therefrom will result in the disfranchisement of a district or a class of voters, or the defeat of a candidate himself free from fraud, except in cases where the legislative intent that such departure shall have that effect is clearly, unequivocally expressed. This is a rule which has been applied in this State."

Inasmuch as there is no showing that the sitting member was in any way responsible for any irregularities and had subpoenaed the witnesses and offered the proof for the purpose of purging the election in said precinct from any fraud, but was not permitted to do so, we believe that a great injustice would be done by rejecting the entire voting precinct. There was no proof laid before the committee that the contestant was deprived of a single vote in said township of Taymouth, by reason of any irregularities in the manner of conducting said election. If it had been known on election day that the persons who presented their votes were not registered, they no doubt would have been challenged by the challenger representing the Silver party.

It appeared on the registration book of said precinct that the letter "R" was written opposite some names on said registration list, and it was claimed by the contestant that those persons were not registered for the reason that the letter "R" written opposite their names indicated that they had removed their residence from said township of Taymouth. The statute provides that "at every session of the board of registration in township or ward, after the year one thousand eight hundred fifty-nine, it shall be their duty to review the list of names in their register, and if it shall have come to their knowledge that any person whose name has been registered, has died, or has removed therefrom, and ceased to reside therein, they shall place the letter "D" against the name of the deceased person, and the letter "R" against the name of the person who has so removed, with the date of the entry, and the initials of the member making it, so as to show by whom and when made, and thereafter such names shall be considered and treated as no longer on the list, and shall be omitted in the copies above provided for. Opposite the names, which was claimed by the contestant to have been removed by the registration board, no date or initials appeared. The writing of the letter "R" opposite the names without the date and initials of the member of the board would not be such a compliance with the statute as to the remove the name from the registration list.

In the recanvass of the votes in said township of Taymouth, 152 votes were credited to Mr. Baird, and 265 to Mr. Kerr.

In the township of Buena Vista there is no proof that the election was not conducted in accordance with the law. Some testimony was given that a few of the voters were assisted, but it appeared that the instructions were given in a general way, and there is no evidence that any one was assisted in marking their ballots.

The ballots were canvassed by the committee, and Mr. Baird was credited with 282 votes, and Mr. Kerr with 308. The minority of the committee believe that three votes marked at the head of the Republican ticket should have been counted for the contestant, and three at the head of the silver ticket should have been counted for the sitting member. But as the majority in that precinct would be the same it would be immaterial whether those six ballots were counted or not. One ticket was counted for the contestant, the description of which appears on page 183 of the testimony. The minority of the committee contend that one ballot counted for the contestant should have been rejected. On one corner of the face of the ballot appeared several pencil marks describing an oval over one-half inch in diameter.

We therefore find that in said township of Buena Vista the contestant, Mr. Baird, should be credited with 281 votes and the sitting member with 308.

in the township of Maple Grove the ballots were canvassed against the protest of the sitting member, who claimed that the ballot box was not properly kept to preserve the integrity of the ballots. On pages 478 and 479 of the testimony the box is described by the chairman of the committee as follows:

"The box is a pine box, made of plain lumber about 18 inches by two feet and probably 18 to 20 inches high. The cover is made to slide out of one end, fastened with a key lock, operated by a key, over the key hole of which there is a piece of canvass, sealed upon the upper end with glue, and at the lower end, presumably over the key hole, by some red sealing wax. The impression of only a very few letters of the seal is left upon the wax, which is accounted for by the supervisor in his testimony." The minority of the committee as appears on page 479 of the testimony, claim that there was no impression of the seal of the township, or any seal at all on the sealing wax. The result of the ballot as declared by the chairman of the committee is as follows:

"Of the ballots of Maple Grove, 16 are rejected by the committee, which are two marks in the circle at the head of the Silver and Democratic ticket, one at the head of the Prohibition, Silver, Democratic and National; and in the tickets that have been counted, there was one bearing no mark except a blot in purple ink about an inch square over the circle at the top of the Silver ticket, which was counted for Mr. Kerr. At the head of another ballot a voter had evidently placed a cross in the circle at the head of the Silver ticket and erased the same so that the ink was entirely erased, only showing the scar of the mark, and then had placed a plain mark in the circle at the head of the Republican ticket, which ballot was counted, under objections, for Mr. Baird. Upon one ballot marked straight Republican ticket, upon the back of the ballot appears "Challenged 146," immediately under the initials of the inspector, which is among the number of ballots counted for Mr. Baird. One ballot also being straight Republican marked "Challenged 91" counted for Mr. Baird, and the balance of the ballots found in the box counted, there is a total of 360, of which 230 are credited to Mr. Kerr and 138 to Mr. Baird.

The minority of the committee contend that the ticket marked in the circle at the head of the Silver ticket, and also at the head of the Republican ticket, should not have been counted for Mr. Baird; also the two tickets marked on the back, one with the words "Challenged 146" and the other with the words "Challenged 91," should not have been counted for Mr. Baird, and that the two tickets marked at the head of the Silver and Democratic tickets and one at the head of the Prohibition, Democratic, Silver and National, should have been counted for the sitting member, Mr. Kerr, there was but one candidate for Representative voted for on said tickets. We therefore find that there should be credited to Mr. Baird 135 votes and to Mr. Kerr 233 votes, in the township of Maple Grove.

In the township of Albee, there were several persons assisted in marking their ballots by two different members of the board of election inspectors. No member of the board was appointed at the opening of the polls on election day, or at any time or at any time during the day, for the purpose of assisting voters in preparing their ballots. Both the Silver and Republican parties were represented by challengers who were present during the entire day, and witnessed the assistance given voters by the members of the board. The result of the recount by the committee, as declared by the chairman was as follows: The total number of votes credited to both parties was 180, of which 98 were credited to Mr. Baird and 82 to Mr. Kerr. One ticket marked at the head of the Democratic and Silver tickets was rejected by the majority of the committee, which the undersigned members of the committee believe should be counted for Mr. Kerr, and one ticket marked in the circle at the head of the Republican and Democrat tickets, should be counted for the contestant. We therefore find that the contestant should be credited with 99 votes and the sitting member with 83, in the township of Albee.

It appears in the testimony taken before the committee that in the township of Chesaning five or six voters were assisted in marking their tickets without being first sworn as to their inability to read or write the English language. The result of the recanvass of the votes in said township of Chesaning, as declared by the chairman of the committee is as follows: Mr. Baird, 316; and Mr. Kerr, 262.

Both parties consenting, the ballots of the township of Blumfield were not recanvassed by the committee. Hence the result of said township of Blumfield stands as certified by the board of canvassers.

In the township of Bridgeport, four or five voters were assisted in marking their tickets by members of the board of election inspectors. From the testimony it appears that the board did not designate any one of its members for the purpose of assisting voters. The ballot box was opened in said township of Bridgeport and the ballots recounted, against the protest of the sitting member, Mr. Kerr, for the reason that he claimed the ballot box was not properly sealed. The description of the box appears on page 558 of the testimony. The result of the ballot as declared by the majority of the committee, was as follows: Mr. Baird is credited with 259 votes and Mr. Kerr with 184. One ticket which is described on page 562 of the testimony as being marked through the circle at the head of the Republican ticket with a straight line, was counted for the contestant. The undersigned members of the committee contend that this ticket should have been rejected for the reason that there was no cross, simply a straight line through the circle at the head of the Republican ticket. While the statute requires a cross at the head of the ticket, we are willing to concede that the straight line clearly indicates the intention of the voter, and we would not insist on rejecting the ballot were it not for the fact that it was agreed by the members of the committee in the early part of the investigation, that no ballots would be counted unless some part of the cross, indicating the voter's intention, was inside of the circle. In another precinct one ballot was rejected which was marked at the head of the Silver ticket with a straight line drawn through the circle, and if this ticket should be counted for the contestant, then the vote for Mr. Kerr, which was indicated by a straight line at the head of the Silver ticket should be counted also. If one is rejected, the other should be rejected; and if one is counted, the other should be counted.

One ticket, as appears also on page 562 of the testimony, marked in the center of the circle at the head of the Republican ticket with a dot, was canvassed by a majority of the committee for Mr. Baird. There was not the slightest attempt to make a cross in said circle, and the ruling in counting said vote in favor of the contestant was not in accordance with the agreement among the members of the committee on the outset, that no ticket should be counted unless some part of the cross appeared on the circle. This ticket should be rejected.

The tickets marked at the head of both the Republican and Prohibition tickets, which were rejected, should have been counted for Mr. Baird. One ticket was counted for Mr. Baird which was marked in the circle at the head of the Republican ticket, and on the back of said ticket were two crosses made by the stamp used for the purpose of indicating the voter's choice. The minority of the committee would have no objections to counting this ticket were it not for the fact that two ballots marked at the head of the Silver ticket, one, upon the back of which appears the figures "167," written with a lead pencil, and the other upon the back of which appears the words "No. 1," which the majority of the committee rejected. The same rule should govern the canvass of the ticket marked with two crosses on the back made by the stamp that is applied to the canvass of the ballots marked at the head of the Silver ticket, and upon the back of which appears the figures "167" and "No. 1." One ticket marked with a cross in the circle at the head of the Silver ticket contained on the right hand margin of the ticket a very slight impression of the stamp. This ticket was rejected by the majority of the committee, the minority contending that it should be counted for the reason that many tickets were counted for both contestant and the sitting member, in the different precincts, that contained more than one cross outside of the circle, and that whenever a cross appeared in the circle, the ticket was counted. The description of the above tickets appears on pages 561, 562, 563 and 564 of the testimony. If the minority of the committee are correct in passing upon the disputed votes above described, the contestant should be credited in the township of Bridgeport with 253 votes and the sitting member with 186.

The ballot box in the township of Zilwaukee was subpoenaed before the committee and the description of the box before being opened appears on page 492 of the testimony. Upon the box being presented before the committee, the contestee objected to the box being opened and the ballots recanvassed for the reason that the box was not properly sealed, and the evidence discloses the fact that the ballots were not kept in a manner to preserve their integrity. The box was ordered opened by the chairman of the committee and it appeared from the recount that out of 207 votes cast for the office of representative to the State legislature, the contestant received 161 and the sitting member 46.

It appears from the testimony that the contestant was, and still is supervisor of the township of Zilwaukee. That after the ballot box, produced before the committee, from said township of Zilwaukee was purchased by that township, the lock was broken and a new lock was replaced which was purchased at Morley Bros., in the city of Saginaw, by Mr. Baird, and that he received with said lock two keys. The evidence of the township clerk beginning on page 575 of the record, shows that after the election in said township, on the third day of last November, the ballot box, the seal and one key were left in the town hall for at least two days after said election. That the extra key and ballot box have been kept in said hall nearly all the time since said election. That a part of said hall is used as the office of the clerk and supervisor of said township. We submit that keeping the ballots after election in the same room with the key and seal is not in accordance with the requirements of the statute, and does not preserve the integrity of the ballot sufficient to permit a recount of said ballots, and that the objection made by the sitting member to the opening of said ballot box and the recounting of the ballots therein, should have been sustained. It might be well to quote the statute upon this point. The public acts of 1891, section 37:

"After the ballots are counted, they shall, together with only one tally sheet, be placed in the ballot box which shall be securely sealed in such a manner that it cannot be opened without breaking such seal. The ballot box shall then be placed in charge of the township clerk, but the key of said ballot box shall be held by the chairman of the board, and the election seal in the hands of one of the other inspectors of election."

We submit that the ballots in the township of Zilwaukee have been kept in a manner that they are no longer primary evidence of the result at said election. In McCrary on Elections, page 295, we find the rule to be as follows:

"In order to continue the ballots controlling as evidence, it must appear that they have been preserved in the manner and by the officers prescribed in the statute, and that while in such custody they have not been so exposed to the reach of unauthorized persons as to afford a reasonable probability of their having been changed or tampered with. If there has been an opportunity for tampering with ballots, they lose their character as primary evidence."

The People vs. Cicott, 16 Mich., 283.

We therefore contend that the result of the vote for the office of Representative in the township of Zilwaukee should remain as declared by the board of canvassers.

In said township of Zilwaukee, there were voters assisted in marking their tickets who were not first sworn as to their disability to read and write the English language, and whose disability was not apparent to the board. Two persons were registered in said township on the third day of November, election day, who it appears were in the township on registration day, and the only excuse they had for not presenting their names for registration on registration day, was because they supposed the board remained in session until eight o'clock in the evening. This we submit, was not a legal excuse. Said voters were interrogated as to whether or not they would take the oath required by law, and they refused to do so, but were permitted to vote.

The undersigned members of the committee find that the vote for the office of Representative in the second district of Saginaw county, to be as follows:

	Mr. Baird	Mr. Kerr
Birch Run	174	210
Frankenmuth	160	248
Spalding	65	87
Taymouth	152	265
Buena Vista	281	308
Maple Grove	135	233
Albee	99	83
Chesaning	316	262
Blumfield	209	100
Bridgeport	258	186
Zilwaukee	149	55
Totals	1,998	2,037
89

The undersigned members of the committee upon a fair and impartial consideration of the facts placed before us by the parties to this contest, do not find any fraud in the several precincts of said legislative district that would change the result as found by the board of canvassers. We are unable to find that by reason of any irregularities shown to exist in the manner of conducting the election in said district, that the contestant was deprived of a single vote. It would be a dangerous and unjust finding to disfranchise many hundred voters, because of slight irregularities on the part of the election boards. After a careful consideration of the facts we are of the opinion that James Kerr was honestly and lawfully elected to the seat he now occupies in the House.

Dewitt Vought,
James Scully.

Your committee desire to especially commend the splendid, rapid and accurate work done for it during and through this entire investigation by Mr. Charles H. McGurrian, the very able stenographer who was selected to accompany the committee to Saginaw to take and transcribe the notes concerning this investigation. We are very happy to say that in our opinion the rapidity and accuracy of the work performed by Mr. McGurrian has aided the committee very materially in dispatching the work.

We also take pleasure in commending the efficient work of the Sergeant-at-Arms, William E. Stocking, who in the worst of winter weather, traveled night and day many of the townships of the county of Saginaw within the second legislative district to rapidly serve process upon needed witnesses, and who, by his efficient labor and his very careful attention to the duties assigned him, materially shortened the work of your committee and lessened the cost incurred through this investigation.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Graham arose to a question of privilege and sent to the clerk's desk to be read, the following from the Grand Rapids Press of March 2, 1897, and against the insinuations of which he protested:

SAY IT IS A JOB.

School trustees oppose the uniform text book bill.

Classed as a dangerous measure in the interests of a big corporation.

Members of the board of education have been looking up the bill introduced in the legislature by Representative Graham and known as the Graham-Forsyth bill, providing for a uniform system of text books in the State. The more they have investigated the measure the more they oppose it, and now there is not a friend to it among all the trustees.

"The bill is a most dangerous one and it is to the interest of the city to see that it never passes," said one of the members this afternoon. "It provides that all schools in the State shall use the same text books, and a bigger swindle was never put up. It not only places the advanced schools in the cities upon the same plane with the country schools, which are in session only four months in the year, but provides that we must adopt text books which we have already rejected and others which we are now trying to get rid of. The whole thing is a job in the interests of some big concern."

It is possible that some action may be taken against the bill at the next meeting of the board of education on Saturday night.

Mr. Graham addressed the House in regard to the matter as follows:

I ask to have this read for the reason that it not only is a reflection upon my own integrity but upon the intelligence and integrity of the joint committee on Education and State Affairs, who have already had this bill under consideration and after having given it due time and attention, have reported the same back to the House with recommendation that it do pass. Not only this, but to show to the members of this House who the opponents of this bill really are.

The article charges that it is a "big job." Yet the facts are it is almost an exact copy of the Indiana law, which is now and has been for many years, in active operation and giving the best satisfaction. It also charges that under this bill schools would again be compelled to use books which they had been years in getting rid of. It will be manifest to any one at all familiar with the provisions of the bill that this is not true, either in letter or spirit. It charges that the bill compels city schools of the higher grades to use the same books used in the country schools. This again is not true, as the bill only includes books used in the primary schools of the State. It charges that it is in the interest of some big corporation or monopoly. As a matter of fact it provides just the reverse and under its provisions such a thing as a combination or monopoly is impossible either in the manufacture or sale of the books; besides this it fixes a maximum price for what they shall be sold to the consumer, which is about one-half what the people of Michigan are now paying for their school books. The bill is in the interest of no monopoly or combine, and is in the interest of the patrons of our public schools, and the only dangerous feature of the bill is that it may possibly endanger some private snaps.

A great many copies of the bill have been sent out, and on my own motion the same was re-referred to the joint committees, and a public hearing will be given on this bill Thursday evening, March 18, at 7:30, so as to give all parties concerned a chance to be heard.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Chamberlain arose in his place and spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker—I am informed that a gentleman from the city of Ironwood recently visited the Capitol and stated that I had “railroaded” the Ironwood charter bill through the House and Senate and that the people in general of the city of Ironwood knew little or nothing about and would not approve of the provisions of the measure. I stated to the House and Senate committees, and also to the House when the bill was under consideration upon its third reading, that numerous public meetings had been held in the city of Ironwood to consider the merits of the bill, and that the general public and the city council were unanimous in endorsing it. As the statement of the gentleman alluded to has caused considerable comment among legislative members, in justice to the members of the council and other people of the city of Ironwood as well as myself, I offer the following statement concerning the matter, and ask that the same may be read and spread on the Journal as a part of my protest and defense.

The following is the statement referred to:

Ironwood, Mich., March 1, 1897.

This is to certify that the proposed charter of the City of Ironwood, recently passed by the legislature of the State and sent to the Governor for his action, was finally adopted by the common council at a regular meeting held February 11, and was read and discussed at two meetings of the council, held on February 9 and 11.

That the said meetings were open to the public and that all citizens were invited to attend and take part in the discussions.

That numerous citizens were so present and participated in said discussion and that the charter was passed without any opposition from any one. The said charter was compiled by a committee of six citizens appointed by the mayor upon the authorization of the common council.

The said committee consisted of Alderman C. E. Houk, druggist; Alderman D. E. Sutherland, mining superintendent; Alderman Con. Geary, Merchant; Mr. J. R. Thompson, superintendent of Newport mine; Mr. J. S. Monroe, attorney, and Walter S. Goodland, attorney. That the said committee were over three weeks in compiling said charter, and that they were unanimous in recommending its adoption.

We also certify that notice that said committee was compiling the said charter was published in both the local papers, that in the issues of said papers for week of January 30, they contained articles giving an analysis of the proposed provisions in the said charter, and in the issues of February 13 they contained the published proceedings of the meetings of the common council at which said charter was passed.

We also certify that knowledge that the said charter was being compiled was general on the part of our citizens that a very large majority of the citizens and leading taxpayers desire that it become a law; that its provisions are entirely satisfactory to a very large majority of the citizens of Ironwood, and that there is practically a unanimous desire for its passage. It is a measure of economy and will save a considerable sum annually to the taxpayers of the city and that the financial condition of the city is such, that it is very desirable that the new charter become a law.

Wm. Trebilcock,
Mayor.

Chris. P. Lee,
Clerk.
